Powers to withdraw money and limitations as to withdrawals.

12. A depositor may withdraw money from his account only once a week. By the term "week" is meant the period from Monday to Saturday, both days inclusive. A depositor may, therefore, withdraw money from his account on Saturday and again on the following Monday.

13. A minor may only withdraw money deposited by him in his own name. Money deposited on behalf of a minor may only be withdrawn during his minority by his guardian.

14. Women, whether married or single, may withdraw money deposited by them in their own names; and married women may also withdraw money deposited by them as single women, in their own names, their marriage notwithstanding. The fact that a female minor, on whose behalf money has been deposited, is married, or becomes married after the account has been opened on her own behalf, shall not prevent her from withdrawing the money so deposited on attaining majority.

15. A depositor may not withdraw a smaller sum than four annas, and he may not withdraw any sum which includes a fraction of an anna unless it be to close his account, in which case he may withdraw the whole balance at his credit.

How to open an Account.

16. Any person wishing to open an account should apply to the nearest post office that is a Savings Bank. Application need not necessarily be made in person; but the applicant must state his name and address. If he be an Indian he must also state his father's name and caste.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS ACT, 1873 (V OF 1873).

17. The intending depositor must sign a declaration, in the following form, that he has read and accepted the Post Office Savings Bank rules. If he is unable to write, he must attend personally, and, in the presence of a witness, affix his mark or seal to the declaration, to be attested by the signature of the witness. If he should apply in person, a copy of these rules will be given to him to read or they will be read and explained to him, should he be unable to read. If he should not apply in person, a copy of these rules with the form of declaration will be sent to him, and he must present the declaration duly signed, with the first deposit.

Form of declaration to be signed by depositor on making first deposit.

“ I hereby declare that the Post Office Savings Bank Rules have been read { ^{by me} _{to me} } and that I accept them as binding upon me.

“ I further declare that I have no account opened by me on my own behalf at any Post Office Savings Bank.”*

18. Women may open accounts in their own names through their agents or, if they are married women, through their husbands or agents. The agent or husband will be required to produce a letter of authority in the prescribed form from the depositor and to sign the declaration that the depositor understands and accepts the rules. No postal official may under this rule be the agent of any woman, except his own wife, in respect of an account held in the post office in which he is employed.

19. When the declaration is presented, duly signed, with the amount of the first deposit, or when it has been signed by a depositor attending in person to make a deposit, the amount of the deposit will be entered in a pass-book which will be supplied to the depositor, and the entry will be initialled by the postmaster and stamped with the office stamp. The depositor will be required to sign a receipt for the pass-book.

20. If the account be opened at a sub or branch post office, the pass-book for the depositor will have to be obtained from the head office. A preliminary receipt for the amount of the first deposit will, therefore, be given to the depositor, who will be informed of the date on which he should call to receive the pass-book. When the pass-book is handed over to the

* NOTE.—The latter sentence is to be scored through in the case of an account opened on behalf of a minor, in which case, the person opening the account must make the following further declaration :—

“ I declare that I have no account on behalf of the minor at any Post Office Savings Bank.”

“ I declare that the minor was born on (date by—Christian era as, nearly as can be ascertained).”

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.THE POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS ACT, 1873 (V OF 1873).*Post Office Savings Banks Rules—contd.

depositor, he will be required to return this preliminary receipt and to sign a receipt for the pass-book. The amount of the original deposit will be entered in the pass-book by the head office, and the depositor will therefore have a guarantee that the sum has been received in that office. He should be careful to see that the entry in the pass-book corresponds with the amount entered in the preliminary receipt before giving up the latter.

Pass-book and its importance.

21. The pass-book will show, in the vernacular of the district or in English, as the depositor may wish, the number of his account, with the name of the office from which the book is issued, his own name and address. No deposit can be made and no money can be withdrawn from an account without its production, and the Post Office will not be responsible for any sum not acknowledged in the pass-book. Depositors should carefully examine their books before leaving the office, and ascertain that the entries are correct. They should also be careful to keep their pass-books in their own possession, as the Post Office does not accept responsibility for any loss caused to a depositor, if, through his negligence, any person shall obtain possession of the book and fraudulently obtain the payment of any sum belonging to the depositor.

NOTE.—In the case of an account opened at a sub or branch post office, the pass book will be sent to the head office as soon as possible after the 30th April, when the pass-book is presented for entry of interest under rule 30. The depositor will obtain a receipt in exchange for his pass-book, and he must give up this receipt when his pass-book is returned to him.

Loss of Pass-book.

22. No charge will be made for the pass-book at first supplied to a depositor, or for any book issued to him in continuation of the original book which will be retained by the post office. But if a pass-book be lost or spoiled (except under circumstances over which the depositor has no control), or if any account be re-opened with the permission of the Accountant-General (under rule 35), before the expiration of three months from the date of closure, the depositor will have to pay one rupee for a fresh book.

Mode of depositing money after an Account has been opened.

23. (1) A depositor may deposit money at the post office at which his account stands as often as he wishes, so long as the prescribed yearly and maximum limits are not exceeded. All that he is required to do is to take or send the amount to be deposited, with his pass-book, to the post office. The amount of his deposit will be entered in the pass-book, and the balance struck as shown below. The entry will then be initialled by the postmaster and stamped with the date-stamp of the office, and the pass-book will be returned to the depositor or his messenger:—

Date.	Date-stamp of the post office.	Amount of each deposit or withdrawal (to be entered in words).	Amount deposited.	Amount withdrawn.	Balance at credit of the depositor.	Initials of the postmaster.

12th May	Withdrawn three rupees.	...	3 0 0	32 0 0	A.B.C.

(2) A depositor whose account stands at a head office may deposit money at any of the sub-offices under that head office which are Savings Banks, and a depositor whose account stands at a sub-office may deposit money at the head office of the sub-office or at any of the sub-offices of the head office which are Savings Banks. Similarly, a depositor at a branch office may deposit money at the office to which it is subordinate, and if such office is a sub-office, he may also deposit money at the head office of such sub-office. With these exceptions a depositor may deposit money only at the post office at which his account stands.

NOTE 1.—No deposit may be made to an account which has been ordered to be closed.

NOTE 2.—No deposit may be made to an account opened on behalf of a minor after he has attained the age of 18 years.

24. If the amount be deposited at a sub or branch post office, the depositor will receive in addition to the receipt in his pass-book, an acknowledgment from the head office, which will generally be the office at the head-quarters station of the district. This acknowledgment will be delivered to him in ordinary course through the post office. If it should not reach the depositor in proper time, or if, when it reaches him, it should show any signs of erasure, or should not agree with the entry in the pass-book, the depositor should immediately apply to the postmaster of the head office, the name of which is in the pass-book, and renew his application again and again until he receives a satisfactory reply.

THE POST OFFICE SAVINGS-BANKS ACT, 1873 (V OF 1873).

Mode of withdrawing money.

25. When a depositor wishes to withdraw money he must present his pass-book personally or by agent at the post office at which his account stands, with a printed form of application for withdrawal, which can be obtained at the post office, signed by himself, and showing the balance at his credit and the amount which he wishes to withdraw. If the pass-book and application for withdrawal are presented by an agent, the name and signature of the agent should be entered in the application for withdrawal before it leaves the depositor's custody, and in any case the entries must be made before the application is presented at the post office. If the depositor is unable to write, he must attend personally and affix his mark or seal to the application. Should he be absolutely unable to attend personally, he must have his mark or seal affixed to the application and attested by some respectable witness, and the postmaster will make payment to the person presenting his application with the pass-book, after satisfying himself, by such inquiry as he may think proper, of the inability of the depositor to attend and of the genuine character of the application. The mark or seal of a depositor or messenger who cannot write must, at the time he receives payment of a withdrawal, be attested by the signature of a respectable witness (other than the paying officer) who is personally acquainted with the depositor or messenger (as the case may be) and also known to the postmaster or some member of the post office establishment.

NOTE 1.—If a depositor desires to withdraw the whole of the balance shown to his credit in his pass-book he will be required to close his account.

NOTE 2.—In the case of withdrawals made from the accounts of female depositors by their authorised agents under rule 18, the agent must sign the following certificate on the application for withdrawal :—'Certified that the depositor is on this day alive and sane'

26. Should any person other than the father, or if the father is dead, the mother, wish to withdraw money from an account opened on behalf of a minor and claim to do so as guardian of such minor, he will be required to fill in, on a form prescribed by the Director-General, answers to the following questions and such other questions as may be considered necessary, and will only be allowed to withdraw money on the order of the Postmaster-General in accordance with rule 41 :—

(a) What is your relationship to the minor?

(b) Is the father or mother of the minor dead, or are both parents dead? What near relatives of the minor are alive?

(c) Have you been appointed guardian of the minor by will or deed or under any enactment in force in British India? (If the reply to this question is in the affirmative, the applicant should produce the documents on which he relies to support his claim.)

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS ACT, 1873 (V OF 1873).

- (d) Are you an adult relative of the minor, and does he reside with you or is he maintained by you?

NOTE.—Every application for withdrawal from a minor's account must bear a certificate, in one or other of the forms given below,—according to the circumstances of the case—signed by the person making the application :—

- (i) In case of withdrawal from a male minor's account—" Certified that the amount sought to be withdrawn is required for the use of the minor."
- (ii) In case of withdrawal from a female minor's account by her husband—" Certified that the amount sought to be withdrawn is required for the use of the minor who is my legally married wife."
- (iii) In case of withdrawal from a female minor's account by any other person—" Certified that the amount sought to be withdrawn is required for the use of the minor, who is $\frac{\text{married}}{\text{not married}}$."

27. The amount to be withdrawn will be entered in the pass-book and a fresh balance struck, as in the case of a deposit, against the initials of the postmaster and an impression of the date-stamp of the office. The amount will then be paid to the depositor or to the person presenting the pass-book and application, and his receipt taken, in all cases free of stamp duty, on the warrant of payment.

28. (1) The payment of a withdrawal at a sub-post office is subject to the condition that funds are available in the office. If funds are not available, they will be obtained as soon as possible. In such a case the depositor will be informed of the date on which he should come to the post office to receive payment, and he will retain his pass-book. The amount will be paid on presentation of the pass-book on the date mentioned or any subsequent date within one week from that date.

(2) Every application for a withdrawal at a branch post office will be sent to the head or sub-office to which the branch office is subordinate, for a warrant of payment. The depositor will be informed of the date on which he should come to the branch office to receive payment and he will retain his pass-book. The amount will be paid on presentation of the pass-book on the date mentioned or any subsequent date within one week from that date.

(3) Payment at sub and branch offices will be made to the depositor or other person presenting the pass-book under the conditions laid down in rule 25, and his receipt will be taken, in all cases free of stamp duty, on the warrant of payment. The transaction will be entered in the pass-book against the initials of the sub or branch postmaster and an impression of the date-stamp of the office.

NOTE.—In the case of an application to withdraw from (a) a minor's account, (b) a security deposit account, (c) any of the conjoint accounts specified in rule 44, payment cannot, in any circumstances, be made until a warrant of payment is received from the head office.

Interest.

29. Interest will be allowed, until further orders, at the rate of 3 per cent per annum on all deposits, subject to the condition stated in this rule. This interest will be allowed for each calendar month on the lowest balance at credit of an account between the close of the fourth day and the end of the month: provided that interest shall be allowed only on sums of complete rupees, and that it shall be calculated to the nearest pie: provided also that interest shall not be allowed on any sum in excess of Rs5,000 (or of Rs1,000, if the account was opened on behalf of a minor).

NOTE 1.—When an order has been issued to close an account, interest ceases to accrue from the first day of the month in which the order is issued (see end of rule 33).

NOTE 2.—Interest on the account of a deceased depositor ceases to accrue from the first day of the month in which notice is issued to the person or persons recognised by the Postmaster-General as entitled to receive the balance of the account. No interest will be allowed on money deposited after his death in the account of a deceased depositor.

30. The interest calculated as above for each month will be added each year to the balance of each account. Depositors should present their pass-books as soon as possible after the 30th April, in order that the necessary entries may be made in them. If the pass-book be not presented for this purpose, the entry will be made on the next occasion when a deposit is made or when money is withdrawn.

NOTE 1.—Pass-books of depositors in sub and branch post offices will be sent to the head office for the entry of interest under this rule.

NOTE 2.—No balance will be struck in the pass-book after the 31st March until interest has been added for the past year.

Transfer of Accounts.

31. A depositor may have his account transferred, free of charge, to any post office that is a Savings Bank, provided that the account shall have been in existence for at least three months from the date on which it was originally opened. If he should wish to transfer his account, he must present his pass-book personally, or send it to the post office, and must in either case make a written application for transfer. The pass-book will be returned to the depositor (but see Note 3 below), who should present it as soon as possible at the post office to which his account has been transferred, with a specimen of his signature.

NOTE 1.—Accounts cannot be transferred from one head post office to another between the 16th and 31st March, both days inclusive.

NOTE 2.—Accounts ordered to be closed cannot be transferred; nor can an account be transferred after the death of the depositor.

NOTE 3.—The pass-book of a depositor in a sub or branch post office who wishes to transfer his account will first be sent to the head post office to which the sub or branch office is subordinate to have the orders authorising the transfer entered in the book.

NOTE 4.—When an application for the transfer of an account of a female depositor is made by her authorised agent, the agent must certify as follows above his signature on the application for transfer—"Certified that the depositor is on this day alive and sane."

Closing an Account.

32. When a depositor wishes to close his account, he must present his pass-book with a form of application for withdrawal of the amount shown at his credit in the pass-book. The amount of interest due on his account up to the end of the calendar month preceding the date of presentation will be entered in the pass-book, and a final balance struck. The amount will then be paid to the depositor, and his receipt taken on the warrant of payment. The pass-book will be retained in the post office. If the application to close an account be presented at a sub or branch office, the same procedure will be followed as in the case of an ordinary withdrawal, except that the pass-book will be retained, and that the application and pass-book will, when interest is due, be in all cases sent to the head office for the warrant of payment.

NOTE.—The rule (see rule 12) which prevents a depositor from withdrawing money from his account more than once a week does not apply to the closing of an account, that is to say, an account may be closed within the week in which a withdrawal has been made.

33. If an order to close an account be issued by the Postmaster-General or the Accountant-General under these rules, notice in writing will be sent to the depositor requiring him to present his pass-book and receive payment of the balance at his credit as soon as convenient. After the date of such notice, no deposit will be accepted on the account, and no interest will be allowed upon the balance after the end of the calendar month preceding such date.

34. An account opened on behalf of a minor must, if still open, be closed by the person on whose behalf it was opened, on his attaining the age of 18 years. When the late minor is not in India and delay would cause substantial hardship, the Postmaster-General may allow the late guardian to close the account (on behalf of the late minor) on his indemnifying the Post Office against loss from any future claim. If a minor after attaining the age of 18 years still remains a minor by law or order of a court of justice, his guardian must close the account on the minor completing 18 years of age. Interest on an account opened on behalf of a minor ceases to accrue from the first day of the month in which the minor attains the age of 18 years.

Re-opening an Account.

35. A depositor who has once closed an account cannot open another account until after the expiration of three months from the date of closure without the permission of the Accountant-General; and a depositor whose account has been closed by order cannot open a fresh account in any case without the permission of the authority which ordered it to be closed.

Dead Accounts.

36. Accounts in respect of which no transactions have taken place for the period specified below will be treated as "dead" and no subsequent deposit or withdrawal will be allowed in the case of such accounts without the previous orders of the Accountant-General:—

When the balance of the account		And when no sum has been deposited or withdrawn and no interest added for does not exceed	Rs. 10 . . .	3 complete years.
exceeds	" 100 . . .	12 " "

NOTE 1.—By "transaction" in this rule is meant not only a deposit or withdrawal, but also the presentation of the pass-book for the entry of interest.

NOTE 2.—A dead account does not lapse to Government, but may be re-opened at any time on the application of the depositor, and the interest that has accumulated will be added to the principal when the account is revived.

Procedure to be followed in cases of Succession and Guardianship.

37. If a depositor should die, leaving in a Post Office Savings Bank a balance, whether in cash or in Government securities, or both, not exceeding one thousand rupees, and if probate of his will, or letters of administration of his estate, or a certificate granted under Act VII of 1889, be not produced to the Postmaster-General within three months of the death of the said depositor, the Postmaster-General may pay the said sum of money to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer the estate of the deceased.

NOTE.—If the deceased depositor was a minor in whose name more accounts than one stand open, the balances at credit of all these accounts will be added together for the purpose of applying this rule.

38. Balances, whether in cash or Government securities, or both, in excess of Rs. 1,000 may only be paid on production of probate, letters of administration, or a certificate under Act VII of 1889, unless otherwise ordered by the Director-General, who has discretionary power to dispense with such evidence in cases where he is of opinion that to require it would cause hardship, and that to dispense with it would involve no appreciable risk. If the balance in excess of Rs. 1,000 be that of a cash deposit account opened on behalf of a deceased minor—the balance of which, excluding interest, cannot under these rules exceed Rs. 1,000—the discretionary power may be exercised even, if the condition of hardship be not established.

THE POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS ACT, 1873. (V OF 1873).

NOTE.—In the case of a deceased minor on whose behalf more accounts than one have been opened, and the total balance (excluding interest for the current year) at credit of these accounts exceeds Rs. 1,000 the first sentence of this rule will apply.

39. If any depositor becomes insane or otherwise incapable of managing his affairs, and if such insanity or incapacity be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General, then the Postmaster-General may, from time to time, make payment out of the deposits to any proper person. Where a committee or manager has been duly appointed to administer the depositor's estate, nothing in this rule authorises payments to any person other than such committee or manager.

40. The deposits of non-commissioned officers and soldiers of the British Army who die intestate, desert, or become insane or otherwise incapable of managing their affairs, will be made over, on application, to the President of the Committee of Adjustment, or to the legal representative of the deceased as defined in section 29, Regimental Debts Act, 1893 (56 Vict., Ch. 5).

41. When any person other than the father, or, if the father is dead, the mother claims to withdraw money from an account opened on behalf of a minor as being the guardian of such minor, the Postmaster-General may authorise the applicant to withdraw money from the account for the minor's use, in accordance with the following rules:—

- (a) Where the applicant claims to be guardian under the law, on production of proof of the claim to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General.
- (b) Where the applicant claims as guardian duly appointed by will or deed, on production of the documents supporting the claim.
- (c) Where the amount of the account does not exceed Rs. 250 and the applicant does not claim to be guardian under clause (a) or clause (b), upon his giving evidence to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he (the applicant) is the guardian of the minor.
- (d) Where the amount of the account exceeds Rs. 250 and the applicant does not claim to be guardian under clause (a) or clause (b), upon the applicant producing a certificate of administration granted under Act VIII of 1890.
- (e) In any case of doubt the applicant (not being the father or mother of the minor) may be required to produce a certificate of administration, under Act VIII of 1890, before payment is made to him.

NOTE.—An authority given by the Postmaster-General under (c) will not hold good for a subsequent withdrawal if the balance of the account then exceeds Rs. 250.

Public Accounts.

42. The following special conditions govern the opening of "Public Accounts" and their transactions:—

- (a) Accounts may be opened by secretaries, treasurers, or managers of the funds of any dispensary, church or other religious institution, school, orphanage, asylum or library, or of any other funds contributed, for purposes other than the private or personal advantage or amusement of the contributors. Race, racquet, billiard, mess and similar funds, the objects of which are of a private or personal nature, cannot be allowed accounts.

Illustration.—The funds of regimental and public bands, which are maintained for purposes other than private advantage or amusement, are admissible.

Explanation (1).—A library fund is admissible, even though the library is open only to subscribers.

- (f) The annual limit of Rs. 750 and the maximum limit of Rs. 5,000 for deposits (see rules 10 and 11), as well as the maximum limit of Rs. 5,000 for calculation of interest (see rule 29), do not apply to accounts opened under this rule.

(3) When whole pieces of Government paper are required, the investor has the option of requesting, in his application, that the paper should remain in the custody of the Accountant-General, or be delivered to him. In the former case, a receipt from the Accountant-General for the paper will be delivered to the investor. When paper is to be delivered to the investor, it will be enfaced for payment of interest at the district treasury and be forwarded to the post office for delivery to the investor. In the case of Government securities represented by an Investment Certificate, the securities will remain in the custody of the Accountant-General, and no paper can be delivered to the investor or enfaced for payment of interest at the treasury.

(4) Applications for Investment Certificates and Government Promissory Notes must be made on separate forms of application prescribed by the Director-General. If the applicant is already a depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank, he should present his pass-book with his application; if he is not already a depositor, a pass-book will be prepared and delivered to him.

(5) When an application for an Investment Certificate is presented at a head or a sub-post office, an Investment Certificate, signed by the head or sub-postmaster as the case may be, will be handed to the investor across the counter of the post office. When the application is presented at a branch post office, an Investment Certificate will be obtained for the investor from the head office or the sub-office to which the branch office is subordinate. The Accountant-General will fix the rate at which Government securities presented by Investment Certificates can be purchased. This rate will be communicated to head and sub-postmasters, and will remain in force until it is changed by the Accountant-General.

(6) Two or more Investment Certificates may, at any time, be exchanged for a single certificate of their aggregate value. Also, one or more Investment Certificates of the nominal value of not less than Rs. 100 may at any time be exchanged for a whole piece of Government paper of Rs. 100 or any multiple of Rs. 100. The certificates to be exchanged must be presented at the local post office, entered in the appropriate form of application prescribed for the purpose by the Director-General. Separate forms are provided for exchanging—

(a) two or more certificates for a single one, and

(b) one or more certificates for a whole piece of Government paper.

(7) In each case in which an Investment Certificate is issued by a sub-office, the depositor will receive a confirmation by post from the head office showing the No., date and nominal value of the Investment Certificate and the cash balance left at credit of the account after the transaction. If the confirmation does not reach the depositor in proper time, or if, when it reaches him, it shows any signs of erasure, or does not agree with the entries in the Investment Certificate or the pass-book, the depositor should immediately apply to the postmaster of the head office and renew his application until he receives a satisfactory reply.

(8) Applications for Government Promissory Notes presented at any post office will be forwarded to the Accountant-General, at Calcutta, who will take the necessary steps for the purchase. The investor will be charged with the actual price paid for the Government Promissory Notes. The entries in connection with the investment will be noted in the pass-book by the head office.

NOTE.—The limit of Rs. 5,000 for investments through the Post Office does not apply to investments in connection with public accounts, with regimental, police, and other joint accounts, or with security deposit accounts.

47. (1) Any depositor may apply for sale through the Post Office of the whole, or of any portion, of any Government securities which may have been purchased for him through the Post Office, whether held by himself or held for him by the Accountant-General, provided that the securities bear no endorsement other than those made by and in favour of the Accountant-General and that, if only a portion of the Government securities is specified for sale, the nominal value of this portion must not be (a) less than Rs. 10 or (b) such sum as would leave a balance of securities of the nominal value of less than Rs. 10.

(2) Applications for the sale of (a) Investment Certificates, and (b) Government Promissory Notes, must be made on separate forms of application prescribed by the Director-General. In the former case, the application must be accompanied by the Investment Certificates, and the securities will be sold at the same rates as that fixed by the Accountant-General for the purchase of securities represented by Investment Certificates. In the latter case, such of the Government Promissory Notes to be sold as are not held by the Accountant-General must be presented with the application endorsed in favour of the Accountant-General, and these, together with any Government Promissory Notes in the custody of that officer which are specified for sale, will be sold at the current market rate.

(3) The result of sale will be intimated to the depositor by the Accountant-General through the postmaster concerned with the least possible delay after the receipt of the application. The proceeds of sale, together with any interest that may be due, will be credited to the depositor's Savings Bank account in the first instance and, if the annual or total cash limit of his account is thereby exceeded, the excess will not bear interest and must be withdrawn by the depositor.

The application must be made in the form prescribed by the Director-General. The notes will be delivered to the depositor on his surrendering the receipt originally granted to him by the Accountant-General duly endorsed in acknowledgment of his having received back the notes.

Interest on Government Securities.

49. So long as Government securities purchased through the Post Office remain in the custody of the Accountant-General, under rules 46 (3) and 48 (1), interest when due* will be drawn and advised to the local post office Savings Bank by the Accountant-General for credit to the depositor's account. THE INDIAN MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, 1880 (VII OF 1880).

Relief of distressed seamen or apprentices in Bengal.

No. 1574, dated the 25th June, 1886.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 58 and 67 of the ¹Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1880, the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules regarding the relief of distressed seamen or apprentices in Bengal:—

I of 1880.

Relief of distressed seamen.

In these rules the term “distressed seamen” includes—

- (a) all seamen and apprentices being native Indian subjects of Her Majesty who have been shipwrecked, discharged, or left behind at any place in British India, whether from any British ship employed in the merchant service, or from any of Her Majesty's ships, or who have been engaged by any person acting either as principal or agent to serve in any ship belonging to any foreign power, or to the subject of any foreign State, and who are in distress in any such place;
- (b) all seamen and apprentices not being native Indian subjects who have been shipwrecked, discharged, or left behind at any place in British India from any British ship registered in British India, and who are in distress in any such place.

2. In taking charge of distressed seamen, the local authority will provide them with subsistence and clothing, as their necessities may require, but upon the most reasonable terms possible, and no more expensive clothing should be supplied to an officer than to a common seaman. Beds and bedding should not be supplied except under special circumstances, and the value of clothing should not exceed Rs. 10 for each person. In any case of unusual expense, when the local authority considers it absolutely necessary to deviate from the foregoing rules, or to provide relief for a longer period than one month, a statement of the exceptional circumstances which necessitated the further outlay is to accompany his accounts when transmitted for audit. Money payments to the seamen themselves for purposes of relief must be avoided as far as practicable.

3. In all cases to which section 62 of the Act applies, a report should be submitted by the local authority to the Government, in order to admit of the seaman's wages (if any are due) and the expenses incurred in his behalf being recovered from the master or owner or other person liable under section 63 of the Act.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, 1880 (VII OF 1880).

Relief of distressed seamen or apprentices in Bengal—contd

Conveyance home of distressed seamen.

4. Distressed seamen who are in receipt of relief are to be sent home by the earliest available opportunity, and British vessels requiring men to make up their complement should be preferred in order to admit of the seamen earning wages while being so sent; but if no such vessel can be found, and if there is no immediate prospect of any such vessel requiring men, they should be sent as supernumeraries on board the British vessels (whether registered in British India or not) that may be in the port at the time, and bound to their homes, or to ports near their homes, as the case may be; provided, however, that no ship be required to convey more than one supernumerary to every fifty tons of her registered tonnage. Distressed seamen who refuse to work, if able, for their passage home, cease to be entitled to further relief under these rules.

5. The local authority will endorse upon the agreement of the British ship, on board which distressed seamen are sent under section 56 or section 57 of the Act, the name of each man sent on board and the day on which he was sent on board. He will also, in the case of a distressed seaman sent on board under section 57, fill up, sign, and deliver to the master an order with certificate in Form A for the seaman's conveyance.

6. Whenever there are no British merchant vessels to which distressed seamen can be allotted, and the local authority thinks it desirable, in order to avoid expense, to engage a passage for them in foreign merchant vessels, he may do so on the best terms he can obtain. He should avoid, if practicable, making any payment beforehand for such passage, but should report the terms to the Government, and direct the master to apply for payment to the shipping master at the port to which the vessel is bound.

The period of currency shall count from the day on which the rawannah is delivered to the applicant, that day being included and being noted on the face of the rawannah.

16. Provided that when a rawannah is presented and the salt it covers is weighed and clearance given to the holder of the rawannah by the Inspector or Assistant Inspector more than seven days previous to the expiry of the period of the currency of the rawannah, such rawannah shall cease to be valid on the expiry of seven days from the date on which the salt has been weighed, unless the officer of the store by an order endorsed on it allows it to run for its full period or any portion thereof.

17. After the period of currency of a rawannah has elapsed, the rawannah shall cease to be valid, or of any effect whatever, unless the period be extended in the manner hereinafter provided.

18. The Commissioner may from time to time fix the minimum quantity of salt to be covered by a single rawannah.

19. The Commissioner may sanction an abatement for dryage of the salt not exceeding one per cent.

20. On a rawannah being presented and salt being issued thereunder, the Salt Revenue Officer concerned, before allowing such salt to leave his charge, shall ascertain that such rawannah is still in force and valid, and shall satisfy himself that the rawannah covers the amount of salt being issued, and shall then endorse the rawannah and return it to the trader or his agent, or to the carrier of the salt. The salt shall then be allowed to proceed to its destination.

21. When salt has been weighed and delivered to the holder of a rawannah he shall remove it within 24 hours to a distance of at least one mile from the store, unless the officer in charge of the store, by an order endorsed on the rawannah, permits him to keep it within a shorter distance.

22. If previous to utilisation of a rawannah any minor particulars in it require rectification, such as the description of carriage, owner's name, etc., application must be made for such rectification to the officer in charge of the depôt or store before delivery of the salt is applied for.

23. If the despatch differs in minor particulars which have not been rectified in the manner prescribed in the preceding rule, the whole despatch shall be again liable to the payment of a fee not exceeding one-twentieth of the original duty, and shall on such payment be cleared, an entry being made on the rawannah that the payment has been levied as a penalty for infraction of rule, which infraction should be specified by the officer in his own handwriting.

THE INDIAN SALT ACT, 1882 (XII OF 1882).

Rules for the manufacture of salt under license—contd.

24. If the officer suspect fraud, he may refuse to deliver the salt except under security equivalent to its full value, together with the duty leviable thereon, and shall refer the case for the orders of his superior officer.

25. If the owner of a rawannah desires to divide a despatch of salt covered by the rawannah, he shall apply to the officer who issued the rawannah, and the officer shall issue as many partition rawannahs as may be required, and cancel and resume the original rawannah.

26. If anything occurs to prevent the owner of a rawannah clearing the salt before the expiry of the period of currency of the rawannah, the officer who granted the rawannah may at his discretion, but subject to such restrictions as the Commissioner may from time to time impose, renew such rawannah at any time not more than six months from the date of original issue. If application for renewal is made later than a week before the expiry of the original rawannah, it shall be complied with only on the applicant's paying a fee of one-twentieth of the duty originally paid.

The currency of the fresh rawannah shall not exceed that of the original rawannah.

27. Applications for renewal, except as provided in the preceding rule, shall be forwarded for the orders of the Commissioner, who may authorise such further renewals as he may deem fit.

28. When a rawannah is lost or destroyed previous to utilisation the person to whom it was granted may make application to the officer who issued it for a duplicate, and with the application shall deposit with the officer an amount equivalent to the duty paid for the original rawannah plus one-twentieth as a fee. The form of Agreement to be entered into between masters of ships and lascars or other native seamen was prescribed in Finance and Commerce Department Resolution No. 1096-S.R., dated the 25th February, 1903, and has since then been modified in certain particulars.

by the Resolutions noted in the margin.

2. It was recently suggested by the Government of Bengal that the form of Agreement should be revised so as to bring it into conformity, as far as possible, with the form prescribed by the Board of Trade. This suggestion was accepted by the Government of India, after consultation with the other maritime Local Governments concerned. The form has accordingly been revised and brought up to date, and the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct, under section 27 (1) of the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1883 (V of 1883), and in supersession of all previous orders on the subject, that agreements between masters of ships and lascars or other native seamen shall in future be drawn up in the form annexed to this Resolution.

This license is granted subject to the provisions of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), and the rules thereunder.

2. The licensee shall keep records and accounts of all explosives in stock, and of all sales in such form as the Local Government may from time to time direct.

3. There shall not be at the same time in the magazine any quantity of explosives exceeding the quantity specified in the license.

4. The magazine shall be used only for the keeping of the explosives specified in the license, and of receptacles for, or tools or implements for work connected with, the keeping of such explosives.

5. The interior of the magazine, and the benches, shelves and fittings therein, shall be so constructed or so lined or covered as to prevent the exposure of any iron or steel and the detaching of any grit, iron, steel or similar substances in such manner as to come into contact with the explosives; and such interior, benches, shelves and fittings shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, be kept free from grit and otherwise clean; and, in the case of any explosive being possessed which is liable to be dangerously affected by water, due precautions shall be taken to exclude water therefrom:

Provided that so much of this condition as relates to precautions against the exposure of any iron or steel and the detaching of any grit, iron, steel or similar substances shall not be obligatory in a building in which no explosive other than an explosive of the first division of the 6th (ammunition) class is kept.

6. The magazine shall have attached thereto a sufficient lightning conductor, which shall be tested at least once during the currency of the license ¹and a certificate showing the result and date of the last test shall be hung up in a conspicuous place within the magazine.]

7. Before repairs are done to any room or magazine or part thereof, the same shall, as far as is practicable, be cleaned by the removal of all explosives or mixed ingredients thereof, and the thorough washing out of such room, magazine or part, and after such cleaning, these conditions shall cease to apply to such room or part of the magazine until any explosive is again taken into it:

Provided that this condition shall not be obligatory in a magazine in which no explosive other than an explosive of the first division of the 6th (ammunition) class is kept.

8. Except after such cleaning, all tools and implements used in, or in making any repairs to, any part of the magazine shall be made only of wood, copper or brass or some soft metal or material, or shall be covered with some safe and suitable material:

Provided that this condition shall not be obligatory in a magazine in which no explosive other than an explosive of the 1st division of 6th (ammunition) class is kept.

9. Due provision shall be made, by the use of suitable working clothes without pockets, or of suitable shoes, or by searching or otherwise, or by some such means, for preventing the introduction into the magazine of fire, lucifer matches or any substance or article likely to cause explosion or fire, or of any grit, iron or steel; but this rule shall not prevent the introduction of an artificial light of such construction, position or character as not to cause any danger of fire or explosion:

Provided that so much of this condition as applies to the exclusion of grit, iron or steel shall not be obligatory in a building in which no explosive other than an explosive of the 1st division of the 6th (ammunition) class is kept.

10. No person shall smoke in any part of the magazine.

11. No person under the age of fourteen years shall be employed in or enter the magazine, except in the presence and under the supervision of some grown-up person, and no explosive shall be sold to any such person.

12. (1) Two or more descriptions of explosives which may lawfully be possessed in a licensed magazine may be possessed in the same magazine if they are separated from each other by an intervening partition of such substance and character, or by such intervening space, as will effectually prevent explosion or fire in the one communicating with the other:

(2) Provided as follows:—

- (a) the various explosives of classes 1 (gunpowder), 2 (nitrate mixture), 3 (nitro-compound) and 4 (chlorate mixture), safety fuzes belonging to the 1st division of the 6th (ammunition) class and such of the various explosives of the 2nd division of the 6th (ammunition) class as do not contain any exposed iron or steel, may be kept with each other without an intervening partition or space; contain its own means of ignition, and which is of such strength and construction, and contains an explosive in such quantity, that the burning of such fuze would not communicate laterally with other like fuzes.

(5) The expression “safety cartridge,” as used in these rules,—

- (i) means a cartridge for small-arms, the case of which can be extracted from the small-arm after firing, and which is so closed as to prevent any explosion in one cartridge being communicated to other cartridges; and
- (ii) includes a rifle-calibre machine-gun cartridge, if it is as described in clause (i) whether it is for use with a machine-gun having chambers identical with those of rifles or with a machine-gun having special chambers:

Provided that the diameter of the cartridge in either case (i) or case (ii) does not exceed one inch.

(6) Ammunition shall, for the purposes of these rules, be sub-divided as follows, namely:

(a) Division 1, comprising exclusively—

Safety cartridges,	Railway fog-signals, and
Safety-fuzes for blasting,	Percussion-caps; and

(b) Division 2, comprising any ammunition, as hereinbefore defined, which does not contain its own means of ignition and is not included in Division 1, such as—

Cartridges for small-arms, other than safety cartridges,
 Cartridges and charges for cannon, shells, mines, blasting or other like purposes,
 Shells and torpedoes containing any explosive,
 Fuzes for blasting, other than safety-fuzes,
 Fuzes for shells,
 Tubes for firing explosives, and War-rockets,

which do not contain their own means of ignition; and

(c) Division 3, comprising any ammunition as hereinbefore defined, which contains its own means of ignition and is not included in Division 1, such as—

Detonators,
 Cartridges for small-arms, which are not safety cartridges, containing their own means of ignition.

Explanation.—The expression “ammunition containing its own means of ignition” means ammunition having an arrangement, whether attached to or forming part of the ammunition, which is adapted to explode or fire the ammunition by friction or percussion.

8. Fireworks shall, for the purposes of these rules, be sub-divided

Sub-division of “fire” as follows, namely:
“work” (class 7).

(1) Division 1, comprising firework compositions, that is to say,—

(a) any chemical compound or mechanically mixed preparation of an explosive or inflammable nature, which is used for the purpose of making manufactured fireworks, and is not included in any of the foregoing definitions,

(b) any star, and

(c) (except as declared in the proviso to this rule) any coloured fire composition; and

(2) Division 2, comprising manufactured fireworks, that is to say, any explosive of class 1, 2, 3, 4, ¹ or 6 and any firework composition, when such explosive or composition is enclosed in any case or contrivance, or is otherwise manufactured so as to form a squib, cracker, toy cap or amorce, serpent, rocket (other than a war-rocket), maroon, lance, wheel, Chinese fire, Roman candle, or other article specially adapted for the production of pyrotechnic effects or pyrotechnic signals or sound signals:

Provided that a substantially constructed and hermetically closed metal case containing not more than 1 lb. of coloured fire composition of such a nature as not to be liable to spontaneous ignition shall be deemed to be a “manufactured firework” and not a “firework composition.”

THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1881 (IV OF 1884).

Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives—contd.

11. The following general rules shall be observed with respect to the conveyance of explosives:—

I.—No explosive shall be conveyed from place to place unless packed in the manner provided for in the foregoing rules.

II.—There shall not be conveyed in any carriage or vessel which is being used for the conveyance of an explosive, any explosive of a different class and division, of whatsoever nature, which contain its own means of ignition, unless it is sufficiently separated therefrom to prevent any fire or explosion which may take place in one such explosive being communicated to another.

III.—Except in the case of small consignments carried by railway which may be unloaded at any time, explosives shall be loaded or unloaded only between sunrise and sunset. For the purposes of this rule no consignment of more than half a wagon-load booked to one station shall be deemed to be a small consignment.

IV.—Whilst the explosive is being loaded on or unloaded out of any carriage or vessel, no fire or artificial light, or any article which is liable to cause or communicate fire or explosion [such as charcoal, lucifer-matches, articles for striking a light, petroleum to which the Indian Petroleum Act, 1899 (VIII of 1899), or any other Act for the time being in force regarding the importation, possession, and transport of petroleum, applies, or any spirit or oil or substance that gives forth an inflammable vapour at a temperature below 100° Fahrenheit] shall be, or shall be allowed to be, brought, had or used dangerously near to such carriage, ship, or boat, and no smoking shall be allowed in, on, or dangerously near to, the same:

Provided that when the use of a light for the purposes of such loading or unloading is unavoidable, a lamp of such construction, position, or character as not to cause any danger from fire or explosion may be used; and no person, while handling any explosive (except an explosive of Division 1, class G, if packed in accordance with the packing rules), shall wear boots or shoes with iron or steel nails, heels or tips.

V.—In the loading or unloading of any explosive, the casks and packages containing the same shall be passed from hand to hand and not rolled upon the ground; they shall not be thrown or dropped down, but shall be carefully deposited and stowed.

VI.—The explosive shall not be conveyed except in the interior of a carriage so enclosed on all sides with wood or metal, or in the hold of a ship or boat having a close deck so closed, as effectually to protect the explosive against accident by fire from without. If the explosive cannot be so secured it shall be completely covered with painted cloth, tarpaulin, or other suitable material so as to effectually protect it against communication of fire.

VII.—There shall not be any iron or steel in the interior of the portion of the carriage or vessel with which the case containing the explosive is or may come in contact, unless the same is effectually covered with leather, wood, cloth, or other suitable material.

VIII.—In the stowing of the explosive, due precautions shall be taken by means of a partition or otherwise and by careful stowing to secure explosive from being brought into contact with, or endangered by, any other article or substance conveyed in such carriage or vessel which is liable to cause fire or explosion; and if the explosion is dangerously affected by water, due precautions shall be taken to exclude water from coming into contact with such explosive.

IX.—The amount of the explosives conveyed in any one carriage or vessel at any one time shall not exceed 2,000 lbs. unless the carriage be so enclosed on all sides with wood or metal; or the vessel have a close deck so closed, as effectually to protect the explosive against accident by fire from without, in which case the amount of the explosive conveyed shall not exceed the following:—*

	Tons.
In any one carriage on a railway	10
In any one other carriage	2
In any one vessel	20

* NOTE.—This rule shall, in the case of dynamite conveyed by railway, be read subject to paragraph XII of Rule 13.

X.—Nothing in the foregoing rules (except Rule 1) shall apply to any explosive of the 1st Division of the 6th (ammunition) class:

Provided that all due precautions are taken for the prevention of accidents.

12. The following rules shall be observed with respect to the
than by railway. railway:—

I.—No explosive shall be conveyed in a carriage or boat whilst carrying or plying for public passengers, unless the quantity is less than 5 lbs. and notice has been given beforehand to the person in charge of such carriage or boat; and all due precautions are taken for the prevention of accidents by fire or explosion:

Provided that there shall not be conveyed in any such carriage or boat any explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class or any explosive of the 3rd Division of the 6th (ammunition) class, or of the 1st Division of the

Provided that the amount of explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class in the detonators shall in no case exceed in the aggregate 3 oz. (a certificate to this effect being given by the agent of the company by whom the detonators are tendered for transport).

Provided also that no other explosive is carried in the same compartment.

II.—With respect to the conveyance by carriage or vessel of explosives of the 5th (fulminate) class, or of the 3rd Division of the 6th (ammunition) class, or of the 1st Division of the 7th (firework) class, or of larger quantities than 5 lbs. of any other explosive, the following regulations shall be observed:—

- (1) The person in charge of the carriage or vessel shall not drive or conduct the same in a dangerous or reckless manner, and shall take all due precautions to avoid fire and explosion, and no person shall do any act or thing in relation to the explosive which tends to cause fire or explosion, and is not reasonably necessary for the conveyance of the explosive or for work immediately connected with such conveyance; and a person who is intoxicated shall not have charge of any carriage or vessel conveying explosive, and shall not be permitted to be in, or on, or attending the same.
- (2) A person shall not forward to any warehouseman or carrier a consignment of explosive, unless he has given notice to such warehouseman or carrier beforehand, stating the name and quantity of the explosive proposed to be conveyed, and the name and address of the proposed consignee, and has had an intimation that the warehouseman or carrier is prepared to receive the consignment, and a warehouseman or carrier shall not make such an intimation, nor receive such consignment, unless he is prepared to receive it, and forthwith to despatch the same, or to deposit it in a magazine or at a place at which a person is licensed to possess the same.
- (3) The carriage or vessel conveying the explosive shall be in charge of, and constantly attended by, some competent person, or by a sufficient number of competent persons, and such persons shall not, if the amount of the explosive conveyed exceed 100 lbs., stop or delay for a longer time than may be reasonably necessary, or stop unnecessarily at any place where such stopping would be attended with special public danger.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884 (IV OF 1884).

III.—No explosive belonging to class 1 (gunpowder class), class 2 (nitrate-mixture class), class 3 (nitro-compound class), class 4 (chlorate-mixture class) or class 5 (fulminate class), shall be carried otherwise than by rail, across any railway bridge over which reasonable facilities for the conveyance thereof by rail are afforded by the Railway Administration:

Provided that this prohibition shall not apply in respect of quantities of explosives of class 1 (gunpowder class) or class 3 (nitro-compound class) not exceeding 5 lbs. in weight.

13. The following rules shall be observed with respect to the Conveyance by public conveyance of explosives by public railways:—

I.—No person shall send for carriage upon any railway any consignment of an explosive, unless he has given to the officer in charge of the railway station previous notice in writing which, at the option of the Railway Administration, may extend to 48 hours, of his intention to send such consignment, and stating the true name, description, quantity, and mode of packing of the explosive proposed to be conveyed, and his own name and address, and also the name and address of the proposed consignee, and unless he has had an intimation in writing from an authorized officer of the railway that such consignment will be received.

II.—No explosive which a Railway Administration shall, by any notice or regulation for the time being in force, notify that they will not receive, shall be brought, sent, or forwarded to or upon any railway of the said Railway Administration.

III.—Consignments of explosives shall be sent to the forwarding station and shall be received by the railway servants only at such times, between sunrise and sunset, as the Railway Administration may appoint; and every package containing any explosive proposed to be conveyed on any railway shall immediately on arrival at the station be unloaded and placed in a safe place under the special direction of the officer in charge of the station.

All gunpowder under despatch or receipt by a Government arsenal, dépôt, or factory, shall be loaded or unloaded in the railway vans by Government servants employed in such arsenal, dépôt, or factory. In each van used by the railway for the transport of gunpowder the packages of gunpowder shall be secured in such a way as to prevent concussion when the train is in motion.

IV.—An explosive shall be removed by the consignee from the receiving station during the twelve hours of daylight after arrival: if this condition is not strictly complied with, the Railway Administration may return the consignment to the consignor at his risk and expense. And

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884 (IV OF 1884).*Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives—contd.

V.—The Railway Administration may refuse to receive any packages which they suspect to contain any explosive packed or sent in contravention of these regulations. And in case any package, which the Railway Administration suspect, shall be upon any railway, the Railway Administration may open, or require to be opened, such package, to ascertain the fact, at the risk and expense of the consignor, and may return the explosive contained in the package to the consignor at his risk and expense, keeping the packages, pending such return, in the manner prescribed in the preceding rule.

VI.—Subject to the exception provided for in clause (e), no explosive shall be conveyed by passenger train except of the kinds and in the manner hereinafter specified in this rule:

- (a) Safety cartridges and percussion-caps and safety-fuzes (for blasting), also fog-signals for railway use which may be conveyed in ordinary wagons or carriages.

Provided also that no other explosive is carried in the same compartment.

- (d) Sporting gunpowder or non-safety cartridges packed in double cases as before provided, so long as the gunpowder is contained in one-pound tin canisters packed in a stout wooden case with an outer covering of tin or zinc completely spark-proof, or in metal-lined cases of a pattern approved by the Railway Administration. But no outer case shall contain more than 25 lbs. of gunpowder, and the total consignment

XI.—The certificate referred to in Rule 13 (IX) shall be valid for six months after date, if the examination has been made between the 1st [1st August] and 31st March, but any Railway Administration which accepts dynamite and other nitro-glycerine compounds for transport may demand a fresh certificate for these explosives if presented for conveyance between 1st April and 1st [31st July] (both inclusive).

XII.—Packages containing dynamite and other blasting explosives of the 3rd (nitro-compound) class, or explosives of the 4th (chlorate-mixture), 5th (fulminate) classes or of the 1st Division of the 7th (fire-work) class shall be stowed in one layer only and secured so as to prevent movement during transit, and the gross load in any one wagon shall not exceed 3 tons:

Provided that, if the packages of explosive are in rectangular form and are properly secured so as to prevent movement during transit, they may be stowed in any number of layers not exceeding five, and the gross load in any one wagon shall not exceed 5 tons.

XIII.—No explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class or of the 3rd Division of the 6th (ammunition) class, or of the 7th (firework) class shall be carried in the same train with any explosive not of the class and division to which it belongs, unless it be sufficiently separated therefrom to prevent any fire or explosion which may take place in one such explosive being communicated to another.

XIV.—Wagons used for the carriage of explosive shall be examined to see that they are spark-proof, and have been cleaned out before they are loaded. Hair, cloth, hides, or other suitable materials shall be spread on the floor of the wagon and between each layer of packages, except when the packages are covered with gunny or felt, or contain safety cartridges for small-arms packed in tin-lined service-pattern boxes.

XV.—Wagons containing explosives shall be loaded and unloaded on sidings distant as far as possible from the station buildings.

But in the case of safety cartridges for small-arms packed in tin-lined service-pattern boxes, there is no restriction. Subject to the provisions of Rule 11 (III), the loading and unloading of explosives when once begun shall be diligently proceeded with until the same is completed.

Rule for testing Explosives.

With reference to rule 22 of the Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives published with this Notification and in supersession of the Notification of the Government of India in the Home Department, No. 5529 (Public), dated the 11th October 1901, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to make the following rule on the subject of the tests which explosives should be required to pass before their importation is permitted.

Rule.

Class 1.—Gunpowder class. Gunpowder is not required to pass a test.

Class 2.—Nitrate-mixture class. Nitrate-mixture explosives are not ordinarily required to pass a test. The Local Government, however, or the authorized officer granting the import license under rules 20 and 21 of the Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives published with this Notification may in any particular case or class of cases require that a sample of the explosive which is to be imported be sent first to the Chemical Examiner for an analysis of its constituent parts.

THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884 (IV OF 1884).

Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives—contd.

Class 3.—Nitro-compound class. It is for explosives of this class that testing is chiefly required in respect to the purity of their composition and their liability to liquefaction or exudation. The tests prescribed for the nitro-compound explosives are contained in Schedule A attached to this rule.

Class 5.—Fulminate class. No test has been laid down for explosives of the Fulminate class.¹

Class 6.—Ammunition class. No test is required for explosives of the 1st Division of this class. If the substances of which explosives of the 2nd and 3rd Divisions are composed have to be tested under the preceding rules, they will be equally liable to be tested when enclosed in any case or contrivance and thus falling under the Ammunition class.

Class 7.—Firework class. Explosives of this class are not required to pass a test.

SCHEDULE A

Heat Test as applied to Explosives of the Nitro-compound Class

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

Apparatus required.

1. A water bath, consisting of a spherical glass or copper vessel [(a) Fig. 1] of about 8 inches diameter, and with an aperture of about 5 inches; the bath is filled with water to within a quarter of an inch of the edge. It has a loose cover of sheet copper about 6 inches in diameter (b), and rests on a tripod stand about 14 inches high (c), which is covered with coarse iron wire gauge (e), and is surrounded with a screen of thin sheet tin or copper (d). Within the latter is placed an Argand burner (f), with glass chimney. The cover (b) has four holes arranged as seen in Fig. II, No. 4 to receive the regulator, No. 3 the thermometer, Nos. 1 and 2 the test-tubes containing the gun-cotton or other materials to be tested. Around holes 1 and 2 on the underside of the cover are soldered three pieces of brass wire with points slightly converging (Fig. III);

7. A thermometer, with range not less than from 30° to 212° Fahrenheit.

8. A minute clock.

Materials required.

(a) Test-paper.—The test-paper is prepared as follows:—45 grains of white maize starch (cornflour), previously washed with cold water, are added to $8\frac{1}{2}$ ounces of distilled water, the mixture is stirred, heated to boiling, and kept gently boiling for 10 minutes; 15 grains of pure potassium iodide (i.e., which has been re-crystallized from alcohol) are dissolved in $8\frac{1}{2}$ ounces of distilled water. The two solutions are thoroughly mixed and allowed to get cold. Strips, or sheets, of best white English filter paper weighing air dry, from 4.1 to 4.6 grammes per 100 square inches, previously washed with water and re-dried are dipped into the solution thus prepared, * * * and allowed to remain in it for not less than 10 seconds; they are then allowed to drain and dry in a place free from laboratory fumes and dust. The upper and lower margins of the strips, or sheets, are cut off, and the paper is preserved in well-stoppered or [corked] bottles, and in the dark.² The dimensions of the pieces of test-paper used are about $\frac{1}{16}$ inch by $\frac{1}{8}$ inch (10 mm. by 20 mm.).

(b) Standard tint paper.—A solution of caramel in water is made of such concentration that when diluted one hundred times (10 cc. made up to 1 litre) the tint of this diluted solution equals the tint produced by the Nessler test in 100 cc. water containing 0.000075 grm. of ammonia or 0.00023505 grm. of chloride of ammonium. With this caramel solution lines are drawn on strips of white filter paper³ by means of a clean quill pen. When the marks thus produced are dry the paper is cut into pieces of the same size as the test-paper previously described, in such a way that each piece has a brown line across it near the middle of its length, and only such strips are preserved in which the brown line has a breadth varying from $\frac{1}{2}$ mm. to 1 mm. ($\frac{1}{80}$ of an inch to $\frac{1}{16}$ of an inch).

² When a paper is freshly prepared and as long as it remains in good condition, a drop of dilute acetic acid put on the paper with a glass rod produces no coloration. In process of time, however, the stronger the light to which the paper is exposed, the sooner a drop of the acid produces a brown or bluish coloration (a single hour of direct sunlight produces a marked effect), and whenever this is the case, the paper should be rejected. After preparation the paper should be kept in the dark for a month before being taken into use. After that, if carefully kept in the dark, it will remain good for six months or more, but should be tested from time to time as above.

I.—TESTING DYNAMITE, BLASTING GELATINE, AND OTHER EXPLOSIVES OF THE FIRST DIVISION OF THE NITRO-COMPOUND CLASS.

A.—DYNAMITE, ETC., ETC.

Nitro-glycerine preparations, from which the nitro-glycerine can be extracted in the manner described below, must satisfy the following test.

This test, however, though at present looked upon as the most important, as far as testing the purity of the nitro-glycerine is concerned, is in England only one of several which any given sample of nitro-glycerine preparation has to satisfy in order to establish its compliance with the definition in the Authorised List.

A funnel 2 inches across (d), a cylindrical measure divided into grains (e). (See sketch.)

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884 (IV OF 1884).Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives—contd.Mode of operation.

About 300 to 400 grains of dynamite (b) finely divided are placed into the funnel, which has previously been loosely plugged by some freshly-ignited asbestos (a).

The surface is smoothed by means of a flat-headed glass rod or stopper, and some clean washed and dried Kieselguhr (c) is spread over it to the depth of about $\frac{1}{2}$ inch.

Water is next carefully dropped from a wash bottle upon this Kieselguhr, and when the first portion has been soaked up, more is added; this is repeated until sufficient nitro-glycerine has been collected in the graduated measure (e) below.

If any water should have passed through with the nitro-glycerine, it should be removed with a piece of blotting paper, and the nitro-glycerine, if necessary, filtered through a dry paper filter.

Application of the Test.

The thermometer is fixed so as to be inserted through the lid of the water bath described under I, into the water (which is to be steadily maintained at a temperature of 160° Fahr.*) to a depth of 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches. Fifty grains of nitro-glycerine, to be tested, are weighed into a test-tube in such a way as not to soil the sides of the tube. A test paper is fixed on the hook of the glass rod, so that when inserted into the tube it will be in a vertical position. A sufficient amount of a mixture of half distilled water and half glycerine to moisten the upper half of the paper is now applied to the upper edge of the test-paper, by means of a camel's hair pencil, the cork carrying the rod and paper is fixed into the test-tube and the position of the paper adjusted, so that its lower edge is about half way down the tube; the latter is then inserted through one of the perforations of the cover to such a depth that the lower margin of the moistened part of the paper is about five-eighths of an inch above the surface of the cover. The test is complete when the faint brown line which after a time makes its appearance at the line of boundary between the dry and moist part of the paper equals in tint the brown line of the standard tint paper.

The nitro-glycerine under examination will not be considered to have satisfied the test unless the time necessary to produce the standard tint as above described is at least 15 minutes.

* For explosives supplied for His Majesty's Military and Naval Services the temperature is fixed by the War Office at 160°.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884 (IV OF 1884).

B.—BLASTING GELATINE, GELATINE DYNAMITE, AND ANALOGOUS PREPARATIONS.

Fifty (50) grains of blasting gelatine are to be intimately incorporated with one hundred (100) grains of French chalk.* The mixture is to be gradually poured into a test-tube of the dimensions prescribed above for the dynamite heat test, with the aid of gentle tapping upon the table, between the introduction of successive portions of the mixture into the tube, so that when the tube contains all the mixture it shall be filled to the extent of $1\frac{3}{4}$ inches (one inch and three-quarters) of its height. The test paper is then to be inserted and the heat is to be applied in the manner prescribed above for the dynamite heat test, and the sample tested is to withstand exposure to 160° Fahr. for a period of ten (10) minutes, before producing a discoloration of the test-papers corresponding in tint to the standard colour test which is employed for governing the results of the dynamite heat test.

N.B.—Non-gelatinized nitro-glycerine preparations from which the nitro-glycerine cannot be expelled by water, are tested without any previous separation of the ingredients, the temperature being as above (160° Fahr.) and the time being seven (7) minutes.

C.—CORDITE AND BALLISTITE.

1. Apparatus required.

The apparatus necessary for the application of the heat test to cordite is identical with that described above for explosives of the nitro-compound class generally† with the addition of a mill and a nest of sieves‡ similar

* This can be readily effected by carefully working the two materials together with a wooden pestle in a wooden mortar.

The French chalk should be of good commercial quality and after being carefully washed with distilled water and dried in a water oven, it should be exposed under a bell jar to moist air until it has taken up about 0.5 per cent. of moisture. It should then be bottled for use; and with ordinary care the limits of 0.5 per cent. can be maintained in keeping.

† In the Waltham Abbey apparatus the cover (Fig. II) has all the holes around the circumference, instead of having one in the centre and three around the circumference.

‡ A nest of two sieves with the holes drilled in sheet copper. The holes in the top sieve have a diameter=14 B. W. G.; those in the second=21 B. W. G.

If too hard for the mill, it may be softened by exposure to the vapour of acetone, or reduced to the necessary degree of sub-division by means of a sharp moderately coarse rasp. Should it have become too soft in the acetone vapour for the mill, it should be cut up into small pieces which may be brought to any desired degree of hardness by simple exposure to air.

Explosives which consist partly of gelatinized collodion cotton and partly of ungelatinized gun-cotton are best reduced to powder by a rasp, or softened by exposure to mixed ether and alcohol vapour at a temperature of 90° to 100° Fahr.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884 (IV OF 1884).*Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives—contd.

to those used at Waltham Abbey for preparing the cordite for testing (see instructions below).

2. Preparation of the sample to be tested.

Pieces half an inch long are cut from one end of every stick selected for the test; in the case of the thicker cordites, each piece so cut is further sub-divided into about four portions. These cut pieces are then passed once through the mill, the first portion of material which passes through being rejected on account of the possible presence of foreign matter from the mill. The ground material is put on the top sieve of the nest of sieves and sifted. The portion which has passed through the top sieve and been stopped by the second is taken for the test. If the mill is properly set the greater portion of the ground material will be of the proper size.

If the volatile matter in the explosive exceed 0.5 per cent. the sifted material should be dried at a temperature not exceeding 140° Fahr. until the proportion does not exceed 0.5 per cent.

After each sample has been ground, the mill must be taken to pieces and carefully cleaned.

3. Application of the Test.

The thermometer is fixed so as to be inserted through the lid of the water bath, described under I so as to be immersed in the water to a depth of 2½ inches. The water is maintained at a constant temperature of 180° Fahr. When this temperature is reached, 25 grains of the sifted cordite are put into one of the test-tubes, and collected at the bottom by gentle tapping. A test-paper is fixed on to the hook of the glass rod, so that when inserted into the tube it will be in a vertical position. A mixture of equal parts of distilled water and pure glycerine (Price's) is now applied to the upper edge of the test-paper by means of a camel's hair pencil, in sufficient amount to moisten the upper half; the stopper carrying the rod and paper is fixed into the test-tube and the position of the paper adjusted, so that its lower edge is about half-way down the tube; the latter is then inserted through one of the perforations of the cover to the same depth as the thermometer. The lower margin of the moistened part of the paper should then be about five-eighths of an inch above the surface of the cover. The test is completed when the faint brown line, which after a time makes its appearance at the margin between the wet and dry portions of the test paper, equals in depth of tint the brown line drawn on the standard tint paper.

THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884 (IV of 1884).

Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives—contd.

4. The time which elapses between the insertion of the test-tube and the completion of the test must not be less than 15 minutes.

N.B.—In the case of ballistite the treatment is the same, except that when it is in a very finely granulated condition it need not be cut up.

II.—TESTING GUN-COTTON, SCHULTZ'S GUNPOWDER, E. C. POWDER, AND OTHER EXPLOSIVES OF THE SECOND DIVISION OF THE NITRO-COMPOUND CLASS.

A.—COMPRESSED NITRO-CELLULOSE, TONITE, ETC., ETC.

Sufficient material to serve for two or more tests is removed from the centre of the cartridge by gentle scraping, and, if necessary, further reduced by rubbing through a sieve with a clean hard brush.

The fine powder thus produced is spread out in a thin layer upon a paper tray 6 inches by $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches, which is then placed ¹[inside] a water oven, kept as nearly as possible at 120° Fahr.

The wire gauge shelves in the oven should be about 3 inches apart. The sample is allowed to remain at rest for 15 minutes in the oven, the door of which is left wide open.

After the lapse of 15 minutes the tray is removed and exposed to the air of the room for two hours, the sample being at some point within that time rubbed upon the tray with a brush, in order to reduce it to a fine and uniform state of division.

Application of the Test.

The cover of the water bath is fitted with the gas regulator which is inserted through the centre hole (No. 4). The thermometer is fixed into hole No. 3. The water in the bath is then heated to 170° Fahr., and the regulator set to maintain that temperature. Twenty grains of the sample to be tested are weighed out, placed in the test-tube and gently pressed down until the specimen occupies a space of not more than $1\frac{5}{16}$ inches in a test-tube of the dimensions specified. A test-paper is affixed to the hook of the glass rod or tube, and moistened by touching the upper edge with a drop of distilled water containing 50 per cent. of Price's glycerine. The quantity of liquid used must be only sufficient to moisten about half of the paper. The cork carrying the rod and test-paper is then fixed into the test-tube, and the latter inserted into the bath to a depth of $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches, measured from the cover, the regulator and the thermometer being inserted to the same depth. The test-paper is to be kept near the top of the test-tube, but clear of the cork, until the tube has been immersed for about five minutes. A ring of moisture will about this time be deposited upon the sides of the test-tube a little above the cover of the bath; the glass rod must then be lowered until the lower margin of the moistened part of the paper is on a level with the bottom of the ring of moisture in the tube; the paper is now closely watched. The test is complete when the faint brown line, which makes its appearance at the line of boundary between the dry and moist parts of the paper, equals in tint the brown line of the standard tint paper.

The interval of time between the first insertion of the tube containing the sample of gun-cotton in the water at 170° and the production of the standard tint constitutes the test, and this interval of time must be not less than 10 minutes, or the sample will not be considered to have satisfied the test.

B.—GELATINIZED AND SEMI-GELATINIZED NITRO-CELLULOSE PREPARATIONS.*

Twenty-five grains introduced into the test-tube* of the dimensions prescribed for the dynamite heat test, then proceed as for Blasting Gelatine, etc., taking the temperature at 180° Fahr., and the time as 15 minutes.

C.—NITRO-CELLULOSE NOT INCLUDED IN A. OR B., SCHULTZ'S POWDER, E. C. POWDER, ETC., ETC.

Sufficient of the sample, without further mechanical division, is dried in the oven as above, and then exposed for two hours to the air. The test as directed above for compressed Nitro-Cellulose, etc., is then applied, the minimum duration of test being the same, viz., 10 minutes.

D.—PICRIC ACID.

(1) The material shall contain not more than 0.3 part of mineral or non-combustible matter in 100 parts by weight of the material dried at 160° Fahr.

* If in a compressed form it should be broken up in the same manner as cordite and ballistite.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884 (IV OF 1884).

Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives—contd.

- (2) It should not contain more than a minute trace of lead.
 - (3) One hundred parts of the dry material shall not contain more than 0.3 part of total (free and combined) sulphuric acid, of which not more than 0.1 part shall be free sulphuric acid.
 - (4) Its melting point should be between 284° and 253° Fahr.

E.—AMMONITE, BELLITE, ROBURITE, AND EXPLOSIVES OF SIMILAR COMPOSITION.

These are required to stand the same heat test as Compressed Nitro-Cellulose.

III.—TESTING CHLORATE MIXTURES.

The material must not be too sensitive* and must show no tendency to increase in sensitiveness on keeping.

The material must contain nothing liable to reduce the chlorate.

Chlorides calculated as Potassium Chloride must not exceed 0.25 per cent.

The material must contain no free acid, or substance liable to produce free acid.

Explosives of this class containing nitro-compounds will be subject to the Heat test as if they belonged to Class III.

APPENDIX.

EXUDATION AND LIQUEFACTION TEST FOR BLASTING GELATINE, GELATINE DYNAMITE AND ANALOGOUS PREPARATIONS.

Test for Liquefaction.

A cylinder of blasting gelatine is to be cut from the cartridge to be tested, the length of the cylinder to be about equal to its diameter and the ends being cut flat.

The cylinder is to be placed on end on a flat surface without any wrapper, and secured by a pin passing vertically through its centre.

* They will be considered too sensitive if they can be exploded however partially by means of a glancing blow with a broomstick on soft wood (such as deal).

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884 (IV of 1884).

Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives—contd.

In this condition the cylinder is to be exposed for one hundred and forty-four (144) consecutive hours (six days and nights) to a temperature ranging from 85° to 90° Fahr. (inclusive), and during such exposure the cylinder shall not diminish in height by more than one-fourth of its original height, and the upper cut surface shall retain its flatness and the sharpness of its edge.

N.B.—If the blasting gelatine and the gelatine dynamite to be tested be not made up in a cylindrical form, the above test is to be applied with the necessary modifications.

TEST FOR LIABILITY TO EXUDATION.

There shall be no separation from the general mass of the blasting gelatine or gelatine dynamite of a substance of less consistency than the bulk of the remaining portion of the materials under any conditions of storage, transport, or use, or when the material is subjected three times in succession to alternate freezing and thawing, or when subjected to the liquefaction test hereinbefore described.

Powers conferred on Chief Inspector of Explosives.

No. 6296, dated the 13th December, 1901.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 7 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rule in supersession of the rule published with Home Department Notification No. 660, dated the 23rd March, 1899, and modified by Home Department Notification No. 888, dated the 27th March, 1900, namely:—

Rule.

“The Chief Inspector or Inspector of Explosives with the Government of India may, subject to the provisions of the Indian Arms Act, 1878 (XI of 1878), and of any rule thereunder in cases to which that Act applies, in any part of British India—

- (a) enter, inspect and examine any place, carriage or vessel in which an explosive is being manufactured, possessed, used, sold, transported or imported under a license granted under the Indian Explosives Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), or in which he has reason to believe that an explosive has been or is being manufactured, possessed, used, sold, transported or imported in contravention of that Act or of the rules under that Act;
- (b) search for explosives therein;

III. Canal Offices are open according to the hours notified in the Telegraph Guide.

¹[3. An Express telegram will be accepted during the hours when an office is closed, if the terminal office is opened or its attention can be gained, on the payment of an extra fee. If both the offices of origin and destination are closed, the extra fee shall be two rupees, but if only one of them is closed, one rupee. The fees will be paid to the telegraphists in the closed offices. When several telegrams are handed in together by the same person at an office which is closed, a single fee only will be payable in respect to that office. Exception.—At places where there is more than one telegraph office, only one will ordinarily be available for use by the public during closed hours. The other telegraph offices at such a place will not accept telegrams for despatch, even on payment of extra fees, but will exhibit a notice outside the office directing intending senders of telegrams to the nearest open telegraph office, or if there is no open telegraph office, to the nearest telegraph office which is available for the despatch of telegrams on payment of extra fees.]

18. Language, etc.—The text of Private telegrams may be in plain language, in Code language, or in Figure Cipher, or partly in one and partly in the other. Letter Cipher is not admitted in Private telegrams.

(a) Plain Language is that which offers an intelligible sense in English, or in any foreign language, or in any of the Vernacular languages subject to the conditions of Rule 17.

(b) By "Telegrams in Plain language" is understood those of which the text is written entirely in Plain language. ¹[MIXED TELEGRAMS.]

(h) Words in Plain language inserted in the text of a mixed telegram, i.e., a telegram composed of words in Plain language and words in Code language, must not contain more than ten characters according to the Morse alphabet, and any excess is counted separately as one word in each case.

(i) If the mixed telegram contains, in addition, Cipher language, the passages in Cipher are counted according to the stipulations of Rule 55.

(j) If the mixed telegram is composed only of passages in Plain language and of passages in Cipher language, the passages in Plain language are counted according to the stipulations of clause ¹(c), and the passages in Cipher language according to those of Rule 55.

(k) The Address or Sender's name in telegrams of which the text is written wholly or partly in Code language is charged according to the stipulations of Rule 53 and clause ¹(c).

(l) Registered Abbreviated Addresses are treated as Plain language [clause ¹(c)] when occurring in the Address or as the Sender's name in both Plain and Code language telegrams and also in the text as Plain language telegrams. When in the text of a Code language telegram, they are treated according to clause (h).

19. Erasures, etc.—Every interlineation or insertion, reference, erasure, or re-written word must be authenticated by the Sender or by his representative.

20. Parts of a telegram.—The different parts forming an Inland telegram should be written in the following order:—

(a) The Address (Rules 24—32).

(b) The Text.

(c) The Sender's name (Rule 33).

21. Special Instructions.—The Sender should write upon the form, in the space provided, his instructions regarding prepayment of reply, if any. Other instructions regarding delivery at destination, acknowledgment of receipt, collation (or repetition), open delivery, or delivery only to the Addressee himself, etc., may be written in any blank space at the end of the text of the telegram (but see Rules 116, 119 and 120).

22. In the case of a Multiple telegram, the Special Instructions which concern each Addressee should be written, immediately before his name; but in the case of a Collated Multiple telegram, it is sufficient if the Special Instruction for Collation precedes the first Address.

23. Special Instructions may be written in the abbreviated forms given in Rule 17 (d). In this case the counter clerk should place each of them between double dashes, thus=T. C.=. The Special Instructions are not charged for.

¹24. Address.—Every address must contain at least two words, the first designating the Addressee, the second indicating the name of the Telegraph office of destination (or the office to which the telegram is to be transmitted). The name of the office of destination is counted as one word, irrespective of the actual number of words and initials which it may contain [Rule 53 (a)]. For instance, "Basin Bridge Junction M.S.M." will count as one word. Care should be taken that the office to which the telegram is to be transmitted is written as given in the list of Telegraph offices published in the Telegraph Guide (Section VI), but the letters, names of districts and provinces printed in italics after the names of offices need not be given.

25. The Address must contain all the particulars necessary to ensure the delivery of the telegram without search or inquiry.

26. For large towns the name of the street and the number of the house must be given, or, in the absence of these particulars, the profession of the Addressee or any other relevant information.

27. Even for small towns the name of the Addressee must, if possible, be accompanied by additional particulars to guide the office of destination in effecting delivery.

28. When a telegram is addressed to one person care of another, the Address must contain immediately after the name of the real Addressee the words "care of," "C/o" or any other equivalent.

29. Insufficient Address.—Telegrams the Addresses of which do not satisfy the conditions laid down in the preceding rules are nevertheless accepted and transmitted at the Sender's risk.

30. In all cases the Sender has to bear the consequence of an insufficient Address which, after the telegram has been despatched, can neither be completed nor altered, except by a paid Service Advice (Rule 44).

31. Abbreviated Addresses.—The Addressee's name and Address may be written in an abbreviated form. But the right of an Addressee to have a telegram thus addressed delivered to him, is subject to an arrangement made between such Addressee and the Telegraph Office which has to deliver the telegram.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

32. Abbreviated Addresses may be registered under the following conditions:—

(1) Application for the registration of such addresses should be made to the officer in charge of the Telegraph Office at which it is proposed to register an address. The Telegraph Department cannot arrange for the registration of an address at any place in a foreign country.

(2) No address may consist of more than one word in addition to the name of the town where registration is effected.

(3) The word should contain not more than ten letters, and should be easy to read and easy to telegraph. Proper names can only in rare cases be accepted, and in no case can a proper name be registered for a person of a different name.

(4) The names of professions, trades, countries, states, towns, telegraph stations, well-known streets and registered newspapers may not be used as registered addresses.

(5) Numbers may not be registered.

(6) To prevent inconvenience to the public, the Telegraph Department has to reject words which either in writing or in telegraph symbols so closely resemble other registered words as to be liable to be mistaken for them. It is desirable, therefore, that any application should not merely offer one word for acceptance, but should give several words from which a selection may be made.

(7) No address may be registered in one town for the delivery of telegrams in another town.

(8) A registered address is available for telegrams from other countries, as well as for Inland telegrams.

(9) The Telegraph Department reserves to itself the right to cancel an address. In such a case a part of the registration fee, proportionate to the unexpired period, is returned, or a new address may be substituted free of charge for the one cancelled.

(10) In the event of a change in the title of a firm for which an address is recorded, the consent, in writing, of all the partners of the firm must be produced before the records can be altered.

registered by a single firm, either at the same Telegraph Office, or at different Telegraph Offices, the fee for registration is—

	Rs.
For the first ten abbreviated addresses . . .	10 each.
For the second ten abbreviated addresses . . .	5 each.
For each subsequent abbreviated address . . .	3 each.

[(12) An additional fee, equal to half the registration fee, is charged for every change of the word selected or for every transfer to another Telegraph Office, within the period of registration, but not for change of residence within the delivery limits of the registering office, or for change of name or title of firm or person, so long as the identity is the same [see Condition (10)] and it is not a case of transfer from one firm to another; if it is a case of such transfer, the full fees are charged.]

(13) The Telegraph Department accepts no responsibility in respect of the delivery of any telegram having an Abbreviated Address if such address has not been registered, or for delay in delivering such telegram. Registration is essential in all cases of persons who frequently receive telegrams addressed to them by an abbreviated name, and Telegraph officials can decline to deliver such telegrams if, after notice has been given, the address has not been registered.

33. Sender's name or designation.—The Sender's name or designation may be in an abbreviated form in customary use, or may be replaced by a registered address, or may be omitted altogether.

34. Text.—No Private telegram, or series of telegrams, containing more than five hundred words, can be sent at any one time by any individual or firm, and no subsequent telegram by the same individual or firm till after the lapse of three hours, unless the telegraph lines be free of all other traffic. Regarding the length of Press telegrams, see Rule 131 (8).

35. Signature.—The true Signature and Address of the Sender (which are not charged for or transmitted) must always be written at the foot of the telegram. The Sender of a Private telegram can always be called upon to prove that the signature attached to it is genuine. In the case of telegrams from a mercantile firm, if the name of the firm is written, it will be accepted, but if stamped, it must be attested by the signature, or initials, of a responsible member of the firm.

STATE TELEGRAMS.

36. Definition.—A State telegram is a telegram sent by an official of the British Government on British Government business.

Municipal Commissioners and the officials and servants of a Municipality or of a Guaranteed or Private Railway are not entitled to send State telegrams, nor are the officials and servants of Native States.

37. Language.—The text of State telegrams may in all cases be composed of Secret language (i.e., Code and Cipher). Cipher language may be formed either of groups or series of figures, or of groups or series of letters, having a secret meaning; but a combination in the same telegram of figures and of letters, having a secret meaning, is not admitted.

38. Collation.—State telegrams, when they are written in Figure or Letter cipher, are always repeated in their entirety (Rule 105) by the Receiving Office in the same manner as is done with "collated" telegrams (Rule 102). When partially written in cipher, the cipher portions only are repeated.

39. Payment, etc.—State telegrams must be marked State by the Sender, and as a rule, paid for in Service stamps or in cash prior to despatch. The charges are the same for State as for Private telegrams. The rule regarding prepayment (Rule 64) will be relaxed in case of great emergency; but whenever an Express State telegram is tendered for transmission under this permission, the Sender must take the necessary steps to ascertain the charges on it, and pay them into the Telegraph Office within 24 hours. The rule cannot be relaxed in case of Ordinary State telegrams.

40. At Railway Offices.—State telegrams are not accepted at Railway Offices at places where there is also a Government Office, except in cases of emergency, or when the Sender's Office, or residence, is much closer to a Railway Office than to a Government Office. At Railway Offices State telegrams should be paid for in cash.

41. Abbreviated Addresses.—The conditions for the registration of abbreviated addresses laid down in Rule 32 do not apply to the abbreviated addresses of Government officials. These are registered free of charge, and without any restriction as to the number of words used. Applications for the registration of abbreviated addresses of Government officials should be made to the Director-General of Telegraphs.

42. Clear-the-Line Telegrams.—On emergent occasions of great importance, the officers named below may "clear the line" within Indian

They must deposit the following amounts:—

- (a) The cost of the telegram making the request, which may be classed Express or Ordinary at the sender's option.
- (b) The cost of a telegram for the reply, if a reply by telegraph is necessary, which may also be classed as in (a) above.

They may also, with the object of rectification, have a telegram which they have sent or received, repeated entirely or in part, either by the office of destination or origin or by a transit office.

In the case of a repetition asked for by the addressee, he must pay the charge for the transmission of a telegram (Express or Ordinary according to his wishes) to cover the cost of the number of words to be repeated, viz., if the part to be repeated contains 12 words or less one rupee if classed Express or six annas if classed Ordinary with two annas or half an anna per word, respectively, if the number of words is greater than 12. This charge includes the cost of the call and the reply.

A telegram sent at the request of the addressee, in order to obtain the repetition of a passage suspected to be erroneous, implies always a telegraphic reply, which will be of the same class as the telegram making the request, and the insertion of the indication—Reply Paid—is not necessary. In other cases in which a telegraphic reply is requested, this indication must be employed.

45. Rectifying, completing, or cancelling telegrams, and all other communications relating to a telegram already transmitted or in course of transmission, when they are addressed to a Telegraph Office, must be exchanged exclusively between the Offices under the form of paid Service Advices, at the cost of the Sender or the Addressee making the demand.

49. Stops, etc.—Dashes which only serve to separate upon the form the different words or groups of a telegram, are neither charged for nor transmitted. Signs of punctuation, apostrophes, and hyphens are only transmitted and, consequently, charged for, on the formal request of the Sender.

50. Preamble.—Words, numbers and signs added by Telegraph officials for official purposes are not charged for. The hour and minute (Standard time) at which a telegram is handed in are added by the Telegraph Office and transmitted free.

63. Ordinary telegrams are not accepted on Sundays and the four principal holidays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday and the King's Birthday.

PAYMENT OF CHARGES.

64. Charges how paid.—With the exceptions provided for in Rules 39, ¹* 70, 71 and 128, all charges on telegrams must be prepaid in Cash or Postage Stamps. If the class of the telegram is not stated by the Sender, it will be classed and charged for as Ordinary (Rule 59).

²65. At-Departmental Telegraph Offices, telegrams can be accepted on the Deposit Account system on the following conditions:—

- (i) A minimum deposit of a sum of money equivalent, approximately, to the cost of ten days' telegrams may be made to the Departmental Telegraph Office from which telegrams are required to be sent. At the end of each week, the Telegraph Office concerned will submit a detailed account to the depositor showing the amount expended on his telegrams, in order that he may renew his deposit, if necessary, by paying into the Telegraph Office the amount shewn in the account. If the deposit is exhausted and the depositor does not renew it, no further telegrams will be accepted from him except on payment.
- (ii) If the account is to be rendered at intervals greater than a week, the deposit required will be increased accordingly.
- (iii) A fee for the upkeep of accounts will be levied at the rate of twelve annas for every 25 telegrams, or fraction thereof,

67. Affixing Stamps.—The Stamps must be affixed by the Sender to the telegram form in the space allotted for the purpose, and he should see that the Stamps are defaced by the Counter Clerk with the Name and Date stamp of the office.

68. Spoilt or defaced stamps.—Postage Stamps which have been obliterated, defaced, torn, cut or otherwise rendered imperfect, or which have any word, letter, figure, or design written, printed, or impressed upon them, otherwise than by the authority of Government, before being affixed, or which have been cut or otherwise separated from embossed envelopes, postcards or wrappers, cannot be recognised in payment of telegrams.

NOTE.—The perforation of Postage Stamps with initials or other identifying marks traced in minute holes is not prohibited.

69. Receipt.—A receipt containing particulars of the number of the telegram and the charges paid can be obtained for each telegram tendered for transmission at a Telegraph or Postal Receiving Office. Duplicate copies of receipts for telegrams are never given.

70. Telegrams from ships.—Telegrams arriving by mail steamers and other vessels for onward transmission by telegraph may be transmitted without prepayment; but no such telegram, whether prepaid or not, will be transmitted until the name of the vessel from which it is received is known at the Telegraph Office.

71. Telegrams from Field Telegraph Offices.—When at a Field Telegraph Office prepayment is impracticable, Private telegrams, addressed to any office other than a Field Telegraph Office, will be accepted "bearing," but such telegrams will not be delivered to the Addressees until they have paid the charges due on them (Rule 72).

72. Recovery of bearing and other charges from Addressee.—In every case where charges have to be collected on delivery (Rules 13, 70, 71, 84, 86 and 128), the telegram is only handed to the Addressee upon payment of the amount due.

73. Any undercharge made in error, and charges and expenses not recovered from the addressee in consequence of his refusal to pay them, or the impossibility of finding him, must be made good by the Sender.

74. Any overcharge made in error is returned to the person entitled to it. No refund, however, is made of the value of the stamps in excess affixed by the Sender, unless he applies for it to the ¹[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta] under Rules 145 (j) and 148.

INTERRUPTION OF TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION: TRANSMISSION IN DUPLICATE.

75. When an interruption to the regular means of telegraphic communication occurs during the transmission of a telegram, the office beyond which the interruption exists, or an office situated further back and having at its disposal an alternative telegraph route, immediately sends the telegram by such a route or failing that, by special messenger or by post (registered, if possible).

76. If a telegram is re-transmitted, by means other than telegraphic, it will be addressed by the re-transmitting office either to the nearest telegraph office able to re-transmit it or to the office of destination, or to the addressee himself. As soon as communication is re-established, the telegram is transmitted afresh by telegraph, unless its receipt has been previously acknowledged, or unless, on account of an exceptional accumulation of traffic, this re-transmission would be manifestly prejudicial to the general service.

CANCELLATION.

77. If the Sender of an Inland telegram, or his authorised representative, wishes to cancel the telegram before transmission has begun, he can do so, and the charges, less a fee of two annas, will be returned: Provided that, if the telegram has been stamped and the stamps have been obliterated, the charges shall be refunded under Rule 145 (k), only on application being made to the ¹[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta], within the period prescribed by Rule 148. If the telegram is in course of transmission, or has already been despatched, it can be cancelled only by a Paid Service Advice addressed under Rule 44 to the office of destination. If, in addition, the Sender wishes to be informed by telegraph in what manner his request has been acted upon, he must deposit the cost of the return telegram: otherwise he is informed by post. If the telegram has been delivered to the addressee, the latter is informed of its cancellation unless the Service Advice contains instructions to the contrary.

DELIVERY AT DESTINATION.

78. According to Address and Order.—Telegrams are according to their Addresses, either delivered at the residences of the Addressees, or kept at the Telegraph Office or Post Office till called for. They are, in all cases, delivered at, or sent to, their destinations in order of receipt.

79. Free Delivery Limits.—Telegrams are delivered free of charge within five miles of a Telegraph Office. Beyond this free delivery limit, telegrams are sent by post without charge, or by such other means as the Sender may arrange and pay for (Rules 115—120). For telegrams to be delivered by boat, see Rule 84.

80. Persons to whom telegrams may be delivered.—A telegram taken to the Addressee's place of residence may be delivered either to the Addressee, the adult members of his family, any person in his service, to his lodgers or guests, or to the porter of the hotel or house, unless the Addressee has named in writing a special person, or the Sender has requested by writing on the form the Special Instruction Addressee only or (M.P.)—see Rule 17 (d)—, that the telegram may be delivered only into the hands of the Addressee himself. In this case the Office of destination writes the instruction "Addressee only" in full on the envelope and gives the necessary instructions to the messenger.

81. Open Delivery.—The Sender may also request that the telegram may be delivered open, by writing on the form the Special Instruction "Open"—see Rule 17 (d). This request is reproduced on the copy handed to the Addressee, which is delivered without an envelope, simply folded, with the Address written on the back.

82. Telegrams to be kept till called for.—When the telegram bears the Special Instruction to be kept at the Telegraph Office till called for or (TR.) it is delivered to the Addressee or his duly authorised representative over the telegraph counter. Telegrams bearing the Special Instruction to be kept at the Post Office till called for or (GP) are handed to the Post Office by the Telegraph Office of destination. The latter are, as regards delivery and period of preservation, subject to the same rules as postal correspondence.

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

83. Delivery on ships.—Telegrams addressed to passengers on board a vessel arriving at a port are delivered, if possible, before disembarkation.

84. Delivery by boat.—When an Inland telegram has to be delivered on board a ship which cannot be reached without a boat (i.e., when the ship is not alongside a wharf, pier or jetty) or at a place which cannot be reached without a boat, the boat-hire must be paid by the Addressee if the Sender omits to prepay it. The indication Boat-hire paid or (BPD), or Boat-hire paid ¹[night] or (BPDN)—if the Sender has paid the boat-hire and wishes the telegram sent on board at night—should be entered on the form. Boat-hire prepaid but not expended will be refunded [Rules 145 (g) and 148]. Information regarding fixed express charges for boat-hire for certain places in India can be obtained from the Telegraph Office.

85. Reply given to messenger.—Save in the case of delivery by the ordinary post beyond the free delivery limit, the messenger who delivers a telegram may be entrusted with the Reply, provided he be not detained for this purpose more than five minutes. The fact of the Reply having been given to the messenger, and the amount paid to him, should be mentioned on the Receipt signed for the original telegram.

86. Re-direction.—Telegrams can be re-directed to a second address, either by an official of the Telegraph Office, or by an agent of the Addressee. When official re-direction of telegrams is required, a notice to that effect must be given to the Telegraph Office concerned; printed forms for the purpose can be obtained from the local Telegraph Office. The person who gives notice is responsible for any charges that may be incurred. No additional charge will be levied for re-direction if the two addresses are within the same town, but if in different towns, the full Inland rate, according to the class of the telegram, will be charged for the re-direction. If the sum due has not been paid at the office where the telegram has been re-directed, the amount will be recovered from the Addressee before delivery. ²[All State telegrams to whomsoever addressed, and all private telegrams addressed to officers of Government by official designation only, will be re-directed free.] Instructions left at the Telegraph Office regarding the re-addressing or re-direction of telegrams will be considered to be in

¹[When a telegram has been re-directed to a second address without an order to transmit it by telegraph, the telegram will, subject to the provisions of this rule, if re-directed to any place to which the Indian Inland Postal rates apply, be posted as an unregistered letter free of charge to its new destination, and a remark to this effect added to the notice of non-delivery prescribed by Rule 88].

87. Inland telegrams may also be re-transmitted to Ceylon at the request of the Addressee or some responsible resident acting on the Addressee's behalf. In that case, the full charge for the telegram from India to Ceylon will, when possible, be recovered from the Addressee. Requests for re-transmission must be made in writing, and any one making such request must undertake to pay the charges which may not be collected by the Delivery Office. When no such undertaking accompanies a request to re-transmit, the telegram will be posted and the Sender advised. Telegrams returned unopened with a new address in Ceylon will be similarly dealt with.

88. Undelivered telegrams.—When a telegram cannot be delivered, the office of destination, after a brief delay, sends a Service telegram to that effect to the office of origin and the Sender is informed, except in the case of—

- (a) telegrams addressed To await arrival, Telegraph restante, Poste restante, or Care of Telegraph (or Post) Office, and
- (b) telegrams to places beyond the free delivery radius which have been duly posted and are subsequently returned as undelivered by the Post Office to the Telegraph Office which posted them. In cases (a) and (b) when a charge has to be collected, the Service Advice of non-delivery is sent by post at the expiration of the period for retaining such correspondence.

89. When in consequence of an inexact or insufficient Address or of the Addressee's absence or refusal, bearing charges have not been paid at destination, the amount of these charges is mentioned in the Service telegram, and the Sender is bound to make them good.

him to take delivery of it, upon application from either. When the Addressee duly advised as above of the arrival of a telegram does not take delivery within 24 hours, non-delivery is reported in accordance with Rule 88.

91. Unclaimed telegrams.—Telegrams unclaimed, or not delivered, are not kept after two weeks by the office of destination.

92. Directions about delivery.—For the registration of standing instructions regarding the delivery of telegrams during fixed hours, the same fee as for the registration of an abbreviated address is levied (vide Rule 32). If the fee for a registered abbreviated address has already been paid, that fee will cover the registration of special delivery instructions. In the case of Government Officials, no charge is made for the registration of abbreviated addresses, but they will be required to pay the prescribed fee for the registration of standing instructions regarding the delivery of telegrams during fixed hours.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

93. The Sender of a Private telegram, or of a State telegram addressed to a person other than a British Government Official, may prepay a reply, but the amount so prepaid shall be not less than six annas. The Sender of a Reply paid telegram should write the words "Reply-paid" in the space provided on the form [Rules 17 (d) and 21.]

94. At destination, the Telegraph Office delivers to the Addressee a Reply telegram form, which entitles him to send free of charge from any Telegraph or Receiving Office in India, and within the value of the amount prepaid, a telegram to any destination in India. Two or more Reply telegram forms may be used in payment of one Inland telegram, but one Reply telegram form cannot be used in payment of two or more telegrams. A Reply telegram form can prepay the cost of a telegram and its reply if necessary.

95. If the reply exceeds the amount notified in the Reply telegram form, the difference must be paid in cash or stamps by the Sender of the reply (Rule 67). If, on the other hand, the amount notified on the Reply telegram form exceeds that of the Reply, the difference, if it be not less than eight annas, will be refunded to the Sender of the original telegram on application to the ¹[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta]. No refund will be given on a Reply telegram form, which has been prepaid by another Reply telegram form and not by cash or stamps.

96. The Reply telegram form is available for only two months (date of issue included) after which it lapses.

97. When the Addressee has not made use of the Reply telegram form, or has refused it, the money deposited for the reply can be refunded to the Sender under the conditions of Rules 145 (d) and 148.

98. Should it be impossible to effect delivery of a Reply-paid telegram, the Office of destination sends a Service telegram to that effect and the Sender is informed (Rule 88). The Reply telegram form remains attached to the telegram during the period of retention fixed by Rule 91, after which it is sent to the Check Office to await any application for refund of the amount prepaid that may be preferred by the Sender according to Rule 148.

99. When a telegram to which a reply is prepaid is addressed to a place where there is no Telegraph Office, the telegram and Reply telegram form are forwarded to destination from the nearest Telegraph Office by ordinary post free of charge.

100. It is not compulsory on the Addressee to send a reply. The duty of the Office of destination consists simply in the delivery of the Reply telegram form for the amount prepaid, and the Addressee is at liberty to do what he pleases with it.

101. The Sender of a State telegram addressed to a Government Official cannot prepay a reply. In the case of a State telegram addressed to other than a Government Official, any sum deposited by the Sender under Rule 93 must be intended for no other purpose than to cover the cost of a return telegram.

(B) Collated (or Repeated) telegrams.

102. Collation consists in the entire telegram (including the Preamble) being repeated back immediately on its receipt by each Office concerned in its transmission.

103. The Sender of any telegram can require it to be collated, or repeated, to insure correctness. In this case he must write the Instruction T. C. [Rules 17 (d) and 23.]

104. The charge for collation is equal to one-fourth the charge for the telegram. In calculating this charge, fractions of half an anna will be reckoned as half an anna.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

105. State and Service telegrams written in ¹[Cipher] are invariably collated free of charge (Rule 38).

(C) Acknowledgments of Receipt.

106. The Sender of a telegram can require that a notice of the date and time at which his telegram is delivered to the Addressee shall be notified to him as soon as possible after its delivery. He should write on the form the abbreviation (P C)—see Rule 17 (d). When the telegram is forwarded to its final destination by post, deposited poste restante, or delivered to any intermediate agency, this notice mentions the date and time of such forwarding, deposit, or delivery. This Acknowledgment of Receipt may be addressed to him at any place he may name.

107. The charge for an Acknowledgment of Receipt by telegraph is six annas.

108. [Cancelled by Notification No. 5451—142, dated the 6th August, 1910, Gazette of India, 1910, Pt. I, p. 759.]

109. In the case of non-delivery provided for in Rule 88, the Acknowledgment of Receipt is preceded by the Service Advice required by that Rule. The Acknowledgment of Receipt is detained during the period prescribed in Rule 91, or is transmitted after the delivery of the telegram, if that becomes possible. At the expiration of this period, if the telegram has not been delivered, the charge for the Acknowledgment of Receipt is refunded to the Sender of the telegram under the conditions of Rule 145 (g), if he has not already applied for such refund.

110. An Acknowledgment of Receipt when it reaches the office of origin, or the office indicated in the telegram (Rule 106), is notified to the Sender. When the Acknowledgment of Receipt has reference to a telegram which has been re-addressed (Rule 86), the office of origin recovers from the Sender any charges that may be due.

(D) Multiple telegrams.

111. Addressed to one Telegraph office.—Except as provided for in Rule 121, a telegram addressed to several persons in the same locality, or in different localities served by the same Telegraph Office or to the same person at several Addresses in the same locality, or in different localities served by the same Telegraph Office, is charged for as a single telegram; but a copying fee of four annas per 100 chargeable words, plus four annas for the excess is charged for each destination after the first.

Copies of a multiple telegram will only be delivered by post from the Terminal Telegraph Office when addressed to places beyond the telegraph lines. Such copies cannot be posted to places where there are Telegraph Offices.

112. Addressed to more than one Telegraph Office.—A telegram addressed to several persons, or to the same person, in localities where delivery is to be effected by different offices, is charged for as so many separate telegrams, and shall be written on separate telegram forms. Telegrams addressed to stations which are local telegraph offices within the free delivery radius of the Central Office are, however, treated as laid down in Rule 111. Press telegrams addressed to more than one Telegraph Office are invariably treated as in Rule 111 (see Rule 129).

113. In the case provided for in Rule 111, each copy of the telegrams delivered will bear its own particular Address only, unless the Sender has requested the contrary. In the latter case, the Sender should write the words Communicate all Addresses or =CTA [Rule 17 (d)] which are not charged for.

114. Replies cannot be prepaid on multiple telegrams.

(E) Telegrams to be delivered by Post or Special Messenger.

115. Post or Special Messenger.—Telegrams addressed to places where there are no Telegraph Offices may be delivered at destination according to the request of the Sender, either by post or by special messenger.

116. The Address of telegrams to be conveyed beyond the telegraph lines should be written as follows:—

(a) If the message is to be posted from the nearest Telegraph Office—

To—John Doe, Esq.,
Sherghetty, Post Gya.

(b) If the message is to be sent by special messenger—

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

The Instructions (Post) or (X. P. Rs. Two) are not charged for (Rules 23 and 48).

117. Express or portorage charges must be prepaid by the Sender. If the charges are fixed the telegram bears the Sender's Special Instruction Express paid or (X. P.) only. If not, the Sender must pay such sum as he thinks sufficient and the telegram must bear the Special Instruction Express R—or (X. P.—R). If the sum deposited is found to be insufficient at the Office of destination, the difference is recovered from the Addressee. Information regarding fixed Express or portorage charges for certain places in India can be obtained from the Telegraph Office.

118. Postage.—No charge is made for postage on a telegram addressed to a place in India where there is no Telegraph Office, or to a place out of India to which Indian Inland Postal rates apply, e.g., Aden and Ceylon, but on telegrams to be posted to a place beyond the limits of the Indian Inland Postal Tariff, the following additional charges must be paid to cover postage and registration:—

(i) On a telegram to be posted to the United Kingdom, or any British Possession which has joined the Penny Postal Union—one anna, if the message is to be posted unregistered, and three annas, if it is to be posted registered.

(ii) On a telegram to be posted to a country which has not joined the Penny Postal Union—

2½ annas, if the message is to be posted unregistered, and 4½ annas, if it is to be posted registered.

119. Inland Telegrams posted from India to Ceylon.—Inland telegrams to be posted to Ceylon may be addressed to Tuticorin, from which place a daily mail boat leaves for Colombo.

EXAMPLE.

The charge for such a telegram is the usual Inland rate according to class, and as stated in Rule 118, there is no charge for postage. The word Post is also not charged for (Rules 23 and 48).

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

120. Inland telegrams posted from Indian Ports.—An Inland telegram telegraphed to an Indian port to be posted under Rule 118, to a place beyond Indian limits, must have the name of the port entered in the Address, and the Instructions Post or Post Registered [Rules 17 (d), 21 and 23] before the name of the Telegraph Office from which to be posted.

EXAMPLE.

To—Mrs. Johnson,
20, Cambridge Terrace,
Hyde Park,
London, Post Bombay.

Text.—Afraid my letter missed mail. Am quite well.

From—Johnson.

The charge for such a telegram would be the usual Inland rate according to the class (Express or Ordinary at Sender's choice), plus one anna for postage under Rule 118. If the Sender desires the message to be registered before being posted, he should insert the Special Instruction Post Registered (or P. R.) before the name of the Telegraph Office from which to be posted. The charge for postage and registration would then be three annas under Rule 118.

Telegrams as in this Rule may also be multiple (Rule 111), but in such case, the Sender must pay the copying fee for each additional Address, and also an additional fee for each for postage, or for postage and registration, as the case may be, according to the charges laid down in Rule 118. But such telegrams cannot be addressed partly to persons beyond the sea, and partly to persons at the port itself. If the Sender wants the telegram also delivered to a person at the port itself, he must send it as a separate telegram.

121. Mixed Postal and Telegraph Service between India and the United Kingdom.—Communications intended for places in the United Kingdom may be telegraphed to Bombay for despatch by registered post to London and telegraphed thence to destination. The charges for such communication will be:—

- (1) The charge for the telegram in India at Express or Ordinary rates according to the wishes of the Sender.
- (2) One anna for postage, and
- (3) The British Inland telegram rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ d., or half an anna, per word with a minimum of six pence, or six annas.

Newcastle, c/o Telegraphs, Bombay.

From—Wilcox.

The words "c/o Telegraphs, Bombay" will be charged for on the Indian section. On arrival at Bombay, the Central Telegraph Office will score out the words "c/o Telegraphs, Bombay," and arrange to forward the telegram by post in a registered packet to the Central Telegraph Office, London, from whence it will be telegraphed to its destination. The charges for the above telegram will be:—

- (b) when there is an unpaid claim against the Addressee for delivery charges on a previous telegram, which he has refused to pay.

Telegrams for places over five miles distant from the Telegraph Office of destination must be posted by that Office—

- (a) when such has been the request expressly made by the Sender (Rule 115) or the Addressee (Rule 86). The office of destination may, however, effect delivery by special messenger, even for telegrams bearing the instruction Post, if the Addressee has expressed a desire to receive his telegrams by special messenger;

Multiple Press messages will be charged for as in Rule 111, whether all the Addresses are in the same town or not. The address in a Press telegram includes the name of the office to which the telegram is to be transmitted, the name of the correspondent, and the name and address (if necessary) of the Newspaper or News Agency.

130. Press telegrams at Ordinary rates are not accepted on Sundays and the four principal holidays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday and the King's Birthday.

131. Conditions.—A Press telegram to be accepted at Press rates must fulfil the following conditions:—

(1) It must be addressed to a newspaper or news agency, the name of which has been registered by the Director-General of Telegraphs. The official Gazettes published by the Government of India, by Provincial Governments and by Native States will not be registered under this rule.

A list of such registered newspapers or news agencies is published in the Telegraph Guide. A news agency must on registration and annually thereafter submit to the Director-General of Telegraphs a list of its bonâ fide subscribers to whom it issues news. Applications for the registration of newspapers or news agencies should be made on forms to be obtained at Government Telegraph Offices.

(2) It must be addressed to the newspaper or news agency in accordance with its registered title, and to the town at which the newspaper or news agency is registered.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII of 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

(3) It must, except as provided hereafter in Condition (5), contain only intelligence which is clearly intended for publication in registered newspapers. The news which a news agency receives and disseminates at Press rates may only be given to duly registered newspapers or other registered news agencies.

(4) It must be written in plain English so as to be intelligible to the transmitting Offices, and must contain nothing of concealed meaning either in Code language or Cipher. In Press telegrams ordinary English words may be abbreviated.

(5) It may also be a telegram sent from, or to, the newspaper or news agency by its registered title (but not in the name of the editor, publisher, manager, or any other person), to or from its correspondents or employes on the subject of a telegram published, or to be published, or to an official of the Telegraph Department on matters of Press business.

(6) If a press telegram be addressed to the editor, publisher, manager or any other person connected with the newspaper or news agency, by name or designation, it is chargeable at the full Inland rates.

(7) Whenever demanded, a copy of every newspaper in which a Press telegram is published must be furnished to the Telegraph Office from which that Press telegram was delivered.

(8) Long news messages should be broken up into pages of about 75 words each. All the pages must be numbered consecutively, and each of them, except the last, should conclude with the words "More to follow" (or M. T. F.). The last page should conclude with the words "End of message." These words and numbers are not charged for. The name of the Sender should be written at the top of each page, and the last word of each page should be repeated at the top of the next page. The interval between the handing in of the different pages should not exceed an hour. When this interval is exceeded, the pages handed in late will be treated as a fresh message and charged accordingly. In telegrams addressed to more than one newspaper or news agency, the full list of addresses need only be furnished with the first page, and each of the consecutively numbered pages will be considered to be addressed to all the newspapers and news agencies.

NOTE.—Attention is specially directed to the necessity of writing as legibly as possible, and it is recommended that, whenever practicable, the copy should be written in ink, and not pencil.

(9) When a Press message is addressed to more than one office, a sufficient number of copies of the text should, when practicable, be supplied to allow of its being telegraphed simultaneously to each office.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF-1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

Information as to the number of copies required can always be obtained beforehand from the Telegraph office from which the news is to be sent.

(10) At least 8 hours previous notice should, when possible, be given of the intention to send long news messages of a greater length than 1,000 words. This notice should be given to the Telegraph office at which the news will be handed in, together with the following particulars:—

- (i) Time at which messages will be handed in;
- (ii) length; and
- (iii) addresses.

132. Stops.—In Press telegrams, where the sense so often depends upon the punctuation especially in the case of long messages, full stops will be signalled free of charge, but this privilege will not be extended to other signs of punctuation.

133. The Press telegram rates apply only to telegrams which satisfy all the conditions of Rule 131, and any subsequent claim made by the Telegraph Department for the difference between Press and full Inland rates must be satisfied immediately on demand.

134. Press telegrams accepted without prepayment.—¹[Press telegrams may be accepted without prepayment] provided that any newspaper or news agency which may desire the facility obtains previous sanction from the Director-General of Telegraphs, and deposits a sum of money in cash, or Government Promissory Notes, as detailed below:—

- (i) If the accounts are to be rendered monthly, the equivalent of eight weeks' transactions subject to a minimum of Rs. 50.
- (ii) If the accounts are to be rendered fortnightly, the equivalent of six weeks' transactions subject to a minimum of Rs. 50.

136. Delivery.—Press telegrams of either class are sent out for delivery as soon as received, by day or by night.

138. Secrecy.—The originals or copies of telegrams can only be communicated to the Sender, or to the Addressee, after proof of identity, or to the authorised representative of either of them.

139. Copies.—The Sender or the Addressee of a telegram, or the authorised representative of either, has a right to be furnished with a certified copy of the original telegram or of the copy delivered at destination, on application to the Telegraph Office within ¹[seven days] or to the ²[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta], within the period of preservation (Rule 137). This right lapses after expiration of the time fixed for preserving the records.

147. In case of a partial refund on account of a multiple telegram, the total charge collected is divided by the number of copies, and the quotient represents the charge appertaining to each copy, the telegram itself counting, in this respect, as one copy.

148. (1) ¹[Every claim for refund respecting telegrams should be addressed to the Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta, and every complaint respecting telegrams to the Director General of Telegraphs, Traffic Branch, Calcutta, within two months from the date of the telegrams.]

SECTION III.

RULES FOR FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

FOUNDED ON THE INTERNATIONAL TELEGRAPH CONVENTION.

NOTE.—The Articles and Regulations quoted in the margin denote the corresponding Rules in the International Telegraph Convention. Points not specifically provided for in these Rules are dealt with in the manner prescribed in the Convention.

GENERAL.

150. Foreign Telegrams are those which are sent to, or received from, places beyond Indian limits. Such telegrams are subject to the regulations laid down by the International Telegraph Convention, to which the Government of India is a party. None of the parties to the Convention accept any responsibility on account of Foreign telegrams. (For tariffs and rates, see Rules 234 to 237.)

151. Legibility and Forms.—To secure accuracy and rapidity of Transmission, Senders of telegrams are advised to write them in a clear and unmistakeable hand, and on the proper forms, which can be obtained, free of charge, at all Telegraph Offices (Rule 4). Telegrams written on plain paper are, however, accepted at all Offices.

NOTE.—Books containing 100 forms for Foreign telegrams can be purchased at the principal Government Telegraph Offices; price with counterfoils, two annas, and without counterfoils one anna each.

152. Offices where Foreign Telegrams are accepted.—Telegrams for Ceylon are accepted at all Telegraph Offices in India, also at a few Postal Receiving Offices. Telegrams for other countries are accepted at all Government Telegraph Offices, also at a certain number of Railway Telegraph Offices.

153. Foreign telegrams are only accepted at Field Telegraph Offices when fully prepaid in postage stamps, and then at the Sender's risk.

154. Foreign telegrams, except for Ceylon, cannot be accepted at any Railway Telegraph Office at places where there is also a Government Telegraph Office.

155. Objectionable telegrams.—The parties to the Convention reserve Art. 7 and to themselves the right of stopping the transmission of any Private tele- Reg. XLV, gram which may appear dangerous to the security of the State, or con- and 2.
trary to the laws of the country, to public order, or decency. The Terminal or any Intermediate Office may exercise this control on condition of immediately advising the Office of origin. Telegrams intended for a re-forwarding agency referred to in Rule 190, and which have been wrongly accepted, must be stopped by the office of delivery.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

Reg. XLV, 4. 156. Telegraph Offices in India are required to refuse to accept any telegram which appears to be of the above character. Should the character of a telegram be open to doubt, the matter will be referred to a Secretary to Government, if the telegram be tendered at a seat of Government, or to the Chief Civil or Military Officer if tendered at another place.

Art. 8 and
Reg. XLV, 1. 157. Each of the contracting Governments reserves to itself the right to suspend the International Telegraph service for an indefinite period, if it deem necessary, either generally, or only upon certain lines and for certain classes of correspondence.

Art. 5. 158. General Division.—Telegrams are divided into four classes:—

- (a) State (or Government) telegrams (Rule 199).
- (b) Service telegrams (Rule 520).
- (c) Private telegrams.
- (d) Press telegrams (Rules 334 to 339).

XXXII, 1. In transmission, State telegrams take precedence of other telegrams, Service telegrams take precedence of Private telegrams, and Private telegrams take precedence of Press telegrams [Rule 334 (2)].

WRITING AND ACCEPTANCE OF TELEGRAMS.

Art. 6 and
Reg. VI, 1. 159. The text of telegrams may be in Plain or Secret language, the latter being sub-divided into Code or Cipher language. Each of these languages may be employed alone or conjointly with the others in the same telegram. All the administrations admit, in all their relations, telegrams in plain language. They may decline to forward or to receive for delivery private telegrams composed either wholly or in part in secret language; but they must allow these telegrams to pass in transit, unless the service be suspended.

Reg. VII, 1. 160. Plain language is that which offers an intelligible sense in one or more of the languages authorised for International telegraphic correspondence. The following are the languages authorised for Foreign telegrams in Plain language, subject to the conditions of Rule 173:—

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

161. Telegrams from India to Ceylon and vice versa may be in the Vernacular languages of India or Ceylon, or in any of the above languages.

163. By "Telegrams in Plain language" is understood those of Reg. VII, 2. which the text is written entirely in Plain language. Nevertheless, the presence of Code addresses, Exchange quotations, commercial marks, letters representing the signals of the International Code of Signals employed in maritime telegrams, of abbreviated expressions currently used in ordinary or commercial correspondence, such as resp., job, cf., cf., caf., sup., c/o., b/l., or any other analogous expression, the meaning of which is understood in the country of origin, does not alter the character of a telegram in Plain language.

164. Code language is that which is composed of words which do not form intelligible phrases in one or more of the languages authorised for telegraphic correspondence in plain language. Reg. VIII, 1.

165. The words, whether genuine or artificial, must be formed of Reg. VIII, 2. syllables c the current usage of one of the foll German, Italian, Dutch,
Spanish, ds must not contain the accented letters á, á, a^o, é, ñ, ö, ü.

166. Codes intended for correspondence in Code language may be submitted to the Telegraph Administrations designated for the purpose, in order to allow those interested to obtain an assurance that the words contained in Codes fulfil the conditions of the preceding rule. In India, Code makers may submit their Codes to the Director-General of Telegraphs for submission to the Committee of Control.

167. Words in Code language must not contain more than ten characters according to the Morse alphabet (Rules 173 and 174), the combinations ae, aa, no, oe, ue, being counted as two letters each. The combination "ch" is also counted as two letters in artificial words. In Indo-Ceylon telegrams, the use of vernacular words is admissible as Code. Reg. VIII, 3.

168. Combinations which do not fulfil the conditions of Rules 165 Reg. VIII, 4 and 167 are considered as belonging to Letter cipher language Rule 170 (2), and charged accordingly. Compounds composed of two or more words in plain language, combined contrary to the usage of the language are on no account admitted. (See also Rule 230, et seq.)

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

169. In Private telegrams worded in Code language, the Sender shall certify at the foot of the form (or at the back if more convenient) that the Code words are not combinations of two or more words in plain language contrary to the usage of the language.

Reg. IX, 1.

170. Cipher language is that which is composed—

- (1) Either of Arabic figures, of groups or series of Arabic figures having a secret meaning, or of letters (excluding the accented letters, ä, á, a^o, é, ñ, ö, ü), groups or series of letters having a secret meaning.
- (2) Of words, names, expressions or combinations of letters not fulfilling the conditions of Plain language (Rules 160 to 163) or of Code language (Rules 164 to 167).

Reg. IX, 2.

171. The employment in one group of figures and letters having a secret meaning is not admitted. It is desirable to avoid the use of Letter cipher, as far as possible, as it is less easy to transmit than pronounceable groups of letters, and is, therefore more liable to error. In cases where it is necessary to employ letter cipher, it should be arranged in groups of five letters in order to facilitate transmission.

Reg. IX, 3.

172. The groups referred to in Rule 163 are not considered as Letter cipher, i.e., as letters having a secret meaning.

Reg. X, 1.

173. Characters.—Telegrams must be legibly written in characters which have their equivalents in the official table of telegraph signals, and which are in use in the country where the telegram is presented.

(a) Letters.

A, B, C, D, E, É, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P, Q, R, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z.

3.

Except in Code and Cipher language, the combination “ch” counts as one character of the Morse alphabet; so also do the twin vowels “aa,” “æ,” “ao,” “œ,” and “ue,” commonly used to represent the continental modified vowels á, ä, a^o, ö, and ü.

- Reg. XII, 1. 177. Special instructions.—The Sender should write upon the form, in the place provided for the purpose, such of the Special Instructions prescribed in Rule 174 (d) as he may desire to make use of.
- Reg. XII, 2. 178. In the case of a Multiple telegram, the Special Instructions which concern each Addressee should be written immediately before his name; but in the case of a collated Multiple telegram, it is sufficient if the Special Instruction for Collation (Rule 284) precedes the first Address.
- Reg. XII, 3. 179. Special instructions may be written in the abbreviated forms allowed in Rule 174 (d). In this case the counter clerk should place each of them between double dashes, thus:—“=RPx=T. C.,=” and so written they are counted each as one word only [Rule 218 (8)]. When they are written in plain language, they should be in French.
- Reg. XIII, 1. 180. Address.—Every Address must contain at least two words, the first designating the Addressee, the second indicating the name of the Telegraph Office of destination. The latter should be spelt as in the Official List of Offices (Nomenclature des bureaux telegraphiques—see Rule 218).
- Reg. XIII, 2. 181. The Address must contain all the particulars necessary to ensure the delivery of the telegram to the Addressee. These particulars, with the exception of names of persons, should be written in French, or in the language of the country of destination.
- Reg. XIII, 3. 182. The Address of Private telegrams must be such that delivery to the Addressee can be effected without search or inquiry.

- Reg. XIII, 3. 184. Even for small towns, the name of the Addressee must, if possible, be accompanied by additional particulars to guide the office of destination in effecting delivery.
- Reg. XIII, 4. 185. When a telegram is addressed to one person care of another, the Address must contain, immediately after the name of the real addressee, one of the indications “chez,” “aux soins de,” “c/o,” “with,” “care of,” or any other equivalent.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

186. The name of the telegraph office of destination must be placed after the words in the address which serve to designate the addressee and, when given, his place of residence. It must be written as it appears in the first column of the official Nomenclature of offices. This name can only be followed by that of the country or of the territorial sub-division, or by both of these. In the latter case it is the name of the territorial sub-division which must immediately follow that of the Telegraph Office of destination. Reg. XII, 5.

187. When the name of the Office of destination has not yet been published in the Official Nomenclature, the sender must complete the address by the name of the country or of the territorial sub-division, or by any other information which he considers sufficient for the forwarding of his telegram which, however, is only accepted at the sender's risk. This rule applies to the Office of origin also. Reg. XIII, 6.

188. Telegraph offices in the neighbourhood of London.—In telegrams addressed to telegraph offices in the neighbourhood of London, the names of which appear in the Official List of Offices (Rule 180), it is not necessary to add the word London in the Address. Telegrams for places in London itself, the names of which do not appear in the Official List of Offices (Rule 180), cannot be accepted unless addressed London as the name of the Terminal Office.

189. Insufficient Address.—Telegrams, the Addresses of which do not satisfy the conditions laid down in Rules 180 and 187, are refused. Reg. XIII, 9.

190. Telegrams addressed to a telegraph re-forwarding agency, which is known to be organised for the purpose of evading payment of the full rate chargeable for the transmission of telegrams without intermediate re-transmission between the office of origin and their ultimate destination, are not accepted. Reg. XIII, 9.

191. In all cases of insufficient address, telegrams must only be accepted at the Sender's risk, if he persist in demanding transmission. Reg. XIII, 10.

192. In all cases the Sender has to bear the consequences of an insufficient Address. Reg. XIII, 11.

193. Abbreviated Addresses.—The Address may be written in an abbreviated form. But the right of an Addressee to have a telegram thus addressed delivered to him is subject to an arrangement made between such Addressee and the Telegraph Office which has to deliver the telegram. For conditions for the registration of Abbreviated Addresses in India, see Rule 32. Reg. XIII, 7.

194. Registered Abbreviated Addresses are treated as Plain language (Rule 221) when occurring in the Address, or as the Sender's name, in both plain and Code language telegrams, and also in the text of Plain language telegrams. When in the text of a Code language telegram, they are treated according to Rule 223.

- Reg. XIV, 1. 195. Text.—The text of a telegram may be omitted.
- Reg. XIV, 2. 196. The Sender's name is not obligatory; it may be written by the Sender in an abbreviated form in customary use, or replaced by a registered Address.
197. Signature.—The true Signature and Address of the Sender (which are not charged for or transmitted) must always be written at the foot of the telegram. In the case of telegrams from a mercantile firm, if the name of the firm is written, it will be accepted, but if stamped, it must be attested by the signature, or initials, of a responsible member of the firm.
- Reg. XIV, 3. 198. The Sender of a Private telegram is bound to prove his identity, if requested to do so by the office of origin.

STATE TELEGRAMS.

- Art. 5. 199. Definition.—State (or Government) telegrams are generally defined in the International Telegraph Convention to be those, which emanate from the Chief of the State, Ministers, Commanders-in-Chief of Land or Sea Forces and Diplomatic or Consular Agents of the Contracting Governments; as well as the replies to such telegrams.
200. From British Officials.—The only British Government Officials in India who are allowed to send Foreign State telegrams are those who have been specially authorised to do so by the Government of India. A complete list of these Officials is published in the Telegraph Guide. Foreign telegrams classed State, tendered by Officials not named in that list, will be treated as Private telegrams. State telegrams to Ceylon will, however, be accepted from all British Government Officials.
- Reg. XV, 2. 201. Replies to State telegrams.—The right to send a reply as a State telegram is established by the production of the original State telegram.
- Reg. XV, 3. 202. From Consular Agents.—Telegrams from Consular Agents engaged in commerce are only considered as State telegrams, when they are addressed to State Officials, and are connected with the business of the State. Nevertheless, telegrams which do not fulfil the last named conditions are accepted by the offices and transmitted as State telegrams, but these offices immediately report them to their own Administration.
- Reg. XV, 4 and 5. 203. Language.—The text of State telegrams may in all circumstances be composed of Secret language. State telegrams which do not fulfil the conditions of Rules 160 to 172 are not refused, but are notified by the office which discovers the irregularities to its own Administration.

by the Receiving Office in the same manner as is done with Collated telegrams (Rules 285 and 286).

SERVICE TELEGRAMS.

205. Service telegrams are those which emanate from the Telegraph Administrations of the Contracting States and which relate, either to the International Telegraph service, or to objects of public interest agreed upon between the said Administrations. Service telegrams are divided into Service telegrams properly so called, and Service Advices. All Service telegrams are transmitted free, except in the cases specified in Rules 206 to 208.

PAID SERVICE ADVICES.

206. The Sender and Addressee (or the authorised representative of either of them) of any telegram already transmitted or in course of transmission, may, during the period of preservation of records (Rule 340) and after they have proved, if necessary, their right and identity, cause inquiry to be made, or instructions to be given respecting such telegram, by telegraph. They must deposit the following amounts:—

- (a) The cost of the telegram making the request.
- (b) The cost of a telegram for the reply, if a reply by telegraph is necessary.

They may also, with the object of rectification, have a telegram which they have sent or received, repeated entirely or in part, either by the office of destination or origin or by a transit office.

207. In case of a repetition asked for by the Addressee, he must pay the full charge for each word to be repeated. This charge includes the cost of the call and the reply. The Addressee of a telegram may have it repeated from the Frontier Telegraph office in India or Burma (Rule 238) at which it was dealt with, on depositing the charge for the transmission of an Inland Express telegram, namely, one rupee if the part to be repeated contains 12 words or less and 2 annas per word if the number of words is greater than 12. A telegram sent at the request of the Addressee, in order to obtain the repetition of a passage suspected to be erroneous, implies always a telegraphic reply, and the insertion of the indication—RP X—is not necessary. In other cases, in which a telegraphic reply is requested, this indication must be employed.

Reg. XVII.
2. 208. Rectifying, completing, or cancelling telegrams, and all other communications relating to telegrams already transmitted, or in course of transmission, when they are addressed to a Telegraph Office, must be exchanged exclusively between the Offices under the form of Paid Service Advices, at the cost of the Sender or the Addressee making the demand.

Reg. XVII.
6. 209. The charges for the abovementioned Service Advices are refunded under the conditions fixed by Rule 348, when the Advices are necessitated by errors of the telegraph service.

Reg. XVII.
7. 210. When the words of which the repetition is requested are written in a doubtful manner, the Office of origin consults, in the first instance, the Sender. If he cannot be found, the office of origin adds to the repetition a note: "Writing doubtful."

Reg. XVII.
7. 211. When the repetition concerns a telegram which has reached the Office of origin from the Sender by telephone, or by a private telegraph wire, that office requests at once from the Sender, a repetition of the words in question. In this latter case, if one or more of the words thus repeated differ from those in the telegram, the office gives the repetition requested in accordance with the corrections made, but inserts after the text of the Service Advice, the indication CTP (conserver taxe payée, or retain charge paid) accompanied by an indication of the number of words rectified by the Sender, the charge for which must not be refunded, thus:—CTP one, CTP two, etc.

Reg. XVII.
8. 212. The various communications mentioned above may be made by post through the agency of the Telegraph Offices of origin or destination. They are sent under registered cover at the cost of the person who makes the request, and who should, in addition, pay the cost of a reply by post when he demands one.

COUNTING OF WORDS.

Reg. XVIII.
1. 213. What is counted.—All that the Sender writes upon the form to be transmitted to his correspondent is charged for, and consequently included in the number of words. Nevertheless, dashes which only serve to separate upon the form the different words or groups of a telegram are neither charged for nor transmitted. Signs of punctuation, apostrophes, and hyphens are only transmitted and, consequently, charged for on the formal request of the Sender.

Reg. XVIII.
1. 214. When signs of punctuation, instead of being used singly, are repeated one after the other, they are charged for as groups of figures (Rule 195).

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

Reg. XIX, 3. 219. Plain language.—If in telegrams in which the text is written entirely in Plain language, any single word or authorised compound contains more than 15 characters according to the Morse alphabet, the excess is counted separately as one word.

220. In Private telegrams in any language other than plain English, or the Vernacular languages of India or Ceylon, the Sender shall certify at the foot of the form (or at the back, if more convenient) that the message does not contain combinations or alterations of words contrary to the usage of the language. (See Rule 230.)

221. In Plain language telegrams, Registered Abbreviated Addresses (Rule 194), whether used as the Address (Rule 226), or in the place of the Sender's name, or occurring in the text, are always treated as words in Plain language and counted at the rate of 15 characters to the word.

Reg. XIX, 4. 222. Code language.—In Code language the maximum length of a word is fixed at ten characters counted in accordance with the provisions of Rule 167.

Reg. XIX, 4. 223. Mixed telegrams.—Words in Plain language inserted in the text of a mixed telegram, i.e., a telegram composed of words in Plain language and words in Code language, must not contain more than ten characters according to the Morse alphabet, and any excess is counted separately as one word in each case.

This rule applies also to proper Names, including Registered Addresses (Rule 194).

Reg. XIX, 4. 224. If the mixed telegram contains, in addition, Cipher language the passages in Cipher are counted according to the stipulations of Rule 228.

Reg. XIX, 4. 225. If the mixed telegram is composed only of passages in Plain language and of passages in Cipher language, the passages in Plain language are counted according to the stipulations of Rule 219, and the passages in Cipher language according to those of Rule 228.

Reg. XIX, 5. 226. The Address or Sender's name in telegrams of which the text is written wholly or partly in Code language is charged according to the stipulations of Rules 218 and 219.

Reg. XIX, 6. 227. Use of apostrophes and hyphens.—Words separated by an apostrophe or joined by a hyphen are counted as so many separate words.

Reg. XIX, 7. 228. Figures, Letter-Cipher and Commercial marks.—Groups of figures or of letters, commercial marks composed of figures and letters, are counted as one word for each five figures or letters which they contain, plus one word for any excess. Each of the combinations ae, aa, ao, œ, ue and ch is counted as two letters.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

When Commercial marks form part of the text of a telegram, the Sender should certify them to be such at the foot of the form.

229. Signs used with figures or letters.—Decimal points or full stops, Reg XIX, 7 commas, colons, dashes and bars of division are each counted as a figure or a letter in the group in which they occur. This also applies to each letter added to groups of figures to form ordinal numbers, as well as to letters or figures added to the number of a house in an address, even in the case of an address in the text or in the signature (i.e., "Person From") of a telegram.

230. Combinations or alterations of words contrary to the usage of Reg. XIX, 8. the language are not admitted (Rule 168). The same applies to combinations or alterations sought to be concealed by reversing the order of letters or syllables. Nevertheless, the names of towns and countries, patronymics (family names) of one and the same person, the names of places, squares, boulevards, streets and other kinds of public places; the names of vessels, whole numbers, fractions, decimal or fractional numbers, written entirely in words and compound words admitted as such in the English and French languages and which can, if a question arises, be justified by reference to a dictionary, may be respectively written as single words without either apostrophe or hyphen (Rule 227).

231. Counting by Office of Origin decisive.—The counting of words Reg XIX, 9. by the Office of origin is decisive both for purposes of transmission and of the international accounts. When, however, a telegram contains combinations or alterations of one of the languages of the country of destination, or of a language, other than those of the country of origin contrary to the usage of such language, the Office of destination is empowered to recover from the Addressee the amount of the undercharge. In this case the telegram is not delivered to the Addressee until he has paid the undercharge. If the Addressee should decline to pay, a Service Advice is sent to the Office of origin, explaining the cause of non-delivery and mentioning the amount of the undercharge due. Should the Sender, duly notified of the reason for non-delivery, agree to pay the undercharge, a Service Advice is sent to the Office of destination, which then delivers the telegram.

In applying this Rule in India the language of the country is considered to be English, French or Portuguese, and in the case of telegrams addressed to certain offices in Persia, Persian. The Rule applies also to the vernaculars in case of telegrams from Ceylon (Rules 161 and 167).

232. Inadmissible groups or words.—When the Office of origin dis- Reg. XIX, covers, after the charge has been collected, that a telegram contains 10. either inadmissible combinations or alterations of words, or expressions, or words which although not fulfilling the conditions of Plain or Code language, have been charged for as belonging to those languages, it applies to these expressions or words, for the calculation of the under-charge to be recovered from the Sender, the rules to which they should have been respectively subjected. The combinations or alterations are counted in accordance with the number of words which they would contain if they were written in the usual manner. The Office of origin acts in the same manner when the irregularities are brought to its notice by a transit office or by the Office of destination. Nevertheless, neither of these two latter offices may delay the forwarding or delivery of the telegram, except in the case provided for in Rule 231.

¹232A. Surnames.—Names, such as Macdonald (or McDonald), FitzGerald, O'Neil, DeMorgan, D'Cruz, De la Rue, St. John, Van de Brande, Du Bois, will be counted as one word each, even though written with capital medial letters. They will however be signalled as single words without break, the apostrophe (where used) being omitted.

Reg. XX, 1.

TARIFFS AND CHARGES.

234. Tariffs.—The franc is the monetary unit employed in Foreign Art. 10, and Tariffs, and all accounts with Foreign Administrations are settled in gold. Reg XXII. Charges in India are collected at the standard rate of Rs 15 = £ 25 Reg. XXVII. 5, 6. Francs. The Tariffs for telegrams are made up of the shares of the different Administrations concerned, which may alter them from time to time. The tariffs vary also according to the Route employed (Rules 246 to 250).

235. Charge by the word.—The charge for a telegram is by the word Reg XXIII. pure and simple, and the minimum charge is for a telegram of two words¹. (Rules 180, 195 and 196). Tables showing the rates per word to Foreign countries are published in the Telegraph Guide.

236. Cancelled, see Notification No. 4553—67, dated 25th June, 1910, Gazette of India, 1910, Pt. I, p. 538.

237. Tariff Areas.—For Tariff purposes India is divided into two areas, namely, India Proper and Burma. When, in the course of transmission, a Foreign telegram has to traverse both of these areas, the charge per word is always two annas higher than when it has to traverse only one.

238. Frontier Offices.—The Frontier Offices, or Offices which directly exchange telegrams with Foreign Administrations, are as follows:—

- (a) Bombay, Karachi, and Madras in the Indian area, which exchange telegrams with the Eastern Telegraph Company, the Indo-European Telegraph Department, and the Eastern Extension, Australasia and China Telegraph Company, respectively,¹ [Madras which works Colombo direct is considered the Frontier Offices for Ceylon;]
- (b) Moulmein and Raungoon in the Burma area, which exchange telegrams with the Siamese Administration;
- (c) Bhamo in the Burma area, which exchanges telegrams with the Chinese Administration.

All Foreign telegrams originating in India or Burma have to pass through one or other of these Frontier Offices.

239. Prepayment of charges.—The charges for telegrams must be pre-paid with the exception of the additional charges on telegrams to follow¹. Reg XXIX. (Rule 298), the charge for delivery by special messenger (Rule 310), Semaphoric telegrams received from ships (Rule 328) and extra charges for alterations or illegal combinations of words discovered by the Office of destination (Rule 231), all of which are recovered from the Addressee.

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

Reg. XXIX, 2. 240. Receipts.—The Sender of a telegram can claim a receipt showing the amount paid. Senders of telegrams should examine their receipts to see if they are correct. Duplicate copies of receipts for telegrams are never given.

Reg. XXIX, 4. 241. Recovery of bearing and other Charges from Addressee.—In every case where charges have to be collected on delivery, the telegram is only handed to the Addressee upon payment of the amount due.

242. State telegrams.—The rule about prepayment (Rule 239) is relaxed in case of State telegrams of great emergency from British Government Officials who have been duly authorised (Rule 200) to send Foreign State telegrams. Whenever a telegram is sent without prepayment under this Rule, the Sender must take the necessary steps to ascertain the charges on it, and pay them into the Telegraph Office within twenty-four hours.

243. Cash or Stamps.—At Offices authorised to accept Foreign telegrams, the charges must be paid in cash or stamps (see Rule 64). At Departmental Telegraph Offices, telegrams can be accepted on the Deposit Account system. (For particulars see Rule 65.)

Reg. XXX, 1. 244. Under-charges made in error, and charges and expenses not recovered from the Addressee in consequence of his refusal to pay them, or the impossibility of finding him, must be made good by the Sender, except when the rules provide otherwise (see Rule 299).

Reg. XXX, 2. 245. Over-charges made in error are returned to those entitled to them. No refund, however, is made of the value of the stamps in excess affixed by the Sender, unless he applies for it to the ¹[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta], and sends with his application the Receipt granted for the telegram.

ROUTE.

g. XLI, 1.² 246. The different Routes by which telegrams may be transmitted are indicated by concise directions in the Tariff Tables published in the Telegraph Guide.

Reg. XLI, 2. 247. The Sender who wishes to prescribe the Route should write the corresponding direction on the telegram. The Sender may specify the actual Route to be followed or mark the telegram Best Route or Cheapest Route. Indications as to Route are transmitted free (Rule 215).

Reg. XLI, 3. 248. When the Sender has prescribed the Route to be followed, the Telegraph Offices concerned are bound to carry out his wishes, unless the Route named be interrupted, or transmission by it seems likely to-involve serious delay, in which cases, the Sender cannot raise any objection to the employment of another Route.

249. If, on the contrary, the Sender does not prescribe the Route, the telegram is sent by the best working route for which sufficient charges have been received. Where the charges are the same, the Offices where Routes diverge will decide by which to forward the telegram. Reg. XLI, 4.

250. When the forwarding of a telegram can be effected by several routes belonging exclusively to the same Administration, it rests with that Administration, in the case of private correspondence to decide, in the best interests of Senders, in which direction the telegram shall be forwarded over its lines. The Senders cannot, in this case, request specially the employment of one of the routes in question. Reg. XLI, 5.

INTERRUPTION OF TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION, TRANSMISSION IN DUPLICATE.

251. When an interruption to the regular means of telegraphic communication occurs during the transmission of a telegram, the office beyond which the interruption exists, or an office situated further back and having at its disposal an alternative telegraph route, immediately sends the telegram by such a route, or, failing that, by special messenger or by post (registered, if possible). Reg. XLII, 1.

252. If it is found that a telegram cannot be sent to its destination owing to interruption of the specified route taking place after the telegram was accepted, the Sender will be communicated with and asked to pay the additional charge if he wishes his telegram diverted to a more expensive route.

253. An office which has recourse to means of re-transmission other than telegraphic addresses the telegram according to circumstances, either to the nearest telegraph office able to retransmit it or to the office of destination, or to the addressee himself, when this re-transmission takes place within the limits of the State of destination. As soon as communication is re-established, the telegram is transmitted afresh by telegraph, unless its receipt has been previously acknowledged, or unless, on account of an exceptional accumulation of traffic, this re-transmission would be manifestly prejudicial to the general service. Reg. XLII, 3.

CANCELLATION OF A TELEGRAM AT THE REQUEST OF THE SENDER.

254. Before transmission.—The Sender of a telegram or his authorised representative can, on proving his identity, stop its transmission, if in time. Reg. XLIV, 1.

255. When he cancels it before transmission has begun the charges are returned, less a fee of two annas. Reg. XLIV, 2.

Reg. XLIV,
3.

257. After transmission.—If the telegram has been transmitted by the Office of origin the Sender can only request that it be cancelled by a Paid Service Advice, forwarded in accordance with Rule 206 and addressed to the office of destination. The Sender must pay, at his option, the cost either of a telegraphic or of a postal reply to the notice of cancellation. So far as is practicable, this Service Advice is transmitted successively to the offices through which the original telegram has transited until it overtakes the latter. Failing contrary indication in the Service Advice if the telegram has been delivered to the Addressee, he is informed of the cancellation of the telegram. The Office which cancels the telegram, or which delivers the notice of cancellation to the Addressee advises the office of origin accordingly. The information is given by telegraph, if the Sender has paid for a telegraphic reply to the notice of cancellations, in the contrary case, it is sent by post as a paid letter. If the telegram is cancelled before having reached the Office of destination, the charges for the original telegram, for the Service Advice of cancellation, and for any telegraphic reply prepaid to such Advice in respect of the distance not traversed, will be refunded to the Sender on application to the ¹[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta].

DELIVERY AND DESTINATION.

Reg. XLVI,

Those which are received during the night are only obligatorily delivered at once when they bear the instructions "Nuit" or "Night," or when the delivery office is in a position to recognise that they appear to be really urgent. 264. When a telegram in India has to be delivered on board a ship which cannot be reached without a boat (i.e., when not alongside a wharf, pier or jetty), or at a place which cannot be reached without a boat, the cost of boat-hire must be paid by the Addressee (Rule 310).

265. Cancelled by Notification No. 4215-96, dated 9th June, 1910, see Gazette of India, 1910, Pt. I, p. 468.

266. Persons to whom telegrams may be delivered.—A telegram taken to the Addressee's place of residence may be delivered either to the Addressee, the adult members of his family, any person in his service, to his lodgers or guests, or to the porter of the hotel or house, unless the Addressee has named in writing a special person, or the Sender has requested, by writing in the space provided on the form the Special Instruction Mains propres or "Addressee only" or =MP= [Rule 174 (d)], that the telegram be delivered only into the hands of the Addressee himself. In this case the office of destination writes the instruction "Addressee only" in full on the envelope, and gives the neces- Reg. XLVII, sary instructions to the messenger.

267. Open delivery.—The Sender may also request that the telegram be delivered open, by writing in the space provided on the form the Special Instruction Openvert or "Open" [Rule 174 (d)]. The request is reproduced on the copy handed to the Addressee, which is delivered, in India, without an envelope, simply folded with the Address written on the back. Reg. XLVII, 1.

268. Undelivered telegrams.—When a telegram cannot be delivered, the Office of destination, after a brief delay, sends a Service Advice to the Office of origin, stating the cause of non-delivery, and repeating the Address exactly as received. If necessary, this Advice is completed by stating the reason for refusal (Rule 231), or by indicating the charges to be claimed from the Sender [Rules 296, 299 and 311]. No Advice is sent under this rule where a telegram duly posted under Rule 320 is returned by the Post Office as undelivered or on telegrams addressed To await arrival, Télégraphe restante or Poste restante, except when a charge has to be collected, when the Service Advice of non-delivery is sent by ordinary paid letter at the expiration of the period for retaining such correspondence.

Reg. XLVII, 269. The Office of origin verifies the correctness of the Address, and, if it has been mutilated, rectifies it immediately by a Service Advice. If required this Service Advice contains instructions necessary to correct any errors committed, such as, "send on to destination," "cancel telegram," etc.

Reg. XLVII, 270. If the Address has not been mutilated, the Office of origin communicates the notice of non-delivery to the Sender, whenever possible. A notice of non-delivery is only re-transmitted by telegraph if the Sender of the original telegram has asked that his telegrams may be redirected to him by telegraph (Rule 299). In all other cases the notice is re-directed by post in the form of a letter, if the Sender is known. In India, Advices of non-delivery which are to be posted are posted free of charge. The receiver of a notice of non-delivery can only complete, rectify or confirm the Address of the original telegram by a paid telegram in the form of a Paid Service Advice (Rule 206).

Reg. XLVII, 271. If it becomes possible to deliver a telegram after transmitting an Advice of non-delivery without having received one of the rectifying Advices referred to in Rules 269 and 270, the Office of destination sends a second Service Advice to the Office of origin, stating that the message has been delivered. This information is communicated to the Sender if he has received a notice of non-delivery. This second Advice is not sent when delivery is notified by telegraphic acknowledgment of receipt (Rule 290).

Reg. XLVII, 272. If the messenger finds no person who will consent to receive the telegram for the Addressee, a notice is left at the address given and the telegram is taken back to the Telegraph Office to be delivered to the Addressee, or any person authorised by him to take delivery of it, upon application from either. When the Addressee advised as in the previous rule of the arrival of a telegram, does not take delivery within 24 hours,

Reg. XLVII, 273. Télégraphe restante.—When a telegram is addressed télégraphe restante, it is delivered to the Addressee or his duly authorised representative, over the telegraph counter.

274. Poste restante.—Telegrams addressed Poste restante, and those which are to be delivered by post are, as regards delivery and period of preservation, subject to the same rules as postal correspondence. Reg. XLVII. 10.

275. Any telegram which cannot be delivered to the Addressee within a period of forty-two days from the date of its receipt at the delivery office is, subject to the provisions of Rules 274 and 332, not kept by the Office of destination. Reg. XLVI. 1.

276. Directions about delivery.—For the registration of standing instructions regarding the delivery of telegrams during fixed hours, the same fee as for the registration of an Abbreviated Address is levied (vide Rule 32). If the fee for a registered Abbreviated Address has already been paid, that fee will cover the registration of special delivery instructions. In the case of Government officials, no charge is usually made for the registration of abbreviated addresses, but they will be required to pay the prescribed fee for the registration of standing instructions regarding the delivery of telegrams during fixed hours.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

(A) Prepaid Replies.

277. The Sender of a telegram can prepay the reply which he requests from his correspondent by writing on the form in the space provided, the Special Instruction Réponse payée or Reply paid or =RP= and adding the number of words he wishes to prepay thus: Réponse payée x, or Reply paid x or =RP*x*=. The charge for the reply is calculated on the supposition that it will follow the same route as the original telegram. Reg. XLIX.

278. A reply of less than two words cannot be prepaid (Rules 180, 195, and 196).

279. At the place of destination, the Delivery Office delivers to the Addressee a reply telegram form or voucher of a value corresponding to the cost of a telegram of a number of words equal to that given in the Special Instructions, intended for the office of origin of the reply paid telegram and to be sent by the same route as the latter. This Reply telegram form carries the right of sending, within the limit of its value, a telegram to any destination whatever, from any telegraph office of the Administration whose office has issued the Reply telegram form or voucher. Two or more Foreign Reply telegram forms may be used to frank one foreign telegram, but one Reply telegram form may not be used to frank two or more telegrams. Reg. L. 1.

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

Reg. L, 2.

280. If the reply exceeds the amount notified in the Reply telegram form, the difference must be paid in cash or stamps by the Sender of the reply. If, on the other hand, the amount notified in the Reply telegram form exceeds that of the reply, the difference is refunded by the ¹[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta,] to the Sender of the original telegram, if he apply for it within three months from the date of issue of the Reply telegram form, and provided that such difference is not less than ten annas. This refund is only made on the authority of the Administration which delivered the original telegram. If the telegram with deposit for reply originated in India, the refund of the unused portion is made to the Sender by the ¹[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta.]

Reg. L, 3.

281. The Reply telegram form may only be used in payment for a telegram during a period of forty-two days following the date of its issue.

Reg. L, 4.

282. When the Addressee has not made use of the Reply telegram form for any reason whatever, or has refused it, the money deposited for the Reply can be refunded to the Sender under the conditions of Rule 348 (h). In case of a Reply telegram form delivered in India, the Addressee should, before the expiration of three months from the date of issue, send the Reply telegram form to the Check Office, as above, accompanied by a claim for refund in favour of the Sender.

Reg. L, 5.

283. When, from any cause, a Reply paid telegram cannot be delivered, the Reply telegram form remains attached to the telegram during the period of retention fixed by Rule 275. At the end of this period, the Administration of destination will initiate the refund if the amount paid is not less than ten annas. The amount of the Reply telegram form is nevertheless refunded to the Sender if he apply for it before the expiration of this period. In this case, the delivery office cancels the Reply telegram form, and the telegram, endorsed accordingly, is preserved during the prescribed period (Rule 275).

(B) Collated (or Repeated) Telegrams.

Reg. LI, 1.

284. The Sender of a telegram can require that it be collated (or repeated). In this case he should write in the space provided on the form the Special Instruction Collatiennement or "Collation" or =TC=.

Reg. LI, 2.

285. State and Service telegrams written in Secret language are invariably collated free of charge.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

286. Collation consists in the entire telegram (including the preamble) being repeated back immediately on its receipt by each Office concerned in its transmission. Reg. LI, 3.

287. The charge for collation is equal to one-fourth of that of a telegram of the same length by the same Route, fractions of half an anna being reckoned as half an anna. Reg. LI, 4.

¹[The Sender can have the telegram repeated between the office of origin and the Frontier Telegraph office in India or Burma (Rule 238) at which it is dealt with, on payment of a charge equal to the rate for an Inland Express telegram of the same length.]

(C) Acknowledgments of Receipt.

288. The Sender of a telegram can require that a notice of the date and time at which his telegram is delivered to the Addressee shall be notified to him as soon as possible after its delivery. When the telegram is forwarded to its final destination by post, deposited poste restante, or delivered to some intermediate agency, this notice mentions the date and time of such forwarding, deposit, or delivery. Reg. LII, 1.

289. The notice is sent by telegram if the Sender writes in the space provided on the form the Special Instruction Accusé réception, or "Acknowledgment receipt," or =PC=, and pays a charge equal to that of a telegram of five words for the same destination by the same Route. It is sent by post if the Sender writes in the space provided on the form the Special Instruction Accusé réception postal, or Postal Acknowledgment receipt, or =PCP=, and pays a charge of 2½ annas for postage. Reg. LII, 2.

290. In the case of non-delivery provided for in Rule 268 the Acknowledgment of Receipt is preceded by the Service Advice required by that rule. The Acknowledgment of Receipt is detained during the period prescribed in Rule 275, or is transmitted after the delivery of the telegram, if that becomes possible. At the expiration of this period, if the telegram has not been delivered, the Administration of origin officially initiates the refund of the charge for the Acknowledgment of Receipt. Reg. LIII, 3.

291. A Postal Acknowledgment of Receipt contains the same information as a Telegraphic Acknowledgment of Receipt. It is sent by the office of delivery to that of origin in a prepaid envelope endorsed "Accusé de réception" or "Acknowledgment of Receipt." Reg. LIII, 4.

292. The Acknowledgment of Receipt, telegraphic or postal, when it reaches the Office of origin of the telegram, is notified to the Sender. Reg. LIII, 5.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

When the Acknowledgment of Receipt has reference to a telegram which has been re-addressed, the Office of origin recovers from the Sender, if necessary, the difference between the amount originally collected for the Acknowledgment of Receipt and the cost of the transmission actually effected. If the latter amount is less than the former by not less than ten annas, the difference is refunded to the Sender at his request.

(D) Telegrams to follow by order of the Sender.

- Reg. LIV, 1. 293. The Sender can require, by writing in the space provided, on the form, the Special Instruction Faire suivre, or "To follow" or =FS=, that the Office of destination shall cause his telegram to follow the Addressee.
- Reg. LIV, 2. 294. If the Sender of a telegram Faire suivre or "to follow" requests a Telegraphic Acknowledgment of Receipt, he must be warned that, in the event of the telegram having to follow the Addressee beyond the limits of the country of destination, he will be liable to pay any sum that may be necessary to complete the cost of the Acknowledgment of Receipt according to the distance actually traversed independently of any charges for re-addressing his telegram which may not have been collected on delivery.
- Reg. LIV, 3. 295. When a telegram bears the Special Instruction Faire suivre or "to follow" or =FS=, without further instructions, the Office of destination writes the new Address, if any, supplied at the residence of the addressee, and sends the telegram forward, to its new destination. The same course is followed until the telegram is delivered or until no new Address is furnished.
- Reg. LIV, 4. 296. If delivery cannot be effected, and if no other Address is furnished, the telegram is retained in the office, and its non-delivery reported as in Rule 268. The Service Advice of non-delivery must show the amount of the charges to be recovered from the Sender. This Advice, when the non-delivery might have arisen through an error of transmission, must be sent through the last re-transmitting office in order that it may have an opportunity of making the necessary corrections.
- Reg. LIV, 5. 297. If the Special instruction Faire suivre or "to follow" or =FS= is accompanied by successive Addresses, the telegram is transmitted to each of the destinations mentioned until the last, if necessary. In case of non-delivery the last office treats it in accordance with the provisions of Rule 296.
- Reg. LIV, 7. 298. The charge to be collected from the Sender for a telegram Faire suivre or "to follow" is simply the charge up to the first destination, all the Addresses being counted in the number of words charged for. The supplementary charges are collected from the Addressee. It is calculated by counting the number of words transmitted in each re-transmission.

(E) Telegrams to be re-transmitted by order of the Addressee or his Agent.

299. Telegrams re-directed in India.—Should the Addressee of a Foreign telegram received in India have left the place to which it is addressed, it may be re-directed to a second address in India either by an official of the Telegraph Office or by an agent of the Addressee. When official re-direction of telegrams is required, a notice to that effect must be given to the Telegraph Office concerned; printed forms for the purpose can be obtained from the local Telegraph Office. The person giving notice is responsible for any charges that may be incurred. No additional charge will be levied for re-direction if the two addresses are within the same town, but if in different towns, the full Inland Express rate will be charged for the re-direction. If the sum due has not been paid at the office where the telegram has been re-directed, the amount will be recovered from the Addressee before delivery. State telegrams will be re-directed free. Instructions left at the Telegraph Office regarding the re-addressing or re-direction of telegrams will be considered to be in force for a month only, after that period they will be liable to the fees prescribed by Rule 276.

300. Telegrams re-addressed to Ceylon.—Foreign telegrams arriving in India may also be re-transmitted to Ceylon at the request of the Addressee or some responsible resident acting on the Addressee's behalf. In that case the full charge for the telegram from India to Ceylon will, when possible, be recovered from the Addressee. Requests for re-transmission must be made in writing, and anyone making such request must undertake to pay the charges which may not be collected by the Delivery Office. ²[When no such undertaking accompanies a request to re-transmit, the telegram will be posted according to Rule 320 and a remark added in the notice of non-delivery (Rule 268) to say "Re-forwarded post to....."] Telegrams returned unopened with a new address in Ceylon will be similarly dealt with.

(F) Multiple Telegrams.

- Reg. LVI, 1. 301. A Multiple telegram may be addressed, either to several persons in the same locality or in different localities served by the same Telegraph Office, or to the same person at several addresses in the same locality, or in different localities served by the same Telegraph Office, if the special Instruction x Addresses or "x Addresses" or =TM x = [Rule 174 (d)], which enters into the number of words charged for be written in the space provided on the form (Rule 178). The name of the office of destination appears only once, namely, at the end of the address.
- Reg. LVI, 1. 302. In telegrams addressed to several addresses, the particulars concerning the place of delivery, such as Exchange, Railway station, Market, etc., must be written after each address, or if they relate to several successive addresses, after the last of these addresses.
- Reg. LVI, 2. 303. If the address of a Multiple telegram contains any supplementary instructions, it is written in accordance with Rule 178.
- Reg. LVI, 3. 304. For Multiple telegrams, in addition to the charge per word, a charge of five annas is collected for each copy not containing more than one hundred chargeable words. The number of copies is equal to the number of addresses, less one.
- Reg. LVI, 2. 305. For copies containing over one hundred chargeable words, the charge is five annas per hundred words or fraction of hundred words. The charge for each copy is calculated separately, taking into account the number of words which it will contain.
- Reg. LVI, 4. 306. In the case provided for by Rule 301, each copy of the telegram must bear only the address which belongs to it, and except at the request of the sender the instruction "X addresses" or "X addresses" or =TMx = must not appear in it. This request must be included in the number of words charged for and be written before the address of each addressee whom it concerns, as follows:—Communiquer toutes adresses or "Communicate all addresses" or =CTA =.

(G) Telegrams to be delivered by Post or by Express.

- Reg. LVII, 1. 307. Post or Express. Telegrams addressed to places where there are no International Telegraph Offices may be delivered at destination, according to the request of the Sender either by Post or by special messenger, but delivery by special messenger cannot be demanded, except for those States which have organised a system of delivery more rapid than the Post and have notified to the other States the arrangements provided for such service (Rule 316).

308. The Sender may also request that his telegram may be sent by Reg. LVII, 2. telegraph as far as an office which he indicates, and thence by post to destination.

309. The Address of telegrams to be conveyed beyond the Telegraph Reg. LVII, 3. lines must be preceded by the instruction denoting the method of conveyance to be employed whether Post or Special Messenger.

310. The cost of conveyance beyond the delivery limits of Telegraph Reg. LVIII, Offices by quicker means than the post, in States where such a service is¹ organised, is, as a rule, collected from the Addressee. (For exceptions—see Rules 312, 313 and 315.)

311. When a telegram which bears the Special Instructions Exprès Reg. LVIII, or "Express" and has involved expense is not delivered, the Office of destination enters in the Advice of non-delivery referred to in Rule 268, the amount to be recovered from the Sender on this account thus, "PCV" (amount due for special service).

312. When the Sender desires to prepay the cost of delivery by special Reg. LVIII, messenger, and if he can himself indicate the amount to be collected² under this head by the Telegraph Office of origin, the telegram must bear the Special Instruction (charged for) Exprès payé x or Express paid x—(or=Xp x=). If the sum deposited is found to be insufficient, the difference is claimed from the Addressee, but, if it exceeds the actual cost, the difference is not refunded.

313. A Sender who does not know the cost of delivery by special Reg. LVIII, messenger can relieve the Addressee from the payment of any charge³ whatever, either by paying the charge of a telegram of five words to the same destination by the same route, or by paying a fee of 2½ annas for postage, and by depositing in addition, by way of security, a sum to be fixed by the Office of origin with a view to subsequent settlement. The telegram then bears the Instruction Exprès payé télégraphe or Express paid telegraph or=XPT= or Exprès payé lettre or Express paid letter or=XPP= . This instruction is written in the space provided on the form and is charged for.

314. The Telegraph Office which receives for delivery a telegram Reg. LVIII, with the Instruction Exprès payé télégraphe or *Express paid telegraph*⁴ or=XPT=, notifies to the Office of origin by a Paid Service Advice, the charge to be collected for portage. This information is given by a prepaid ordinary letter in cases where the Special Instruction is Exprès payé lettre, or Express paid letter or=XPP= . On receipt of this information, the Office of origin settles with the Sender.

315. When the Administration of destination has previously fixed Reg. LVIII, and notified the amount of portage charges to be paid, payment by the⁵ Sender is obligatory. In this case the telegram must bear in the space

When the Sender has paid the charges for delivery indicated, in certain cases, in the official Nomenclature of offices, the instruction to be employed is also Exprès payé, or Express paid or =XP=.

316. All fixed charges for delivery notified by other Administrations are shown in Tariff Tables published in the Telegraph Guide.

Reg. LIX, 1.

317. Employment of Post.—Telegrams to be forwarded by post are subject to the following additional charges ¹[to be collected at the office of origin]:—

Reg. LIX, 3.

319. The employment of the post is obligatory upon the Telegraph Office of destination—

- (a) When a request to this effect has been expressly made by the Sender (Rule 307), or by the Addressee (Rule 299). The Office of destination may, however, employ a special messenger even for telegrams bearing the Instruction =Poste

322. Telegrams too late to be posted registered.—When a telegram, Reg. LIX, 8, to be forwarded as a registered letter, cannot immediately be registered, it is, in order to take advantage of a postal despatch, first posted as an ordinary letter, a duplicate being sent as a registered letter as soon as possible. This applies to all Foreign telegrams posted in India. The second copy will always be marked Duplicate.

- Reg. LXI, 2. 325. Language.—Semaphoric telegrams must be written either in the language of the country in which the Semaphore station which has to signal them is situated, or by means of groups of letters of the International Code of Signals.
- Reg. LXI, 3. 326. Address.—When they are for ships at sea, the Address must contain, in addition to the ordinary directions, the name or official number of the vessel for which they are intended and its nationality.
327. Preamble.—Every Semaphoric telegram received from a ship at sea must contain in the Preamble the Service instruction Sémaphorique or “Semaphoric.” When it is addressed to a ship at sea, this instruction is not inserted in the Preamble.
- Reg. LXI, 4. 328. The charge for telegrams exchanged with ships at sea by means of Semaphores is fixed at ten annas per telegram. This charge is added to the cost of its transmission by the electric telegraph, calculated according to the ordinary rules. The total is collected from the Sender, for telegrams addressed to ships at sea, and from the Addressee for telegrams signalled from ships at sea (Rule 239). In the latter case, the instruction “PCV” (which means Percevoir or Collect), must be inserted in the preamble.
- Reg. LXI, 5. 329. Transmission.—Telegrams from a ship at sea are transmitted to their destination in signals of the International Code of Signals when the sending ship requests it.

- Reg. LX, 4. 331. Period of retention.—The Sender of a telegram addressed to a ship at sea may specify the number of days during which the telegram is to be signalled to the ship by the Semaphore station. In this case he should write in the space provided on the form the Instruction “x... days,” (or x...jours); specifying the number of days which will include the day on which the telegram is handed in for despatch.
- Reg. LX, 6. 332. When the vessel to which a semaphoric telegram is addressed does not arrive within the period indicated by the Sender, or in the absence of such indication, on the morning of the 29th day, the Semaphore station advises the Sender of it. The Sender has the option of requesting, by paid telegraphic or postal Service advice addressed to the Semaphore station, that the latter should continue to offer his telegram for a further period of 30 days, and so on. When no such request is received, the telegram is destroyed on the thirtieth day excluding the day of deposit.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII of 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

(1) Combination of Special Telegrams.

333. In applying Rules 277 to 332, the facilities given to the public for prepaid replies, collated telegrams, acknowledgments of receipt, telegrams "to follow," multiple address telegrams, and telegrams to be delivered by Post or by Express may be combined, the Instructions in Rules 177 to 179 and 293 to 298 being duly observed. Reg. LXIII. 1.

FOREIGN PRESS TELEGRAMS AT REDUCED RATES.

334. Telegrams the text of which contains only information and news relative to politics, commerce, etc., intended for publication in newspapers are admitted as Press telegrams to or from the places in respect of which reduced rates have been arranged and published in the Telegraph Guide. Reg. LXV. 4.

(2) Press telegrams will be accepted in India during the working hours of Telegraph Offices as notified in the Telegraph Guide.

(3) Telegrams at the reduced rate shall not be allowed to interfere with the transmission of telegrams at full rates, and in order to ensure this, the transmission of such news telegrams may be deferred, suspended or interrupted until any State or Private telegram, or any Press telegram at full rates which may be on hand, shall have been transmitted and completed. On the lines of the Indian Telegraph Department such telegrams shall take precedence with Ordinary Inland telegrams.

(4) Press telegrams will only be accepted from the authorised correspondent of a newspaper, periodical publication or news agency. Each authorised correspondent will be furnished with a card of authority by the Director-General of Telegraphs.

(5) When Press telegrams are signed, the signature must be that of the correspondent whose name appears on the card.

(6) The permission to newspapers, periodical publications and news agencies to receive Press telegrams at reduced rates is subject to the submission of a written declaration by the manager of the newspaper, publication or agency, undertaking to conform to all the conditions fixed by these rules. A list of the newspapers, periodical publications and news agencies in India authorised to receive Press telegrams at reduced rates is published in the Telegraph Guide.

¹ Rules 334 and 335 were substituted by Notification No. 1033—10, dated the 7th February, 1910, see Gazette of India, 1910, Pt. I, p. 173.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

(7) Press telegrams must be addressed to newspapers; periodical publications or news agencies, and solely to the name of the newspaper, publication or agency, which appears on the card, and not to the name of a person connected in any capacity whatever with the management of the newspaper, publication or agency.

Proved irregularities may cause the withdrawal of Press Cards.

The use of abbreviated and registered addresses is authorised if mention is made of these addresses on the Card. For the receipt of telegrams at Press rates only, each authorised newspaper, periodical publication or news agency may have an abbreviated address registered free of charge.

(8) Press telegrams must be written in the English language, or in one of the languages of the country of origin or of destination authorised for International Telegraphic correspondence in plain language, or in the language in which the receiving newspaper is printed, provided that this language is admitted for International Telegraphic correspondence.

Press telegrams must not contain any passage, advertisement or communication having the character of private correspondence, nor any advertisement or communication the insertion of which is made in consideration of payment.

Exchange and market quotations, with or without explanatory text, are admitted in Press telegrams at reduced rates. Offices of origin must, in cases of doubt, assure themselves by communicating with the sender, who is bound to give proof whether the groups of figures appearing in the telegrams really represent Exchange quotations.

1335. Telegrams presented as Press telegrams which do not fulfil the conditions indicated in clause 8 of the preceding rule are charged for according to the ordinary tariff.

The normal tariff for private correspondence is also applicable to every Press telegram of which use is made for some other purpose than that of insertion in the columns of the newspaper to which it is addressed, namely:—

- (1) To telegrams which are not published by the receiving newspapers (failing a satisfactory explanation) or which the latter has communicated before publication, either to private individuals, or to establishments, such as, Clubs, Cafes, Hotels, Exchanges, etc.;

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

- (2) To telegrams which the receiving newspaper shall have sold, distributed or communicated before publishing them itself, to other newspapers for publication in their columns;
- (3) To telegrams addressed to agencies which are not published in a newspaper (failing a satisfactory explanation) or which are communicated to third persons before being published by the Press.

In the cases provided for in the three preceding clauses the balance of the charge is collected from the addressee and is retained by the Administration of destination.

¹336. Press telegrams bear only a single supplementary instruction—that relating to Multiple address telegrams. The charge to be collected for the copies to be made by the office of destination is the same as that for ordinary private telegrams.

¹337. All Press telegrams at reduced rates shall be prepaid, except under special arrangements made by an authorized newspaper for a specially nominated correspondent.

¹338. Press telegrams must be marked Press by the senders, and the benefit of Press rates must be claimed by them at the time the telegrams are tendered for despatch.

¹339. Press telegrams for Ceylon are accepted at reduced rates under the same general rules and conditions as Inland Press telegrams (Rules 131 to 136). In other respects, Press telegrams for Ceylon come under the general rules for Private Foreign telegrams.

RECORDS.

340. Period of Preservation.—The originals of telegrams and documents relating to them are kept for ²[seven days] only in Government Telegraph Offices, after which time they are sent to the ³[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta,] where they are preserved for at least ten months from the month following that in which the telegram was handed in, and then destroyed.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—contd.

- Reg. LXX, 1. 341. Secrecy.—The originals or copies of telegrams can only be communicated to the Sender, or to the Addressee, after proof of identity or to the authorised representative of either of them.
- Reg. LXX, 2. 342. Copies.—The Sender or the Addressee of a telegram, or the authorised representative of either, has a right to be furnished with a certified copy of such telegram, or of the copy delivered at destination, if the latter has been preserved by the Administration of destination. This right lapses after the expiration of the time fixed for preserving the records.
- Reg. LXX, 3. 343. A fixed charge of four annas is made for every copy furnished in conformity with Rule 342, if the telegram does not exceed 100 words. Over 100 words, this charge is increased by four annas for each 100, or fraction of 100 words.
- Reg. LXX, 4. 344. Telegraph Administrations are not obliged to produce or give copies of the telegrams above mentioned, unless the Senders, the Addressees, or their authorised representatives, furnish the necessary information to enable the telegrams, to which their requests refer, to be found.
345. Extended Preservation.—On the ground of pending or contemplated judicial proceedings, application may be made by an interested party to the ¹[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta,] for the preservation of specified telegrams, exchanged between other persons. Such application must be made within ten months of the dates of the telegrams, and such telegrams will then be preserved for a period of four months beyond the ordinary date fixed for destruction under Rule 340; at the expiration of this further period, they will, in default of a renewed application, be destroyed. It must be understood that the duty of the Telegraph Department in the matter is confined to making the search and preserving the telegrams, if found. No information as to the result of the search will be furnished, and any telegrams answering the description given which may be found, will only be produced on the order of a competent Court of law or other competent authority.
346. Fees for searching for telegrams.—Should the particulars furnished be insufficient to enable the Check Office at once to trace the telegrams applied for under either Rule 342 or 345, the cost of searching for them must be deposited by the applicant. A fee of one rupee is charged for searching through the telegrams of any Telegraph Office for one day; thus if it be required to examine the telegrams of two Telegraph Offices over a period of five days, the searching fee will be ten rupees.

347. Applications for the originals or for copies of telegrams may be addressed to the Telegraph Office within ¹[seven days] of the date of handing in or receipt of such telegrams or to the ²[Assistant Accountant-General, Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta] within ten months (Rule 340).

REFUNDS.

348. Refunds of the following charges are made to those who have Reg. LXXI, paid them, on receipt of an application for such refund, or of a complaint against the service:—

- (a) The full charge paid for every telegram which, through the fault of the Telegraph service, has failed to reach its destination.
- (b) The full charge paid for every telegram stopped in transmission owing to interruption of a route and of which the Sender has for this reason requested its cancellation.
- (c) The full charge paid for every telegram which, through the fault of the Telegraph service, has either suffered a greater delay than it would have if sent by post, or which has not been delivered within 72 hours in the case of Private, or 36 hours in the case of State telegrams and paid Service Advices. The periods during which offices are closed, when that is the cause of the delay, and the time occupied in delivery by special messengers are not counted in calculating this delay.
- (d) The full charge paid for every Collated telegram in Secret language or of any telegram in Plain language which, owing to errors made in transmission, has manifestly failed to accomplish its object, unless the errors have been rectified by Paid Service Advices under Rule 206.
- (e) The supplementary charges pertaining to any special service which has not been rendered, as well as the charge for the corresponding supplementary instructions.
- (f) The amounts deposited for Paid Service Advices requesting the repetition of a passage supposed to be incorrect if the repetition does not agree with the first transmission, with the reservation, however, that when some words have been correctly and some incorrectly transmitted in the original telegram, the charge for the words which relate exclusively to the words correctly transmitted in the first instance is not refunded. Nevertheless, the charge for the words correctly transmitted must be refunded, whatever may be the language in which the telegram is written, if the Administration concerned recognises that the mistakes made prevented the sense of the words which had not been mutilated from being understood.

- (g) The full charge paid for every other Paid Service Advice, telegraphic or postal, sent under Rules 206 to 212 necessitated by an error of the Telegraph service.
- (h) The full amount of every sum prepaid for a reply, when the Addressee has not made use of the Reply telegram form or has refused it, and when before the expiration of three months from the date of issue this Reply telegram form is in the possession of, or has been returned to, the Telegraph Administration which granted it.
- (i) The charges in respect of the telegraph section not traversed when, owing to an interruption of the telegraph route, the telegram in question has been forwarded to its destination by post or by some other means. The charges incurred in replacing the original telegraphic route by any other means of transport are, however, deducted from the amount to be refunded.
- (j) The full charges for every telegram with prepaid reply which has manifestly been unable to fulfil its object owing to a service irregularity which warrants the return of the charges for the reply; also the full charges for every prepaid reply which has manifestly been unable to fulfil its object owing to a service irregularity which warrants the return of the charges for the original telegram.
- (k) The charge, when it amounts to ten annas or more, of every word omitted in the transmission of a telegram, unless the error has been rectified by means of a Paid Service Advice under Rule 206.
- (l) The difference between the amount of a Reply telegram form and the charge for the telegram prepaid by means of such Reply telegram form, if this difference is equal to ten annas at least (Rule 270).
- (m) The charge for every telegram stopped under Rules 155 to 157.
- (n) The proportion of charge due for every telegram cancelled by the Sender (Rules 254 and 257).

349. In the case of a partial refund on account of a multiple telegram Reg LXXI, the total charge collected is divided by the number of copies, and the ² quotient represents the charge appertaining to each copy, the telegram itself counting in this respect as one copy.

350. In the cases provided for in clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (i) and (k) Reg LXXI, of Rule 348, the refund applies only to the charge of the actual telegrams ³ not delivered, or which have been cancelled, delayed or mutilated, including any supplementary charges not utilised, but not to telegrams necessitated or rendered useless by such non-delivery, delay or mutilation.

351. When the errors due to the Telegraph service have been rectified Reg. LXXI, by means of Paid Service Advices under Rules 206 and 208 within the ⁴ periods specified in Rule 348 (c) the refund applies only to the cost of these Paid Service Advices. No refund is due for the telegrams to which the Service Advices refer.

352. No refund is made for rectifying telegrams which, instead of Reg LXXI, being exchanged between Telegraph Offices in the form of Paid Service ⁵ Advices, have been exchanged direct between the Sender and Addressee.

353. Rules 348 to 352 are not applicable to telegrams traversing the Reg LXXI, lines of non-adhering Administrations which refuse to accept the obliga- ⁶ tion of Refunds. At the same time, the adhering Administrations which have participated in transmission give up their proportion of the charge when the right to a refund has been established.

354. Every claim for refund must be made, under penalty of rejection, Reg. LXXII, within five months from the date of handing in of the telegram. ¹

355. (1) Every claim for refund, and every complaint respecting Reg LXXII, telegrams, should be made by the Sender to the Telegraph Administration ². under which the telegrams originated: Provided:—

(i) that such application or complaint may also be presented by the Addressee to the Administration of destination which will then decide whether it will deal with it; or whether it should be forwarded to the Administration of origin;

- (iii) that claims for refunds on Paid Service Advices [Rule 348 (f) and (g)] may, if made within ¹[seven days] from the date of the telegram, be presented at the Telegraph Departmental Offices and Combined Post and Telegraph Offices ²* * * at which such advices were handed in.

(2) Every such claim and complaint shall be accompanied by documentary evidence, namely,—

- (a) in case of non-delivery or of delay, by a written statement from the Office of destination or from the Addressee;
- (b) in case of alteration or omission, by the copy of the telegram delivered to the Addressee;
- (c) in case of an unused Reply telegram form (Rule 282) by the Reply telegram form delivered to the Addressee;
- (d) in case of telegrams sent from India, by the Receipt (Rule 240);
- (e) in case of Paid Service Advices (Rule 209), by the correction memorandum granted in connection therewith by the Telegraph Office of delivery.

LXXII, 356. When a claim is admitted by the Administrations concerned, the refund is made to the applicant by the Administration of origin. The right to the refund lapses after a period of six months from the date of the letter by which the Sender is informed that the refund has been granted.

LXXII, 357. If the Sender does not reside in the country where he handed in his telegram, he can have his claim forwarded to the Administration of origin through the medium of another Administration. In this case, the latter is deputed to make the refund, if need be.

358. No claim is admitted when a telegram not being in accordance with the conditions prescribed for observance by the public with regard to composition, language, legible writing, address, instructions for the conveyance of telegrams beyond the telegraph lines, etc., has been accepted for transmission at the Sender's risk.

¹General rules for Deferred Foreign telegrams.

¹359. The sender of a Private telegram may obtain the benefit of a reduction of 50 per cent. in the charge on condition that the telegram is written in plain language, as defined hereafter, and that it is not transmitted until after telegrams charged for at full rates or at Press rates. Such telegrams are termed "Deferred Foreign telegrams."

Form of handing in.

¹360. Declaration by sender.—The sender of a Deferred Foreign telegram must sign when handing in the telegram, a declaration giving a formal assurance that the text is entirely in plain language, and that it does not bear any meaning other than that which appears on the face of it. The declaration must specify the language in which the telegram is written.

¹361. Supplementary instructions.—The sender of a Deferred Foreign telegram at half rates must insert before the address the supplementary instruction LC, completed as is laid down in Rule 363. This instruction is counted in the number of words charged for.

¹362. Form.—The text of Deferred Foreign telegrams must be written entirely in plain language, and must not contain any figures, commercial marks, groups of letters, or signs of punctuation, or abbreviated expressions (Rule 163). Any telegram containing a succession of isolated letters, numbers, names or words without connected meaning and, generally, any telegram which does not in the opinion of the Telegraph service bear an intelligible meaning on the face of it, is not admitted to the benefit of half rates. Registered addresses are accepted if accompanied by a text which makes their nature clear. Numbers must be written in words. Telegrams without text are not admitted.

¹363. Deferred Foreign telegrams at half rates must be written in French, or in one of the languages of the country of origin or destination specified by the Administrations concerned and authorised for International telegraphic correspondence in plain language. According as the language employed is (1) French, (2) a language of the country of origin, or (3) a language of the country of destination, the supplementary instruction LC is to be completed and becomes LCF, LCO, or LCD. The use of two or more languages in the same telegram is not allowed.

The wording of the address and the signature of these telegrams are governed by the rules in force for full rate telegrams.

¹364. Counting of words.—The words in the address, in the text and in the signature are counted according to the rules in force for full rate telegrams.

THE INDIAN TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885 (XIII OF 1885).

Rules as to Inland and Foreign Telegrams—concl.

¹365. Places between which Deferred telegrams are admitted.—The countries to which Deferred Foreign telegrams may be sent at half rates are indicated in the tariff tables published in the Telegraph Guide.

¹366. Application of full rates to irregular telegrams.—The Telegraph Administrations reserve the right to refuse to receive at half rates any telegram which, in their opinion, is not in accordance with the foregoing conditions.

When the delivery office observes that a telegram bearing one of the supplementary instructions LCF or LCD does not comply with these conditions the telegram is treated in the same way as one containing irregular combinations (Rules 231 and 232).

¹367. Order of transmission.—Deferred Foreign telegrams are only transmitted after Private telegrams at full rates and Press telegrams. Those which have not reached their destination within a period of 24 hours from the time of handing in are transmitted in turn with telegrams charged for at the full rate.

¹368. Delivery.—Deferred Foreign telegrams at half rates are delivered in turn with telegrams at full rates.

¹369. Special services.—Deferred Foreign telegrams at half rates may bear any of the supplementary instructions referred to in Rule 174 (d). The rates applicable to the various special services desired by the sender of a Deferred Foreign telegram (paid service telegrams, conditions of delivery, RP, TC, etc.), are the same as in the case of full rate telegrams. The corresponding supplementary instructions are charged for at half rates. Telegraph money orders and maritime telegrams are not admitted at the deferred rate.

¹370. Refunds.—The period during which a refund can be claimed on account of delay in the case of a Deferred Foreign telegram is fixed at 72 hours [Rule 348 (c)].

¹371. General conditions.—Deferred Foreign telegrams at half rates are subject to all the conditions of the International Telegraph regulations which do not conflict with the foregoing conditions.

of 1885), the Governor General in Council is pleased to issue the following rules governing the exchange by radio-telegraph of public correspondence between the temporary coast station at Bombay and ships at sea to have effect from the 15th October, 1909.

Duration of Service.

[1. The service at coast stations in India will be according to the hours notified for such stations in the Indian Telegraph Guide. Those coast stations at which the service is of limited duration must not close before they have transmitted all their radio-telegrams to such ships as are within their range of transmission and have received from these ships all the radio-telegrams of which notice has been given. This applies also when ships notify their presence before work has actually ceased.]

Form and Acceptance of Telegrams.

2. The form and acceptance of telegrams will be in accordance with the rules for Foreign telegrams as given in the rules published in Notification ²No. 6975—137, dated the 16th September, 1909.

Special rules for Radio-telegrams to ships.

3. The address of radio-telegrams for ships at sea should be as complete as possible. It must contain the following particulars:—

- (a) Name of addressee (with any further particulars that the sender may consider necessary for identification of the addressee).
- (b) Name of ship.
- (c) Name of the coast station from which the radio-telegram is to be signalled, i.e., Bombay Radio.

Preamble to Radio-telegrams as sent by ship.

4. All radio-telegrams bear the Service Instruction "Radio" in the preamble.

In radio-telegrams sent by a ship station to the coast station, the date and the time of handing in are omitted. They are included as part of the preamble in radio-telegrams to ships.

Radio-telegraph Rules for Bombay—contd.

5. On re-transmission of a radio-telegram from a ship over the ordinary telegraph system, the coast station inserts for office of origin its own name, followed by the name of the ship from which it has been received; and inserts as the time of handing in, the time of receipt from the ship station. The onward transmission of the telegram to the ordinary telegraph system will then be according to the usual form of transmitting Foreign telegrams in India, except that the word "Radio" must be transmitted in the Service Instructions, and appear on the copy delivered to the addressee at the office of destination.

Charge for Radio-telegrams.

6. The charge for radio-telegrams between any station in India or Burma and the ships that may communicate with ¹[a coast station] will be eight annas a word. 1* * * * *

The charge for a radio-telegram must in every case be prepaid in full by the sender. Radio-telegrams for stations other than in India and Burma will not be accepted by the ship station.

Classes of Telegrams not admitted in the Radio-telegraphic service.

7. Certain classes of telegrams which are admitted in the International Telegraph Service cannot be accepted in the Radio-telegraphic service. They are as follows:—

- (a) Telegrams with prepaid replies.
- (b) Telegraphic Money Orders.
- (c) Collated telegrams.
- (d) Telegrams with acknowledgments of receipt, except as regards their transmission over the lines of the ordinary telegraph system.
- (e) Telegrams "to follow" the addressee.
- (f) Paid Service telegrams, except as regards transmission over the ordinary telegraph system.
- (g) Telegrams to be delivered by Express (i.e., by special messenger) or post.

Priority of Messages.

8. In the transmission of radio-telegrams priority must be assigned first of all to messages of distress, and then according to the order given

¹ Substituted for the words "the temporary coast station at Bombay" and the words "Half of this will be the ship station charge, and the other half will cover the coast station charge and that for wire transmission in India or Burma" were cancelled by Notification No. 7532—13, dated the 22nd October, 1910. see Gazette of India, 1910, Pt. in Rule 158 of the rules published in Notification ¹No. 6975-137, dated the 16th September, 1909, viz.:—

- (a) State (or Government) telegrams.
- (b) Service telegrams.
- (c) Private telegrams.

Undelivered Radio-telegrams from ships.

9. When, for any reason whatever, a radio-telegram from a ship at sea cannot be delivered to the addressee, the coast station will be informed by the office of destination; and the information must be transmitted, if possible, to the ship of origin. It will then be the duty of the operator on the ship station to compare the address on the original form with that given in the notice of non-delivery, and to send a correcting Service message if he finds any discrepancy. In the absence of any discrepancy, he should inform the sender of the non-delivery of the message and of the reason assigned for it.

Undelivered Radio-telegrams on ships.

10. When a radio-telegram reaching a ship station cannot be delivered, that station informs the office of origin by means of a Service Advice.

Distress Signal.

11. As soon as a station perceives the distress signal, it must suspend all correspondence, and must not resume work until it has made sure that the communication consequent on the call for assistance has been completed.

Procedure when Signals become doubtful.

12. When signals become doubtful, it is important that recourse should be had to all possible means for effecting transmission. For this purpose, the radio-telegram is repeated, at the request of the receiving station, but not more than three times. If in spite of this triple transmission, the signals are still unreadable, the radio-telegram is cancelled. If an acknowledgment of receipt is not received, the transmitting station again calls the receiving station. If no reply is made after three calls, transmission is not continued. If the receiving station, in spite of defective reception, thinks that the radio-telegram may be delivered, it inserts the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules under the said Act:—

1. The time within which amounts deducted from salary, annuity, pension, or gratuity paid by a Local Authority under section 8, sub-section (1) of the Act must be paid to the credit of the Government of India, is fixed at one week from the date of payment of the salary, pension, annuity, or gratuity. The payment to the credit of the Government shall be made by remitting the amount to the Collector with a statement giving the following particulars for each person from whom the tax has been realised:—

- (1) Name.
- (2) Period for which the salary, pension, or annuity has been paid.
- (3) Amount of salary, pension, annuity, or gratuity paid.
- (4) Amount of tax.

2. The return required by section 10 of the Act shall be in Form A hereto appended.

The name of any person who is receiving, at the date of the return prescribed by section 10 of the Act, a salary, pension, or annuity which does not amount to Rs. 300 per annum, or has received during the year ending on that date a gratuity which does not amount to that sum, need not be shown in the return.

3. Any sums, such as payments to regimental mess or band funds or the like compulsorily stopped from salary by the orders, or with the approval, of the Government, shall be deducted from the salary previous to assessment.

A portion of salary withheld in pursuance of an order of a Court is not a sum compulsorily stopped from salary within the meaning of this rule.

4. When a deduction is made from the amount of salary, pension, or annuity liable to assessment on account of a payment made to a Life Insurance Company, the sum deducted shall, if the premium is payable in sterling, be the actual cost of remittance as stated by the assessee; or, if the assessee is unable to state such actual cost, the equivalent in rupees of the sterling payment calculated at the official rate of exchange for the year in which the deduction is made.

5. A deduction such as is mentioned in the preceding rule must be supported either—

- (1) by the original receipt of the Insurance Company; or
- (2) (in the case of a deduction claimed by a servant of the Government or of a Local Authority) by a copy of the same presented together with the original, to the officer who pays the salary, pension or annuity, and attested by that officer who should after such attestation return the original; or
- (3) by a duplicate receipt given by the Insurance Company; or
- (4) by a certificate of payment given by the Insurance Company.

In cases (1), (3), and (4), the receipt or certificate should be returned as soon as the fact of payment is admitted in the due course of audit.

Where the Collector is satisfied that none of the above prescribed documents can be produced without an amount of delay, expense, or inconvenience which, under the circumstances of the case, would be unreasonable, he may accept such other proof of payment of the premium as he may deem sufficient.

6. The amounts exempted from the tax by section 5, sub-section (1), clause (g), of the Act, and referred to in rule 4 of these rules, shall not be deducted from income for the purpose of determining whether the income is liable to the tax, or of determining under Part I of the Second Schedule of the Act the rate at which the tax shall be levied.

(7) The amount to be assessed under section 24, sub-section (1), of the Act on account of a building occupied by the owner thereof shall not in any case exceed 10 per cent of the aggregate income of the owner derived from all sources. It must not, however, be understood from this that a maximum of 10 per cent of the aggregate income of the owner is to be assumed in every case as equivalent to the letting-value of his house. The letting-value should in all cases be ascertained on the best data available in view of the circumstances of the locality in which the house is situated.

8. After the close of the year of assessment each Accountant General or other auditing officer shall submit return No. 1, in the form hereto appended to such officer as the Local Government may direct.

9. The certificates referred to in the second column of Part III of the Second Schedule of the Act shall be in Form B or in Form C, hereto appended.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—*contd.THE INDIAN INCOME-TAX ACT, 1886 (II OF 1886).*Rules under the Act—*contd.

10. Any claim under section 5, sub-section (I), clause (c), of the Act to exemption from the levy of the tax on the interest of securities employed solely for religious or public charitable purposes within the meaning of that clause must be supported by a certificate from the Collector, which shall be in Form D hereto appended.

11. In the case of securities, the interest on which is payable by the Government of India, the amount deducted on account of the tax under section 13, sub-section (I), of the Act shall be paid to the credit of the Government on the same day as the payment of the interest is made.

12. In the case of securities, the interest on which is not payable by the Government of India, the amount so deducted shall be paid to the credit of the Government within one week from the date on which interest is paid. The person deducting the amount should pay it to the credit of the Government by remitting the amount to the Collector, with a statement showing the following particulars:—

- (1) Name of owner.
- (2) Description of security.
- (3) Number of security.
- (4) Date of security.
- (5) Amount of security.
- (6) Period for which interest is drawn.
- (7) Amount of interest.
- (8) Amount of tax.

13. After the close of the year of assessment, each Accountant General and Comptroller shall submit Return No. II, in the form hereto appended to such officer as the Local Government may direct.

14. In calculating the amount of tax payable, the amount due on a fraction of a rupee shall be neglected. Thus the tax to be realised on a monthly salary of Rs. 166-10-8 is Rs. 4-5-2 only.

15. All public servants are forbidden to make public or disclose, except for the purpose of the working of the Act, any information contained in documents delivered or produced with respect to assessments under Part IV of the Second Schedule of the Act, and any public servant committing a breach of this rule shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 166 of the Indian Penal Code.

XLV of 1

All public servants are further enjoined to be most careful to regulate their proceedings, as far as practicable, in such manner as to prevent information which should be kept secret from becoming known. It should be noted that information of this nature is to be withheld by

17. Each Local Government will prescribe forms of registers to be maintained by Collectors and others for the purpose of showing the demand and collections of the tax, the various classes of incomes assessed and the working of the several provisions of the Act.

6. Registers of births and deaths shall be kept in the forms set forth in Schedule C and Schedule D, respectively.

7. When a birth or death has occurred during a journey, or when a person giving notice of a birth or death was compelled by duty or urgent necessity, or unavoidable accident to leave the local area in which such birth or death occurred so soon after its occurrence that he was unable to give the prescribed notice to the Registrar for that local area,

In the case of the person of European descent the initial letter will be the first letter of the surname; and in the case of any other person the first letter of his name and not that of his rank, title or class.

16. A Registrar may, of his own motion, correct in manner prescribed in section 28 of the Act any error in form made in an entry of a birth or death in a register of births or register of deaths kept by him under the Act.

Provided that the Registrar is satisfied that the application is well founded.

An appeal against an order of a Registrar under this rule refusing to correct an asserted error in an entry in a register shall lie to the Registrar-General, who may in his discretion either confirm the order of the Registrar or direct him to correct the error.

Rules under section 14 of the Act.

No. 96, dated the 7th January, 1888.—Resolution.—In accordance with the provisions of the Indian Securities Act (XIII of 1886), the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules under section 14 of the Act:—

1. Interest cages showing the several half-years at which interest will accrue, shall be imprinted on the reverse of each new note issued, and payment shall be recorded by the stamp of the Disbursing Office or by a manuscript entry over the space apportioned to the half-year concerned. If payment be made at a Presidency-town, the recording entry shall show the Presidency and the date and number of the issuing warrant, which shall be in the form of a negotiable instrument payable to the holder's order. But if payment be made at a District Treasury, the recording entry shall show the name of the Treasury, the number borne by the payment voucher, and the date of payment; this entry shall be authenticated by the initials of the Treasury Officer, and the holder's receipt shall be taken on the face of the payment voucher. If, however, the note be of the old form, and bear no interest cage, the holder's endorsement for interest will be required on the note itself, and payments will be authenticated by the Disbursing Officer under the endorsement as heretofore.

2. Under the preceding rule, interest cages shall be imprinted and (in the case of notes in the old form) holder's endorsements for interest shall be written only on the back of the note itself.

3. If the note be of the old form and bear no interest cage, the holder's endorsement for interest should agree letter for letter with the name in the body of the note or in the transferring endorsement, as the case may be; the usual signature may be added below:—

¹ 4. (1) Every endorsement purporting to be signed by a native female shall be attested by the signatures of two respectable witnesses.

(2) Such witnesses shall appear in person before—

5. ²No notice will be taken of any trust appearing in an endorsement of transfer or receipt for interest. When a note is endorsed to, or received by, any person in his capacity of trustee or in any other representative capacity, such person will be treated in all respects as the true owner of the note.

of the note so lost or destroyed shall have been produced, direct the Public Debt Office, upon the execution of such bond of indemnity as is hereinafter mentioned, to issue to the applicant a duplicate note in lieu of that so lost or destroyed as aforesaid. If, however, no portion or no sufficient portion of the note so lost or destroyed shall have been produced as aforesaid, then, at the expiration of two years from the date of the insertion of such last advertisement, the Comptroller General shall, if satisfied as aforesaid, pass an order directing the Public Debt Office, upon the execution of such bond of indemnity as is hereinafter mentioned, to pay the applicant interest in respect of the note so lost or destroyed pending the issue of a duplicate note, and also directing the said Public Debt Office, at the expiration of six years from the date of the publication of the list in which the lost or destroyed security is first mentioned, if no reason to the contrary appear, to issue to the applicant (on his executing and procuring the execution by two sureties of such indemnity bond as is hereinafter mentioned should the same be deemed necessary by the Comptroller-General) a duplicate note in lieu of that so lost or destroyed as aforesaid.

Rules as to securities deposited with Government for completion of contracts.

Resolution.—No. 1012, dated 28th February, 1890.—The object of the proposal now made is to provide that, in the case of Government securities received by Warrant Officers in charge of dépôts the securities shall not be endorsed to such officers but to the nearest Ordnance Officer.

2. It is understood that the difficulty occasioned by the existing rules arises almost entirely in connection with deposits made for short periods by contractors as a guarantee for fulfilment of their contracts. The simplest way to overcome the difficulty appears to be to rule that such deposits as also other deposits of Government securities which are not expected to remain in custody for more than a year, may remain in the name of the person making the deposit and not be endorsed to any officer of Government. The deposits will then be received on the condition to be stated in the tender or otherwise, that Government will be authorised to appropriate and cancel the notes if the contracts are not fulfilled. If by mistake notes sent by depositors to an officer of Government are endorsed to him, they should be returned, when the proper time comes with that endorsement cancelled, instead of being re-endorsed. In this case interest should not be drawn by the officer, but if the notes remain in the name of the depositor there would be no objection to his drawing interest on them on producing at the treasury in which they are lodged for safe custody a receipt countersigned by the Government officer who lodged them provided, of course, that the notes are enfaced for payment of interest at that treasury.

3. His Excellency the Governor General in Council accordingly directs that in future the procedure in such cases shall be as follows:—

- (1) When the notes are deposited for a period of twelve months or less, they shall remain in the name of the depositor and shall not be endorsed by him to any officer of Government.
- (2) The Government officer receiving the deposit will see that the notes stand in the name of the depositor, and that the contract or other document executed by the depositor conveys authority to Government to appropriate or cancel the notes if the contract is not fulfilled.
- (3) After satisfying himself on these points, the Government officer receiving the deposit will lodge the note or notes for safe custody in the nearest civil treasury except in the Presidency-towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, where the notes will be lodged with the Comptroller-General and with the Accountants-General, Madras and Bombay, respectively. The Comptroller-General will issue subsidiary rules regulating the procedure at the treasuries.
- (4) The depositor may draw interest on these notes by tendering receipts in the usual form countersigned by the officer with whom he deposited them.
- (5) When the notes are deposited for more than twelve months, they should be endorsed to the Comptroller-General (or Accountant-General, Madras and Bombay, as the case may be) and sent as at present through the Controller of Military Accounts, the practice now followed of sending to the Presidency Bank notes deposited for more than six and less than twelve months being discontinued.

The part of the upper deck upon which such hospital shall be erected shall be pointed out and measured off by the surveying officers. The framework of

21. No passenger ship shall clear out or proceed to sea without such provision for affording light and air to the passenger decks as the circumstances of the case may in the judgment of the Inspecting Officer at the port of clearance require; nor if there are as many as one hundred passengers on board, without having an adequate and proper ventilating apparatus to be approved by such Inspecting Officer and fitted to his satisfaction; the passengers shall moreover have the free and unimpeded use of the whole of each hatchway situated over the space appropriated to their use and over each such hatchway there shall be erected such a booby-hatch or other substantial covering as shall, in the opinion of such Inspecting Officer, afford the greatest amount of light and air, and of protection from wet as the case will admit.

22. Every cowl-headed tube shall be provided with a strong plug for use, if necessary, in bad weather.

23. Every ship having an iron upper deck shall have a wooden deck laid over it.

24. Each hatchway shall be provided with a large tarpaulin tent that can be spread well over it, securely fastened, so as to keep out rain and let in fresh air, and be rolled up out of the way in fine weather; and shall also be fitted with a strong iron or wooden A-shaped frame for the support of the tent.

25. Every ship shall have poop, quarter and main deck awnings complete and in good order, at least six life buoys, and four windsails.

26. (e) Sanitary and miscellaneous regulations.—Every ship shall be fitted with not less than two latrines sufficiently screened from public view and readily accessible, and with one additional such latrine for every hundred passengers, or part of that number, carried in excess of 100. The latrines shall be provided with not less than two seats for each 100 passengers. Each latrine shall be firmly secured in a convenient and accessible place on the upper deck, and close against the bulwarks, so that the soil-shoot of the latrine floor may lead directly out of a port or other opening and well clear of the ship's side. No latrines shall be allowed in the between-decks. Each latrine shall be divided into separate and private compartments. Each compartment not more than 2 feet square shall have a separate entrance with door, and shall be fitted with a seat, or a pair of footboards having a free opening or hole in the centre.

Each such opening shall communicate directly with the floor beneath, common to all the openings.

The floor continued into the shoot, and having a good fall towards it, shall be made either of a continuous sheet of metal, or of wood continuously lined with sheet lead or zinc.

The floors and shoots of the latrines shall be painted with coal tar, liberally laid on. There should be a troughed opening at each of the ends or sides of the latrines a little above the level of the floor, but below that of the seats or footboards, to enable the floors to be freely flushed with water from the outside. Every compartment shall be well ventilated by means of openings, that do not interfere with privacy; and shall be sufficiently lighted at night by means of a lantern to each latrine that should be so fitted as to throw light into all the compartments of the latrine.

A portion of such compartments, in any case not less than one, if there be any females among the passengers, shall be set apart for the exclusive use of females, such proportion corresponding, as nearly as may be, to the proportion of female to male passengers.

27. Every ship shall be provided with not less than two places for washing sufficiently screened from public view, whereof a full proportion, as prescribed in the case of latrine compartment, shall be set apart exclusively for females. A sufficient number of hand-pumps shall also be provided for supplying sea water for purposes of ablution.

28. Every ship shall be provided with not less than two cabooses or cooking ranges on deck, properly housed and covered, to which passengers can have ready access. The ranges shall be made of substantial plate iron, lined inside with bricks and raised at least 4 inches from the deck, with an outlet or chimney at top for the escape of smoke.

Each range shall contain five or six cooking places, and an additional range shall be provided for every two hundred passengers carried in excess of one hundred. Cooking on board in the passengers' own stoves is prohibited.

Every ship shall provide caboose and boiler accommodation sufficient to cook for the total number of passengers to be fed by the ship; a corresponding reduction will then be admissible in the number of cabooses required under the rules for those who cook for themselves.

29. The crew of the ship shall not be allowed to use the cooking ranges or latrines set apart for passengers during the period passengers are on board, but shall be provided with a separate cooking range and latrine.

30. Strong ladders shall be provided for every hatchway used as such and not only as a ventilator, and as an additional means for women and children to hold on by, besides hand-rails, knotted hand ropes should be fastened conveniently near the ladders.

31. Hooks for hanging the required number of lanterns shall be fixed at convenient distances apart.

32. The space to be occupied by the passengers must be clear, thoroughly clean, and dry; and nothing must be slung up or stowed away between the beams.

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts.

No. 56, dated the 28th August, 1896.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 4, 68 and 70 of the Indian Marine Act (XIV of 1887), and in supersession of G. G. O. No. 50, dated the 28th October 1887, the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules to regulate the procedure of Indian Marine Courts and certain other matters connected with the enforcement of the said Act, and to declare that they shall come into force with effect from the 1st October, 1896:

1. In these rules—

- (1) "the Act" means the Indian Marine Act, 1887;
- (2) "section" means a section of the Act;
- (3) "schedule" means a schedule to these rules; and
- (4) "the Royal Indian Marine" and "the Royal Indian Marine Service" mean "the Indian Marine" and "the Indian Marine Service" within the provisions of the Act.

2. The functions of a commanding officer under section 3 may by order of that office be discharged by the next senior gazetted officer present.

3. The rules of service to be read and explained under section 3, to a person on his enrolment, shall be in the form of Schedule I.

4. The oath to be administered under section 3, to a person on his enrolment, shall be in the form of Schedule II.

5. The roll to which that person after taking the oath of allegiance is to affix his signature or mark, shall be in the form of Schedule III.

6. The prescribed authorities for giving effect to certain provisions of the Act shall be the following, namely:

- (a) in respect of clause (3) of section 38, the Governor General in Council or the Director of the Royal Indian Marine;

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN MARINE ACT, 1887 (XIV OF 1887).

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

- (b) in respect of section 47, the Director or Deputy Director of the Royal Indian Marine;
- (c) in respect of section 50, the Deputy Director of the Royal Indian Marine;
- (d) in respect of clause (4) of section 72, the Director or Deputy Director of the Royal Indian Marine or such gazetted officer as may be nominated by the Governor General in Council or by the Director or Deputy Director of the Royal Indian Marine;
- (e) in respect of sub-section (2) of section 75, the Director or Deputy Director of the Royal Indian Marine, or the commanding officer of the accused;
- (f) in respect of clause (6) of section 82, the Deputy Director of the Royal Indian Marine or, where the value or amount of the property does not exceed one hundred rupees, the commanding officer of the deceased.

7. The prescribed custody mentioned in sub-section (1) and in sub-section (3), clause (b) of section 75, may be Royal Indian Marine, or naval, or military or civil; or may be partly Royal Indian Marine and partly naval, or military or civil.

8. The form mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 75 shall be that prescribed in Schedule IV.

9. (1) Every charge or complaint to be investigated by an Indian Marine Court shall be thus made—

- (a) By a letter addressed to the Director or Deputy Director of the Royal Indian Marine or the authority empowered to convene an Indian Marine Court, reporting fully and accurately in detail and in the order of their occurrence, the circumstances on which the charge or charges may be founded, and when words used constitute the substance of the offence, setting them forth as fully and exactly as possible. The letter shall not refer in any way to the previous character or conduct of the accused, nor contain any allusions to his prejudice; but shall be so circumstantial as to enable him to understand fully and plead to the offence charged.

- (b) By a further letter enclosing—

The charge or charges carefully drawn on a charge sheet, in which, so far as possible, the very words used in describing each offence charged in the section under which it falls should be adhered to. Any number of accused persons may be tried together for an offence alleged to have been committed by them collectively, unless it should be found that one or more of them is or are required to give evidence for the prosecution or defence, in which case separate charges must be framed and separate trials held except as provided for in section 57 of the Act.

- (2) When a Judge Advocate has been appointed to the Court, the documents (a) and (b) will be forwarded to the President, with the warrant for holding the Court and documents (c) and (d), together with (e), to the Judge Advocate for production in conformity with Rule 44. In other cases documents (a), (b) and (e) will be forwarded to the President, and documents (c) and (d) will be retained by the officer to whom the complaint has been made for production when required under Rule 44.

- (3) Should the complainant desire to enter into further explanations as to his reasons for asking for a Court, which would necessarily refer to the previous conduct or antecedents of the accused, he should do so verbally, or by separate letter, but such communication, whether oral or written, shall not be communicated to the Court, it being contrary to the principles recognised by Courts of Justice for the prosecution to urge the previous conduct of the accused as an element in determining the question of guilt or innocence. Such conduct can be taken into consideration only when punishment is being awarded.

Previous character of accused.

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

12. The convening authority shall, when practicable, appoint a Judge Advocate to every trial, who shall be, if possible, an officer of the Judge Advocate General's Department. Appointment of Judge Advocate.

13. (1) A copy of the charge-sheet, with the names of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, and a copy of the letter referred to in Rule 9 (1) (a) shall, in all practicable cases, be given to the accused, at least twenty-four hours before trial by a gazetted officer, who shall read and explain the same or cause the same to be explained in his presence to him if he cannot read; and he shall be offered an opportunity of giving the names of any witnesses whom he may desire to call; and such witnesses, on their names being given, shall, where practicable, be duly summoned or ordered to attend; and if it appears to the Court on its assembly, or during the trial, that the prisoner is liable to be prejudiced by any non-compliance with the foregoing provisions, it shall adjourn, in order that such action may be taken as will remove all reasonable ground of complaint on the part of the accused. Copy of charge-sheet, etc., to be furnished to accused.

(2) Charges shall be framed, as nearly as circumstances admit, in the forms in Schedule VI.

(3) When the accused is warned for trial, he shall be furnished with a list of the names of the officers who are appointed to form the Court by which he is to be tried.

14. The accused shall be afforded proper opportunity for preparing his defence, and shall be allowed free communication with his witnesses not being persons about to be tried on the same charge. Opportunity for defence to be allowed.

15. (1) The accused may have a person to assist him during the trial, whether an officer, legal adviser, or any other person, and in the case of an accused below the rank of officer, should he not obtain the help of any one for that purpose, it shall be considered part of the ordinary duty of the gazetted officer to whom he is immediately subordinate to watch the case on his behalf, and assist him should he desire it. Accused may have a person to assist him on trial.

(2) In the event of such officer being a witness for the prosecution, or unavailable or ineligible for the duty for any other reason, the commander shall direct another officer to assist the accused.

(3) The accused, should he prefer it, may conduct his own case.

(4) A person assisting the accused may advise him on all points, may suggest the questions to be put to witnesses, and may read the accused's defence, or statement in mitigation of punishment, but shall not address the Court.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN MARINE ACT, 1887 (XIV OF 1887).

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

Evidence that the accused has a bad character is inadmissible unless evidence has been given to show that he has a good character, in which case it becomes admissible.

- (4) No portion of the letter referred to in sub-section (1), clause (a), shall be treated as evidence, except in the case of the accused pleading guilty.

- (5) It is undesirable that, in cases where the commander of a Royal Indian Marine ship may be required to sit as a member of a Court he should himself investigate a complaint which, on the face of it, may be likely to form the subject of a charge for trial before such Court. The investigation in such a case should be undertaken by another gazetted officer, who should sign and forward to the commander the documents referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section 1. These shall then be transmitted, with the other documents required, by the commander to the proper authority.

On stations where, on account of the small number of Royal Indian Marine ships available, there is difficulty in obtaining the officers necessary to form a Court, officers should be particularly careful in this matter, because an objection on the part of the accused to be tried, based on the fact that one of the members of the Court had already investigated his case and expressed an opinion upon it, would probably be allowed, and if no other officer of the necessary rank were available, the Court could not be held until another opportunity presented itself.

Responsibility of convening officer.

10. No officer shall convene a Court until he shall have satisfied himself that the charges are properly framed and carefully drawn up; nor shall an officer to whom charges have been sent under Rule 9 (1) (b) forward such charges with a view to a Court being held without previously subjecting them to the same careful scrutiny. Should time permit, the charges shall be accompanied by a summary of the evidence to be adduced in their support, so that the convening authority may be enabled to judge of the correctness or sufficiency of the charges, and also whether the evidence, if uncontradicted, would probably suffice to ensure a conviction.

11. The form for summoning a person under section 62 shall be that prescribed in Schedule V.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

12. The convening authority shall, when practicable, appoint a Judge Advocate to every trial, who shall be, if possible, an officer of the Judge Advocate General's Department. Appointment of Judge Advocate.

13. (1) A copy of the charge-sheet, with the names of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, and a copy of the letter referred to in Rule 9 (1) (a) shall, in all practicable cases, be given to the accused, at least twenty-four hours before trial by a gazetted officer, who shall read and explain the same or cause the same to be explained in his presence to him if he cannot read; and he shall be offered an opportunity of giving the names of any witnesses whom he may desire to call; and such witnesses, on their names being given, shall, where practicable, be duly summoned or ordered to attend; and if it appears to the Court on its assembly, or during the trial, that the prisoner is liable to be prejudiced by any non-compliance with the foregoing provisions, it shall adjourn, in order that such action may be taken as will remove all reasonable ground of complaint on the part of the accused. Copy of charge-sheet, etc., to be furnished to accused.

(2) Charges shall be framed, as nearly as circumstances admit, in the forms in Schedule VI.

(3) When the accused is warned for trial, he shall be furnished with a list of the names of the officers who are appointed to form the Court by which he is to be tried.

14. The accused shall be afforded proper opportunity for preparing his defence, and shall be allowed free communication with his witnesses not being persons about to be tried on the same charge. Opportunity for defence to be allowed.

15. (1) The accused may have a person to assist him during the trial, whether an officer, legal adviser, or any other person, and in the case of an accused below the rank of officer, should he not obtain the help of any one for that purpose, it shall be considered part of the ordinary duty of the gazetted officer to whom he is immediately subordinate to watch the case on his behalf, and assist him should he desire it. Accused may have a person to assist him on trial.

(2) In the event of such officer being a witness for the prosecution, or unavailable or ineligible for the duty for any other reason, the commander shall direct another officer to assist the accused.

(3) The accused, should he prefer it, may conduct his own case.

(4) A person assisting the accused may advise him on all points, may suggest the questions to be put to witnesses, and may read the accused's defence, or statement in mitigation of punishment, but shall not address the Court.

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

Trial of two or more witnesses.

16. Where two or more accused persons are ordered to be tried together, and one of them desires to call another as a witness in his defence, they may be separately tried in any case where the convening authority is of opinion that such course is reasonable and proper.

Time for assembly of Court.

17. (1) A Court may sit at any hour, but not less than 24 hours' notice should be given to all concerned. The hour for assembly shall in the first instance be fixed in the convening order, and afterwards, in the case of an adjournment, the Court itself may fix the hour for re-assembly. In cases of mutiny the trial may be immediate.

Court not to sit on Sunday.

(2) Except in case of emergency, no Court shall sit on Sunday or Good Friday or any other public holiday.

Adjournments.

18. (1) A Court may adjourn from time to time; and the adjournments and re-assemblies shall be duly recorded in the proceedings.

(2) When the trial has once commenced, the Court should continue the trial from day to day as may be necessary, and should sit usually for six hours a day, unless it appears to the Court that an adjournment is necessary in the interests of justice.

(3) The convening authority may adjourn or prolong the adjournment of a Court in any case where he is of opinion that his duty requires him to intervene for such purpose.

Responsibility of President.

19. The President shall be responsible for the trial being conducted duly and in accordance with the Act and these Rules.

Prosecutor.

20. The Judge Advocate shall not act as prosecutor, and if, for any reason, the commander or the executive officer of the ship to which the accused belongs be not available for the duty, the convening authority shall name a competent officer, if available, to act as prosecutor. Should no such officer be available, the Court and Judge Advocate shall ask such questions as will bring the whole case before the Court in the fullest manner.

Accused's objection to members.

21. (1) As soon as the Court has been assembled, the accused shall be brought in, and the prosecutor admitted. The Judge Advocate, or, if there is none, the President, shall then read the warrant for assembling the Court, and the names of the officers composing it, and shall ask the accused if he objects to any of them. He cannot object to the Judge Advocate.

(2) Should more than one member be objected to the objection to each shall be disposed of separately, the objection to the lowest in rank being disposed of first; and on an objection to a member being made, all the other members present shall vote on the disposal of such objection, notwithstanding that objections have been made to any of them.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

(3) On an objection being allowed, the member objected to shall at once retire, and his place shall be filled up before considering an objection against another member.

(4) Should the President be objected to, and the objection allowed, the Court shall adjourn until a new President has been appointed.

(5) Should any member be objected to on the ground of his being summoned to give evidence as a witness, and should it be found that the objection has been made in good faith, and that the member is to give evidence as to facts and not merely as to character, the objection shall be allowed, whether made by the accused or by the prosecution.

(6) Should it be found that the officer was summoned to give evidence without sufficient cause, and merely to disqualify him from sitting, the Court may disallow the objection should it think fit.

(7) A member, whether previously objected to or not, is not necessarily disqualified from being examined as a witness, should it be found in the course of the proceedings that he can give material evidence.

(8) A member who may have been absent while any part of the evidence has been taken, can take no further part in the trial, but the Court shall not be affected thereby except as provided by section 53, sub-section (7), of the Act. Presence throughout of all members of Court.

(9) After all objections to members have been disposed of, the accused may raise any other objection which he desires to make respecting the constitution of the Court, and every such objection shall then be decided by the Court, whose decision shall be final. Objections to constitution of Court.

22. Should the accused have no further objection to make to the constitution of the Court, the members and the Judge Advocate shall then take the oaths in the manner prescribed by the Act, after which the Judge Advocate, or, if there is none, the President, shall read the charge against the accused and the letter referred to in Rule 9 (1) (a). Procedure.

23. Before the Court proceeds to try the accused, the Judge Advocate shall administer to every member of the Court an oath in the form under section 56; and when there is no Judge Advocate, the oath shall be administered by the President to the other members and shall be administered to the President by any member already sworn. Oaths to be administered to members of Courts-Martial.

24. (1) The form of oath to be made under section 56, sub-section (1), by the members of a Court shall be as follows, namely: Oath by Court.

"I ^{swear} ^{solemnly affirm} that I will well and truly try the ^{prisoner} ^{prisoners} before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the Indian Marine Act, 1887, without partiality, favour, or affection; and I further ^{swear}_{solemnly affirm} that I will not divulge the finding or sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed; and I further ^{swear}_{solemnly affirm} that I will not disclose the opinion of any particular member of the Court. So help me God."

Oath by witness.

(2) The oath to be made by a witness under section 56, sub-section (2), shall be as follows, namely:

"The evidence which I shall give before this Court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help me God."

(3) In any case where a person makes affirmation in lieu of oath, the words "So help me God" shall be omitted.

(4) The forms prescribed in sub-sections (2) and (3) of this rule, and in sub-section (5) of Rule 26, shall be used in proceedings before a commanding officer exercising jurisdiction under section 43, as well as in proceedings before a Court.

Oath to be administered to Judge Advocate.

25. As soon as the said oath shall have been administered to the members of the Court, the President shall administer to the Judge Advocate the following oath:

"I do ^{swear}_{solemnly affirm} that I will not, upon any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this Court unless thereunto required in due course of law. So help me God." In any case where a person makes affirmation in lieu of oath, the words "So help me God" shall be omitted.

Shorthand writer and interpreter.

26. (1) At any time during the trial, should the Court think it desirable, an impartial person may be sworn to act as a shorthand writer.

(2) Should a shorthand writer be employed, the evidence given by each witness shall be read over to him by the shorthand writer, either from the shorthand notes or from a transcript of them, before the witness leaves the Court.

(3) The transcript of the shorthand writer's notes, made by him and certified by the Judge Advocate to be the shorthand writer's transcript, shall constitute the original proceedings of the Court.

(4) The form of oath to be made by a shorthand writer shall be as follows, namely:

Oaths for shorthand writer and interpreter.

I, A. B., do most solemnly swear (or solemnly affirm) that I will truly take down, to the best of my power, the evidence given before this Court, and such other matters as I may be required, and when required will deliver to the Court a true transcript of the same. So help me God.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

(5) The form of oath to be made by an interpreter shall be as follows, namely:

I, A. B., do most solemnly swear (or solemnly affirm) that I will, to the best of my ability, truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this Court. So help me God.

(6) In any case where a person makes affirmation in lieu of oath the words "So help me God" shall be omitted.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, an oath may be administered in such form and with such ceremonies as the person to be sworn may declare to be binding on his conscience.

27. Before a person is sworn as shorthand writer or interpreter, the accused should be informed who it is that is proposed to be sworn and may object to such person as not being impartial; and the Court, if it thinks such objection reasonable, shall not permit such person to be sworn as shorthand writer or interpreter.

28. All evidence shall be recorded in the presence of the accused.

29. All questions to witnesses by the Court shall be put to them by the President.

30. When any discussion arises between the members of the Court, the President shall cause the Court to be cleared.

31. (1) For the purpose of enabling the accused to explain any circumstance appearing in the evidence, the Court may, through the President, put such questions to him as it considers proper, and may question him generally on the case at any time before the finding.

(2) The accused shall not be bound to answer any question so put nor be punishable for answering falsely.

32. The complainant shall be a competent witness; but when there is any other witness for the prosecution, his evidence shall be taken first. He may be re-called, for examination or re-examination, by the Court, or for cross-examination by the accused, during any part of the proceedings, but not for the purpose of giving evidence on any new matter.

33. The Court or the Judge Advocate, with the consent of the Court, may at any period of the trial re-call a witness: and may also, before the opening of the case for the defence, call and examine any person not summoned as a witness, whose evidence the Court may deem necessary for the furtherance of the ends of justice; and further, after the close of the case for the defence, may call and examine any other person whose evidence the accused may show to the Court to be material in his behalf.

35. Should a shorthand writer be not engaged, the Judge Advocate, or, if there is none, the President, shall take down in writing and in a narrative form, in as nearly as possible the words used, the evidence of each witness; but in any case where the complainant, the accused, the Judge Advocate, or the Court considers it desirable, the question and answer shall be taken down verbatim.

The evidence shall then be read in the hearing of the witness in order that any mistakes may be corrected. No erasures shall be made in the record of the proceedings, and all corrections or interlineations shall be verified by the initials of the recording officer.

The proceedings of the Court shall be recorded as nearly as may be in the form of Schedule VII.

Duties of
cate.

36. (1) At all times after the Judge Advocate has been appointed, the prosecutor and the accused shall be entitled to his opinion on any question of law relating to the charge or trial, whether he be in or out of Court, subject, should he be in Court, to the permission of the Court.

(2) Whether consulted or not, it shall be his duty to inform the convening authority and the Court of any informality or defect in the charge or in the constitution of the Court.

(3) Any information, advice, or opinion given to the Court on any matter before it shall be entered in the proceedings, if the Judge Advocate or the Court so desire.

(4) On the Judge Advocate shall devolve the duty of taking care that the accused does not suffer any disadvantage in consequence of his position as such, or of his ignorance, or of his incapacity to examine or cross-examine witnesses, or from any other cause, and for that purpose, with the permission of the Court, he may call any witnesses and put any questions which may appear necessary or desirable.

(5) In fulfilling his duties the Judge Advocate must be careful to maintain an entirely impartial position.

Advising the Court.

37. The regularity or legality of the proceedings, of the finding or of the sentence of a Court, may depend on the correct solution of questions having no direct connexion with technical law; it is therefore the duty of the Judge Advocate to advise the Court, to the utmost of his knowledge and ability, not only on questions of naval law and the procedure of Indian Marine Courts as they arise, but also on every question of doubt or difficulty with reference to common and statute law, to the law and rules of evidence, and to the rules and regulations of the service generally, whether his opinion be asked by the Court or not.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN MARINE ACT, 1887 (XIV OF 1887).

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

38. (1) Each member of a Court shall give his vote on every question which has to be decided by it, and notwithstanding that he may have voted for an acquittal shall vote as to the sentence if the accused is convicted. Votes and opinion of Court.

(2) In voting upon any question the order of voting shall be according to rank and seniority, the junior member of lowest rank voting first and so on up to the President, who shall vote last. Votes shall be given orally and not in writing.

(3) No member shall be added to the Court after the arraignment, and no member who has been absent at any time after arraignment shall again sit as such.

39. When any question has been once decided, the decision shall be binding upon the whole Court; but the President may, before any decision has been recorded, should he think fit, require the members of the Court, commencing with the junior member, to give their votes de novo, the votes being taken orally as before. Reconsidering votes.

40. The production of the ship's books to prove that the prisoner was subject to the Act, at the time when the charge or charges may be laid, may be dispensed with when other sufficient evidence of the fact is forthcoming. Production of ship's books.

41. Should an Indian Marine Court be ordered to inquire into a charge having reference to the loss, grounding or hazarding of a ship, the following points, in addition to the customary investigation, are to be attended to when practicable: Charges of loss, grounding, etc., R. I. M. ships.

(a) The ship's log book and deck log book; the last table of compass deviations, the compass journal and the subsequent observed deviations of the compass at sea, the captain's night order book; the navigating officer's sight and work book; and the chart or charts and sailing directions by which the ship was navigated are to be produced. Special directions.

(b) The Court shall ascertain whether the proper chart and all hydrographical notices bearing on the case had been supplied, and if so, used; whether the position of the ship by the best means available had, if at sea, been fixed at the noon and at any later time previous to the occurrence; if not, when it was last ascertained so correctly that reliance should have been placed on it; and whether the courses steered by standard compass, and the distances run between the time when the position of the ship was last correctly ascertained and that of the occurrence, were noted in the deck log book

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

THE INDIAN MARINE ACT, 1887 (XIV OF 1887).

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

- (c) Whether requested or not to do so by the prosecution, the Court shall direct one or more navigating or other competent officers of ships present to work up the ship's reckoning from the log and the navigating officer's sight and work book, from the time when her position was last accurately ascertained (or from such a time and with such details as the Court may see fit) to the time of her taking, or being in danger of taking, the ground; the result is to be delivered to the Court, attested by the signature of such officer or officers, and to its accuracy he or they are to be sworn and to be subject to cross-examination. (The positions of the ship, so determined, are to be laid off on the chart by which she was navigated, and also the determined position when ashore or in danger, as noted in the log book. The rate and direction of the current and of the tidal stream and the time of tide should also, if possible, be ascertained, stated and equally verified on oath.)
- (d) These documents (viz., the result and the chart), as well as an attested copy of the ship's log book, commencing from at least 48 hours before the ship took the ground or was in danger, if so long from a known anchorage, are to accompany the minutes.
- (e) The Court shall inquire whether the regulations with regard to the use of the deep sea and land leads were carefully observed.
- (f) If the land was seen and, no satisfactory cross bearings being obtained, its distance estimated, the Court should ascertain what steps were taken, while in sight, to check the estimated distance by the run of the ship.

Amendment of charges.

42. If at any time in the course of a trial after the Court has been sworn, but before the accused's guilt or innocence has been determined, the Court is satisfied that there is a variance between the charge or charges and the evidence adduced, or to be adduced, in support thereof, and considers that such variance is not material to the merits of the case and that the accused cannot, by the amendment of the charge, be substantially prejudiced in his defence, it may direct the Judge Advocate to amend the charge or charges, adjourning, should it deem it necessary, for a reasonable time, to enable the accused to meet the charge or charges so amended. All such amendments shall be noted in the record of the proceedings and be verified on the original documents by the signature of the President.

Part II.—General Rules and Orders made under General Acts of the Governor General in Council—contd.

Procedure of Indian Marine Courts—contd.

43. When the evidence has been closed and the accused has been heard in his own defence, and the prosecutor in reply, the accused shall be removed, and the Court cleared. The Court shall then consider the matter in evidence before it, and the Judge Advocate, by the direction of the Court, shall draw up such questions as shall be agreed upon, whereon to form a determination in regard to the innocence or guilt of the accused. Finding of the Court.

44. The Court, after conviction and before awarding punishment and in addition to any oral evidence of general character that may have been adduced, shall call for and take into consideration the following documents: Evidence as to character.

(1) In the case of a gazetted, warrant or petty officer—

- (a) any entries or certified copies of entries against him in the list of officers who have been tried by Indian Marine Courts;
- (b) any entries against him in the log, or other official document, of the ship to which he may have belonged when the offence or offences for which he is being tried was or were committed; and
- (c) any certificates or other documentary evidence of character which the prisoner may produce.

(2) In the case of a person below the rank of petty officer—

- (b) his certificate of service; and
- (c) his conduct sheet, with a general statement as to his character since the date of the last entry therein up to, but not including, the date of the offence committed by him.

45. Due steps shall be taken to procure the attendance of the witnesses whom the prosecutor or the accused may desire to call, and whose attendance can reasonably be procured, but should it appear that any witness has been summoned without sufficient cause, the person requiring the attendance of such witness may be required to defray the cost (if any) of such attendance, at the discretion of the Governor General in Council. Subject to this provision, the payment of the reasonable expenses of witnesses not subject to the Act, who may have been summoned to give evidence at an Indian Marine Court shall be made by the Examiner of Marine Accounts. Procuring attendance witnesses.

Under other circumstances resulting in the trial of an offender for striking, etc., his superior officer the latter should be described as not being in the execution of his office. In charges of striking or attempting to strike, or using violence or attempting to use violence, it is not necessary to insert the details descriptive of the mode of such striking, nor of the manner in which such violence was used; nor, if the accused has used a weapon, need the nature of the weapon be stated in the charge.

† Note on section 18.—To constitute an offence of "behaving with contempt" it is not necessary for the subordinate to be insolent in manner or disrespectful in tone so long as being in the presence of his superior officer, the words used show contempt for the position or the orders of such superior officer.

‡ Note on section 19.—A charge of "attempting to desert" must not be drawn. The definition of the offence of desertion is doing an act which shows that there is no intention of returning. To justify a conviction, therefore, it is not necessary that the deserter shall have succeeded in fully effecting an escape.

* Note on section 23.—A charge of drunkenness should be framed in the following manner:—

Charge.—Drunkenness on boardship (or on duty) in that on the 19, on board the Royal Indian Marine vessel, he was drunk (or, on the 19, at, when on duty he was drunk.)

In cases where conflicting or indecisive evidence is given, it may sometimes be very difficult to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion. The proper meaning to be attributed to the word 'drunk' in such cases is this, that through the intoxicating effect of liquor or a drug the prisoner was unfit to be entrusted with his duty. On the one hand, it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that the prisoner was through liquor in any extreme condition, nor is the prisoner necessarily entitled to an acquittal by showing that on the occasion in question he could, or actually did, do some particular duty without manifest failure. If, upon consideration of all the evidence, the Court comes to the conclusion that the prisoner was, through the intoxicating effect of liquor, unfit to be entrusted with his duty, they should find him guilty of the charge. If, on the other hand, in the opinion of the Court, it is not satisfactorily proved that the prisoner was, through the intoxicating effect of liquor, or a drug, unfit to be entrusted with his duty, then notwithstanding they may infer from the evidence that he had drunk more than usual, they ought to acquit.
